DEMOCRATS SWEEP STATE AND ELECT COL. F. W. PLAISTED GOVERNOR.

PROBABLY WIN LEGISLATURE

Four Republican Congressmen Are Defeated--State Issues Are Given as Cause for Change of Political Complexion of State.

Augusta, Me.--Col. Frederick W. Plaisted, mayor of this city, was elected governor at the election held in this state Monday. The Democrats have probably elected four congressmen and it is likely that they will have a majority in the state legislature.

That state issues, notably the drastic enforcement of the prohibitory law by the party in power, have been chiefly responsible for the election of Plaisted is freely admitted on both sides and this result is not much of a surprise to close observers, but that the political complexion of Maine representation in congress should be changed is regarded as the verdict of the voters on the questions which are uppermost in the insurgent west.

Should the legislature prove to be Democratic it is altogether likely that the question of maintaining the prohibitory law will be submitted to the people and of course a Democrat will succeed Eugene Hale in the United States senate.

Returns from the state received on Tuesday from all but twenty-one towns in the state give Plaisted (Dem.), for governor, a plurality over Fernald (Rep.) of 8,551 votes.

Hinds and Guernsey, Republicans, and McGillicuddy and Gould, Democrats, are elected to congress.

Returns from all but two small representative classes give the Democrats 21 out of the 31 state senators and 86 out of the 151 representatives. Phoenix, Ariz.--Conservative estimates show that the Democrats have elected a majority of delegates to the Constitutional convention and that the initiative and referendum was carried overwhelmingly.

STEAMER SINKS IN THE LAKE

Big Car Ferry Pere Marquette Goes Down Off Ludington--Twenty-nine Perish.

Milwaukee--Twenty-nine lives were lost in Lake Michigan when the Pere Marquette's car ferry, No. 18, sank from unknown cause twenty miles off Sheboygan, Wis., Friday.

It is declared one of the worst marine disasters in the history of Lake Michigan navigation. The boat was valued at $400,000, and the cargo, which included thirty-two loaded cars, estimated to be worth $150,000.

At the sacrifice of two of her own seamen, and after terrible hours of struggle the steel car ferry Pere Marquette No. 17, which went to the assistance of No. 18, reached this port with three dead, and twenty-nine survivors of the crew of her sister ship.

Twelve of the rescued were in one of the ship's boats, the remainder were clinging to the wreckage or floating about buffeted by the debris.

The catastrophe occurred approximately thirty miles off from Port Washington. No. 17, bound from Milwaukee for Ludington, reached the wreck just as the No. 18 sank out of sight.

Several miles away a lone boat was floundering in the surge and swell of the waves, and on all sides were the shrieks and screams of the poor wretches soaked through and through with the almost ice-cold water and gripped by the strong winds.

The Pere Marquette No. 20, out from Ludington bound for Milwaukee and manned by a crew most of whom come from the same city as those on the sunken vessel, was the third craft to reach here. Just prior to its arrival the fishing tug Teaser, out from Port Washington, had picked up six dead, among them Capt. Kilty, which were transferred to the No. 17 and taken back to Ludington.

In marine circles it is believed that the string of twenty-eight cars became loose as the ferry was buffeted about and that the water rolled into the vessel's stern, which was wide open. This seems plausible in view of the fact that the sea was rolling from the north, the most dangerous on Lake Michigan, while the steamer was heading southwest by south.

Tacoma, Wash.--Gold bullion worth $57,000, part of a $170,000 shipment from the Washington-Alaska Bank of Fairbanks, Alaska, to the Dexter Horton National bank of Seattle, was stolen and lead substituted in the strong box that contained it while the consignment was in transit between Dawson, Yukon territory, and the United States assay office here.

BEEF PACKERS ARE INDICTED

TEN IN THE TOILS OF THE FEDERAL GRAND JURY.

Five Presidents of Packing Companies Charged With Having Violated the Sherman Anti-Trust Law.

Chicago.--Ten men, five of them presidents of the most extensive packing companies in the world and all of them directors of the National Packing company, which has been the special object of recent governmental investigation, were indicted by the federal grand jury on a charge of having violated the Sherman anti-trust act.

