NELSON FRAYTO.

Notice of Democratic Precinct Caucuses.
It is recommended by the democratic county central committee that the different precincts hold their caucuses on Saturday, August 15, 1910, at 7 o'clock p. m., the usual voting places for the purpose of selecting candidates for the different precinct offices.
Thomas Ashford, Chairman.
Paul Pizoy, Secretary.

Swan Olson of Walthill, is a candidate for the nomination of representative of the district at the hands of the republicans.

It is generally conceded that every man who has served faithfully in a political office is entitled to another term. Senator Burkett is just closing his first term as a United States Senator. He is asking for a re-election. At this time Nebraska needs experienced men to represent her in the United States Senate. No new man can expect to accomplish anything the first few years. Senator Burkett has the knowledge of affairs born of experience. He can do more for Nebraska than any man that can possibly be sent to represent the people. He knows its wants and in the position which he now stands with so many senators retiring, he will step into prominence as one of the most able senators of that body. If you want Nebraska to take a prominent part in the progressive legislation which is needed at the next term in congress, vote to return Senator Burkett to Washington on Tuesday, the 16th day of August.

Items of Interest from our Exchanges

Pender Republic: John F. Meyers was down from Sioux City Monday.

Ponca Journal: Mrs. Warnock is visiting in Dakota City this week. Chas. Eyer is doing some painting at Vista this week.

Wynot Tribune: Mrs. Antrim and children of Coleridge have been here during the past week visiting at the parental home in St. James.

Beacon items in Emerson Enterprise: Florence and Orval Warner went to Homer last week to take in the picnic and came home Wednesday of this week.

Newcastle Times: Mrs. Sam Heikes and two children Lola and Geraldine, returned to their home at Dakota City, Tuesday after a visit here at the Al Russell home.

Thurston items in Pender Republic: Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pounds were over from Hubbard Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Lefe Clinkenbeard were passengers to Hubbard Monday evening.

Jefferson items in Lyons Mirror: Mr. and Mrs. M. Warner, and friends from Lincoln, drove through Jefferson Sunday enroute to the Indian pop-wow and made a friendly call at Wilbur Newells.

Lyons Mirror: Arthur Kohlmeier from Wakefield is visiting with his grandpa, John Bissell. Mrs. R. C. Bauer, a sister of M. M. Warner was here this week enroute to her home in Canada.

Sergeant Bluff items in Sloan, Iowa, Star: Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Hollenbeck spent a couple of days at Crystal Lake last week. Mr. and Mrs. John Hollenbeck left Tuesday to spend a week's outing with their daughter at Crystal Lake.

Pender Times: Misses Mary Twobig and Ruth Hutchinson of Sioux City were guests of Miss Lou Hirsch Sunday. John Forrest and family and Miss Edna and Roland Wachter of Lincoln came down from Crystal Lake where they have been stopping and visiting in Pender.

Wayne Democrat: Gene Leahy was a visitor from Jackson over Sunday. The Kemp and Corkey families went to Crystal Lake Tuesday morning for a week's outing. John Buford and family spent Sunday and Monday at Crystal Lake, guests of the Heckert's.

Heckert's will return from Crystal Lake on Friday when the Kate family will occupy the cottage. T. W. Moran took a run down to Crystal Lake Sunday to visit his family, who are spending a few weeks in the Berry cottage. Good thing Rev. Corkey has gone to Crystal Lake. The Wayne people who are so good when at home have gone a fast pace at the now famous outing place. They fish and swim on the Sabbath; drink colored, fuzzy water; play pool, and we heard of one Wayne, married woman loaning money to strangers. It appears that there is something in the lake water—aside from horse manure—that makes the visitors go some.

Sioux City Journal, 8th: The pleasure craft of Crystal Lake were increased yesterday by the launching of the Queen, which had been brought from Capital Beach lake, near Lincoln, Neb. by the owner, Joseph Gannon. The Queen is an 18 horsepower, glass bottom motor boat. It is 40 feet long, 13 feet wide and can develop a speed of fourteen miles an hour. A large flock of Oysls from the Sioux City nest, No. 1246, gathered at Crystal Lake yesterday afternoon and evening for their first annual picnic. A similar affair will be held every year hereafter. The picnic dinner proved to be the feature of the outing. A quartette and an orchestra furnished music during the afternoon and evening.

