July 23, 1909:

"Although the Eagle will probably receiv o more favors this year from the Dakots ounty Pioneer and Old Settlers' associa ion than has previously been handed it (which has been nothing), we will, never theless, continue to be the biggest booster for a successful picnic the association has One or two peanut-headed individuals cor nected with the Old Settlers' association are seeing to it that the Eagle does not re ceive any consideration at the hands of the society, presumably all because at differ ent times the Eagle has suggested that it thought it might be well for the society after each picnic, to make a public financia Everyone that can be 1 touched for their yearly dues on Old Set tlers' day and many other means are resort ed to to secure funds, which is right and proper. But the pienic is a county affair and the people of the county who support it are entitled to know from what source oney is received and to whom and for what it is paid out. The Eagle should think the officers themselves would want to show the society's members that they were conlucting their business squarely and honorably. If there isn't a nigger in the woodalle there is an awful strong coon smell in

Last year the privilege of printing the official program was let to The Herald on payment of $15, it being the highest, and in fact the only sealed bid handed in as requested. This year the same privilege was given to he Eagle for $10, without even askfor bids on that particular privilege. Do you see the point?