Three indictments, the first one containing five counts and the others one each, were returned before Judge Kenesaw M. Landis, who empaneled the grand jury two months ago.

The maximum penalty for each violation of the Sherman act is a fine of $5,000 or imprisonment for one year, or both.

The indictments charge that all of the defendants have engaged in a combination in restraint of interstate trade in fresh meats, that they have engaged in a conspiracy in restraint of trade and that they have monopolized the trade in fresh meats by unlawful means.

The indictments cover 125 pages of typewritten matter. They go into every angle of the packing industry in this country and contain the allegations that 25 per cent of the fresh meat consumed in the eastern, western and middle southern states comes directly from the companies controlled by the defendants. The proportion of each concern in this trade is given as follows: Swift group of houses, 47 per cent; Armour group, 40 per cent; Morris group, 13 per cent.

Chicago--Seven of the Chicago meat packers indicted by the federal grand jury on charges of conspiracy in restraint of trade appeared before Judge Landis Tuesday and gave bonds in the sum of $50,000 each. By their prompt appearance they escaped arrest on bench warrants which Judge Landis had ordered issued.

The first packer to put in an appearance was J. Ogden Armour. He was followed by Arthur Meeker, Edward Tilden, Edward H. Morris, Louis H. Heyman, Edward F. and Charles H. Swift.

Francis A. Fowler, also indicted, was reported ill by his counsel, who promised to bring him in as soon as he was able to come. Representations were made that Louis F. Swift and Thomas J. Connors will give the required bonds on their return from Europe, which will be within a few days.

The judge did not require the personal appearance of the packers in court. The indicted men were represented by Levy Mayer, John S. Miller and George T. Buckingham.

The court stipulated that each packer be held under bond of $10,000 on each count of the indictment, thus making the total bond of each defendant $50,000, and the aggregate of the bonds of the ten packers $500,000.

Attorney Miller pleaded with Judge Landis for a reduction of the bond to $5,000 on each count, as was the case when the packers were indicted five years ago.

Acting Secretary of War Oliver and Daughter Conclude Long Endurance Horseback Ride.

Washington.--One of the longest endurance horseback rides ever taken by a woman has just been finished by Miss Marion Oliver, daughter of the acting secretary of war. Miss Oliver, who returned here, spoke in enthusiastic enjoyment of her long ride. With her, besides her father, on the trip, were Mrs. Herbert Wadsworth, the society cross-country rider, and Captain Cheney of the White House staff. Three hundred and fifty miles of hard riding over the rugged Indian trails of Arizona and New Mexico made Miss Oliver's ride noteworthy. On account of the rough character of the riding Mrs. Wadsworth's feat of riding 212 miles in twenty hours was not excelled.

KILLED BY FALLING ROCKS

Ten Workmen Are Dead, Nine Injured in Erie Railroad Tunnels at Jersey City.

Jersey City, N. J.--By the fall of hundreds of tons of Pallisade rock through the broken roof of the old Erie railroad tunnels ten workmen were crushed to death Sunday and nine others were seriously injured, five of them probably fatally.

The dead and injured formed part of a gang of twenty-eight hard rock men who were removing the mountain of stone above the tunnels to transform them into open "cuts" as was recently completed on other tracks adjacent. Somebody either blundered in blasting which weakened the brick roof of the tubes, or there was an unsuspected fault in the rock.

NO QUORUM PRESENT

BALLINGER VERDICT WILL NOT BE KNOWN UNTIL DECEMBER 3.

Congressional Inquiry Committee Meet at Chicago But Adjourn to Assemble at Washington--Only Republicans Put in an Appearance.

Chicago--Not until next December will Richard A. Ballinger, secretary of the interior, learn the verdict arrived at by the congressional investigating committee.

Six members of the committee met in Chicago Tuesday to take action on the majority report, but after deliberating several hours, without a quorum present, an adjournment was taken until December.

The members present were: Senator Ellhu Root of New York, Knute

Chicago--The jury in the second trial of Lee O'Neil Browne, leader of the minority in the Illinois legislature, charged with bribing Representative Charles A. White to vote for Senator Lorimer, returned a verdict of not guilty in the criminal court Friday. In the first trial of Browne the jury disagreed.

