FOYE LINE REORGANIZED

The stockholders of the Sioux City, Crystal Lake & Homer Railway company held a meeting Tuesday and elected new officers. The Tribune gives the following account of the meeting:
 "J A Foye, sr, organizer and financial backer of the Sioux City, Crystal Lake & Homer Railway company, who for years has given all of his time to and invested all of his capital in that line of electric road, yesterday was removed from the office of president and general manager of the company and the presidency was given to Riley Howard, of Orchard, Neb. The action was taken at a meeting of the directors, held in a car on the Foye line, the car being stationed on a track at what is called Crystal Lake Junction. Mr Foye was made vice president and given a place on the executive board. Riley Howard is a close friend of Mr Foye and with others bought a controlling interest in the road.
 By the new arrangements accomplished by a total shifting of positions, the general management, formerly also in the hands of the elder Foye, is vested in Ira Howard, a son of Riley Howard, while Joe A Foye, jr, retains his position as secretary of the company. M O Ayres, of Dakota City, a banker who has furnished some financial backing to the Foyes.
 Harry Foye, who was vice president of the road, is displaced and given a position on the directorate, together with Steve Howard, another son of the new president, and John M Coe, of Sioux City. On the new executive committee are placed Riley Howard, J M Coe and J A Foye, sr.
 That the control of the road has passed from the hands of Mr Foye is plainly evident by the list of directors chosen at yesterday's election. On this list are the names of three Foyes and four outside the Foye family.

This directorate is Riley Howard, Ira Howard, Stephen Howard, J M Coe, J A Foye, sr; J A Foye, jr, and Harry Foye. This interest passed into the hands of Riley Howard on May 23.
 While the same management does not state it has the control of Crystal Lake, the summer resort that has been managed solely by the Foye family, it is said that Mr Howard and Mr Coe have such an interest there that they propose to put considerable money into the place and widen its scope as a summer resort. It is stated that the control of the resort does not go with that of the electric line. The resort company is not incorporated.
 According to J M Coe, of the board of directors, who came into possession of stock in the company at the time that Mr Howard secured holdings, the stringing of trolley wires on to the court house in Dakota City will be completed by tomorrow evening and the residents of that town will be given service from that central point practically into Sioux City.
 We expect to make many other extensive improvements, said Mr Coe, and within a short time we will extend the schedule. Then we intend to have the service start at 6 o'clock in the morning and continue until midnight. This service will be so arranged that the cars will connect with the Sioux City traction line in South Sioux City.
 Mr Foye sr, doesn't feel that he had been set aside by the new controllers of the company, for, he says, Mr Howard, who lives at Orchard, is foremost of the time and the responsibility as head of the company will continue to fall upon himself. The road, he declares, is prospering and making money, and he is encouraged to believe that it will be developed into an important line.
 "I am in no way displeased with the turn of events," said Mr Foye today. "We are planning many improvements that will require considerable capital to execute and we now are in shape to get the capital needed. We have profited greatly by our extension to Dakota City and the people in the city appreciate the service we are giving them. Our line never was in as good shape as now and we anticipate great things from the coming year. The change suits me all right."

A Note of Thanks

Rev S L Keller and family wish to express many thanks to the members and friends who contributed so generously to the donation at the Lutheran paragon last Tuesday evening. In addition to the numerous valuable and useful gifts received, a very highly prized check was contributed by the members and friends of Emmanuel congregation. May the Lord richly bless all who participated.