Emerson Enterprise: Sheriff Rockwell was in town on business Tuesday. Gus Grilach was in town Sunday visiting friends. He is working in a butcher shop at Winnebago. Mrs. John Groves returned to her home at Bloomfield after a pleasant week at the home of Chas. Varva. Mrs. Anna Wallace age 66 and M. P. Doran age 73 will be married at the Sacred Heart church by Rev. Father Burke as soon as he returns home. Mr. Doran for the past few years has been living with his son in South Dakota and other relatives but this does not take the place of his own home and becoming lonesome his thoughts turned to Miss Anna Kelley, a little girl he had known in old Ireland. Miss Kelley had married and came to this country where she lived at Dubuque, Ia, until after the death of her husband, when she went to live with her daughter in Sioux City. They will reside in Mr. Doran's home in the north part of town.

Winnebago Chieftain: J. W. Reynolds was at Homer Saturday. Mrs. James Feltz was on the sick list this week. Harold Buckland was in town over Sunday. Sam Deering has been on the sick list the past week. Misses Mable and Mamie Clapp, of Homer, drove down yesterday. Miss Ida Anderson, of Sioux City, visited at the John Ashford home this week. Omar Killbourn was up to Homer Wednesday afternoon, seeing the races. Sim T. Huber, of Sioux City and Marshall Chas. F. Bates, of Homer, were in town on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. O. S. Lake, of Homer, were down last Sunday, spending the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Harris. Mrs. Jacob Heikes, of Wakefield, came on Tuesday for a visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Sam Deering. She went to Dakota City yesterday to visit other relatives. Sherman McKinley is the new barber at Mercour's barber shop. Mr. McKinley needs no introduction to the majority of people in the vicinity hereabout, as he bartered at Homer several years ago. He and his family recently returned to Homer from the Nebraska "sand hills," where he has proved up on his claim. Mrs. R. J. Jones and little daughter, of Omaha, in company with her mother, Mrs. James Harris, and the former sister-in-law, Mrs. Ern Harris, and Miss Lulu Harris, all of Homer, were visitors on Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Harris. Mrs. Jones, when she was Miss Sarah Harris, was a former compositor on the Homer Free Press when it was on lot to publish that sheet. She made the Chieftain office a pleasant call with her friends.

Sioux City Tribune, 8th: Following the South Sioux City town council's service of notice to stop selling beer and operating money gambling machines at Bobby Black's cafe, Crystal Lake, Saturday morning, Sheriff J. P. Rockwell, of Dakota county, served similar notice on the proprietors of all similar places on the lake Saturday afternoon. The resort was free from beer and slot machines yesterday. Since about a half dozen men conducting lunch rooms and refreshment parlors at the lake are said to have been selling beer and operating money-paying slot machines in open disregard of the law the lake has come to be frequented largely by a rough class and parties of drunken men and women have been common sights. The proprietors of all the places have declared that their particular places of amusement were conducted in good order and that other places then theirs were responsible for the evil conditions. Each proprietor blamed the others though he did not single out any particular competitor. South Sioux City people became so disgusted with the situation that the town council held a special meeting Friday night and instructed Marshal Waddell to order Bobby Black, proprietor of the Black cafe, to stop selling liquor and operating slot machines. Waddell visited Black's Saturday morning and delivered the council's order. Mr. Black complied. The Black cafe was the only resort over which the South Sioux City council could exercise any authority, it being the only resort on the lake that was within the South Sioux City town limits. Sheriff Rockwell, learning that South Sioux City had ordered Bobby Black to stop violating the law, took the same action with regard to the other places in the afternoon. He visited Joe Saunders, proprietor of the Island Beach hotel; Alfred Savage, proprietor of a lunch room and confectionery stand, and Dennis Finnerty, who conducts a boathouse and is alleged to have sold considerable beer on the side, and told them all that they must sell no more beer and not run gambling machines. They all promised obedience. The sheriff also served similar notice on Bobby Black, but he already had ceased doing the things of which the people had complained. Sheriff Rockwell said today: "There wasn't much disposition to bother those places as long as they were so far from South Sioux City and nobody went to them except people who wanted to go to such places; but they got so strong that the drunks bothered South Sioux people. South Sioux went after Black, so I thought it only fair to make the others stop."