The speedy verdict was a surprise to the many who had watched the progress of the second trial and had feared that a repetition of the tedious deliberations of the first jury would close the case. The verdict was returned before Judge Kersten after the jury had deliberated a little over twenty-one hours.

As the words "not guilty" fell from the clerk's lips a cheer went up. Scenes of confusion followed. It was with difficulty that the bailiffs restrained the crowd. It was then that Browne jumped from his chair, seized Attorney Erbstein around the neck and they embraced each other. A moment later Browne was torn from his counsel by his friends. They pushed him around the room in jubilation to offer their congratulations. Browne then tried to reach the jury box to thank the jurors.

"I thank--" he began, but he did not finish, his emotions overcoming him. Tears ran down his face.

Trenton, N. J.--Returns indicate that Congressman Charles N. Fowler of the Fifth district was Tuesday indorsed for the United States senate by Governor Stokes, a close second, and ex-Governor Murphy third. Considerably less than half of the normal vote was polled. Woodrow Wilson is probably the Democratic nominee for governor and State Banking Commissioner Lewis is insured the Republican nomination.

WANT HIGHER RATES

RAILWAY EMPLOYEES ASK AID FOR RAILROADS.

A PETITION TO CANDIDATES

Doing So, They Say, in Their Own Interest, Which Follows Prosperity of the Railroads.

N. Downer, chairman of the employees' committee of the Rock Island railroad, has mailed to the candidates for the legislature and for state offices and members of congress a liberally signed petition asking for an increase in railroad rates in Nebraska.

The petition is signed by business and professional men and railroad employees from many towns along the Rock Island, the list filling sixteen typewritten pages.

The petition adopted by the employees committee is as follows: We, as citizens of this country, believe in fair profits and good wages, and we, as railroad employees, realize that our personal prosperity is inseparably associated with the prosperity of the railroad, our employer.

The increased cost of materials, labor, taxes and other essential elements entering into the cost of operating the railroad is a matter of common knowledge. The public demands better time, greater safety, better accommodations, better equipment and generally better service. The public is constantly receiving improved service from the care devoted to the operation of the railway by their managements. The public ought to be willing and we believe is willing to pay for such service.

All of this points to the necessity that the railroads receive a higher rate for the transportation they furnish. Increased rates for transportation will insure regularity of our employment and the stability of our earnings and in all fairness this is due us as well as the railroads.

We support the railroads in their known efforts to secure higher rates for the transportation they furnish and we urge all those who have to do with the rate question, whether the Interstate Commerce commission, State Railway or Public Service commission, national and state legislators, to deal fairly with this vital question. We have had much legislation involving the regulation of the railroads and much politics in connection with the operation and control of the railroads in the recent past.

The fund from which our wages are paid cannot be constantly depleted without injuring us as employees. We know that transportation rates have nothing to do with the increased cost of living and we feel now that our employers, the railroads, mostly need increased compensation in order to secure increased earnings.

As employees of the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific Railway company we have signed this petition in harmony with the above declaration and have authorized their presentation to the Interstate Commerce commission, state railroad commissions or to any official, federal or state, who has anything to do with railroad rate making or railroad regulation.

As individuals interested in our own comfort and prosperity and the comfort and prosperity of our families we have freely signed this petition and subscribed to the above principles.

Appeals to the High Court.
John Platt of Sarpy county has appealed to the supreme court from a judgment of $1,000 against him for slanderous remarks made about Olga Gerling.

Governor on Primary Law.
"I sent a message to the last legislature in which I said, 'the primary law should be repealed or it should be radically amended,'" said Governor Shallenberger at the meeting of the state canvassing board. "I should have cut off the sentence after the word 'repealed,'" he continued. "There is no justice in the primary law. It is all right in theory, but it does not work out in practice. Under the primary law the counties of Douglas and Lancaster, if they get into the same bed as they did in the late election, can control the nomination of candidates. We have found that politicians vote and manipulate the primary instead of the people, and that is what we tried to avoid. The primary law was enacted so that the nomination candidates would be taken away from politicians and placed in the hands of the people, but just the reverse has been the result of this law. The fact that out in the Twenty-ninth senatorial district, a candidate gets a nomination with only one vote is enough to show the viciousness of the primary law."

Regulars at Lincoln.
Four hundred regular army soldiers, composing eight troops of the Seventh cavalry from Fort Riley, Kan., will be camped near Lincoln from September 23 to 26. Information of this fact has been communicated by H. M. Ketchum, commissary sergeant, to Postmaster Sizer, with the request that he notify Lincoln dealers who are prepared to bid on furnishing supplies for the camp. The estimated amount of provisions needed includes 2,000 pounds of fresh beef, 1,600 pounds of potatoes and 1,800 pounds of fresh bread.

Secretary Mellor of the state fair board announced that the sheep entries at this time numbered 460, the largest entry in many years. In fact, this is three times as many sheep as have been exhibited at the fair since the early days, if not in the history of the association.

Demand for Homes.
Real estate men report that the demand for vacant houses has increased materially during the past week. The demand comes annually at this season and is caused in part by the near approach of the opening of Lincoln schools.

Appeals to Supreme Court.
Thomas Brown, convicted in Cherry county for stealing seven cows worth $210 from Thomas Byron, has appealed to the supreme court on error, admitting frankly that he didn't get a square deal when he was sentenced to spend seven years in the penitentiary.

Honors Iowa Requisition.
Charles Brown and to go back to Iowa to the county of Polk to stand trial on a charge of wife desertion. Governor Shallenberger honored a requisition issued by the governor of Iowa for his return. Brown was under arrest at Omaha.

Pays Money to Douglas.
State Treasurer Brian paid to Douglas county $150,000 and took over that amount of court house bonds. This is a portion of the $800,000 purchase made some months ago.

DISPOSAL OF BONDS.

Applicants for Nebraska Securities Accommodated.

Will Endeavor to Collect.

The state normal board will endeavor to collect from J. W. Crabtree for two barrels of gasoline bought when he was at the head of the Peru State normal and which, it is alleged, were never delivered to the school and have resorted to the text book fund $897.43 which Crabtree paid out in interest without orders from the board. The matter was referred to the attorney general to take such steps as may be necessary to secure this money. The money paid out in interest by Crabtree was interest on money borrowed with which teachers were paid pending the decision of the supreme court in the legality of the law which created a new normal board. The auditor, on advice of the legal department, would recognize neither board so he refused to issue any warrants for the payment of the teachers until the court decided which board was the legal one.

State Treasurer Brian has succeeded in caring for practically all of the applicants for the sale of bonds to the state by the various school districts and cities of Nebraska. When money was plentiful and investments hard to find for state funds, the treasurer bought $500,000 of Douglas county court house bonds. Shortly thereafter the eastern markets tightened up and the small towns of the state began to issue bonds for internal improvements. Then when they applied to the state treasurer for funds he could do nothing for them and they could not place the securities in the east. The Douglas county bonds looked good to eastern buyers, so Mr. Brian took the case up with those who had city securities for sale, with the result that he has now, with the assistance of the various cities, placed practically all of the Douglas county bonds in the east and has bought as an investment for the state the bonds issued by the school districts and the small towns. These bonds net the state 4 1/2 per cent annually and at the same time this rate is lower than the towns would have to pay, were the bonds floated elsewhere.

May Make no Appointment.
W. T. Thompson, attorney general, who was recently appointed to a position in the treasury department at Washington, has leased his house here and expects to go to Washington about the first of October. It is probable Mr. Thompson will not resign his office as attorney general, and that if he does so Governor Shallenberger will not fill the vacancy until after election. The governor and Mr. Thompson have become good friends, and because of this the office may not be declared vacant.

No Extra Session.
Governor Shallenberger will call no extra session of the legislature to submit the initiative and referendum. He said: "There is no truth in the rumor that I intend to call a special session of the legislature. That is settled. I will call no extra session. It is unfortunate that the record of the votes cast for candidates for governor has been so slow, as it has given rise to all kinds of rumors, but there will be no extra session."

Committee Announced.
Chairman Husenetter of the republican state central committee announced the appointment of the following executive committee: First district, S. W. Burnham, Lincoln; Second district, A. W. Jeffers, Omaha; Third district, Burt Mapes, Norfolk; Fourth district, Clarke Robinson, Fairmont; Fifth district, H. G. Thomas, Harvard; Sixth district, T. T. Varney, Ainsley.

Lots of Sheep on Exhibit.
Secretary Mellor of the state fair board announced that the sheep entries at this time numbered 460, the largest entry in many years. In fact, this is three times as many sheep as have been exhibited at the fair since the early days, if not in the history of the association.

NEWSPAPER TOWN BOOSTER

Without Question the Best Method of Spreading Publicity--A Word to Commercial Associations.

Leroy Boucher, city editor of the Minneapolis Tribune, before the Northern Minnesota Development association, spoke in part as follows: "What must we do to be saved?"

If I were answering this question I'd say, Get acquainted with a reporter. Every enterprising man ought to look up the editor of his home paper, if he doesn't know him already, and make a friend of yours if you make an advance, and you will never regret the step. Every commercial organization ought to include all the newspaper men in the district, for these men, who study nothing but the best methods of making people read what they write, can be of assistance to a community in making people read its message.

It's of no use to have a splendid article for sale if you can't sell it. The other day there were statements published in the Twin Cities that the recent forest fires had done great good in clearing the land. Now, the original stories of the forest fires were printed the country over, and 90,000,000 of people got the idea from that that northern Minnesota was simply an unbroken stretch of inhospitable woods.

What was done to counteract this feeling? Probably nothing. But a photograph of a stretch of the so-called "destructive" forest fires could by a little tact have found publication in a hundred newspapers if you sent with it the facts I have just related dressed in readable fashion. That is the secret. Make the news of your community readable and you needn't worry about publicity.

If you keep telling people what a fine state they have, what splendid farms, what unexcelled advantages, they will talk about it and spread the gospel, and they won't do it unless you do keep telling them. If the newspapers talk about their towns every day, every week, their readers will follow their lead.

HOUSING REFORM DON'TS.

Don't let your city become a city of tenements. Keep it a city of homes. Don't imagine there is no necessity for action because conditions in your city are not as bad as they are elsewhere.

Don't build a model tenement until you have secured a model housing law. Don't attempt to legislate first and investigate afterward.

Don't permit any new houses to be built that do not have adequate light and ventilation and proper sanitation. Don't legislate merely for the present.

Don't permit the growth of new slums. Prevention is better than cure. Don't tolerate the lodger evil. Nip it in the bud.

Don't tolerate cellar dwellings. Don't let the poor be denied a liberal supply of water in their homes. Don't permit houses unfit for human habitation to be occupied.

Don't repeat the talk about the poor not wanting good housing accommodations. Don't permit privies to exist in any city. Compel their removal.

Don't cease your efforts when you have passed a good law. Eternal vigilance is not only the price of liberty, but of all progress.--Lawrence Veiller in the Survey.

Urban Martyrs.
At a church supper a small boy was seen to turn pale and lean back in his chair. One of the waitresses asked what was the trouble, and learned that it was the stomach ache. "You poor little fellow, you won't be able to finish that nice supper, will you?" asked the waitress. "Oh, yes I will," replied the boy. "It will have to be a good deal harder before I'll quit eating." Just this form of heroism will stand in the way of any wholesale movement to drive the excess of consumers in the city back to the country to become direct producers. They will complain of high prices, low wages (about two-thirds what the same grade of labor on farms receives), long hours of work (about two-thirds of what our grandfathers considered reasonable), difficulty of getting work (when owners of farms are clamoring for help), high rents and board (when rent and board are offered in the country as a bonus beyond wages) but they are nowhere near the point of suffering at which they will be willing to leave the incidental pleasures of city life--Dietie and Hygienic Gazette.

Well Protected.
"I think there is somebody down stairs, George."
"Well, what of it?"
"Can't you get up and do something? Put your head out of the window and call a policeman."
"Why should I do that, when I can put my head over the back stairs and call one? His number is 7238, and he's down there in the kitchen sponging with Mary, the cook."
