Many school children suffer from constipation, which is often the cause of seeming stupidity at lessons. Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets are an ideal medicine to give a child, for they are mild and gentle in their effect, and will cure even chronic constipation. Sold by all druggists.

When the Gordon stock of goods in South Sioux City was sold to Dougherty recently, attachments were placed on the stock by the Ford Haak Cigar Co for $25, one by the Warfield-Pratt Co for $79.20. The stock involved $150.60 and is now in charge of Sheriff Rockwell. An execution for $25.74 has also been levied on the stock by Tackabery & Co of Sioux City.

Wm Ambright's new husking machine is kept pretty busy these days taking out corn. The only serious objection to the husking machine is the condition in which it leaves the fodder. The stalks are thoroughly stripped and the fodder scattered on the ground, and in the event of snow the bulk of the feed would be wasted. Otherwise they solve the problem of cornhusking.

Judge and Mrs R E Evans arrived home Sunday morning from a three week's trip east. They attended the General Grand Chapter of the O E S at Jacksonville, Fla, as representatives from this state. Mrs Evans as Grand Worthy Matron, and Mr Evans as Past Worthy Patron. They also spent several days in visiting relatives in Pennsylvania. Mrs Evans again departed Monday for Grand Island and other points in this state, expecting to be gone a month on lodge business.

Wm Oshlerking of South Sioux City, installed a beautiful Norris & Hyde piano in his home last week. The instrument was delivered by Prof Carl Schriever.

Don't fail to hear the "Brownie Girl" at the M E church the evening before Thanksgiving. If the lecture course this year does not get it will be your fault and there will be no more such entertainments in Dakota City.

Lost, strayed or stolen from my place Thursday, October 27, 1910, four red hogs, 1 big sow, weight about 400 pounds; 3 shoats, two of them sows and 1 barrow, weight about 150 to 175 pounds. Louis Dierking, Dakota City, Neb.

When a cold becomes settled in the system, it will take several days' treatment to cure it, and the best remedy known is "Chamberlain's Cough Remedy." It will cure quicker than any other, and also leaves the system in a natural and healthy condition. Sold by all druggists.

The old, old story, told times without number, and repeated over and over again for the last 35 years, but it is always a welcome story to those in search of health—There is nothing in the world that cures coughs and colds as quickly as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Sold by all druggists.

According to reports the water in Crystal Lake is fast drying up, probably on account of the low stage of water in the Missouri river. The property owners on the lake shore are becoming alarmed for fear the lake will dry up and leave nothing for the patrons of the numerous resorts to bathe in—externally.

We have a good position open in this county for a man of good standing to take charge of branch Oil and Gasoline station, to sell direct to the farmers in barrel lots. Must be able to give cash security as we carry car load oil, each station. Will pay good salary or commission to right party. Address Milwaukee Oil Refining Co, Aberdeen, S Dak.

A new time card went into effect on the Omaha road Sunday. The change effects the evening trains only. The Norfolk train from Sioux City formerly arrived here at 5:15 now arrives 4:53, and the Omaha flyer formerly arriving at 5:22 now passes through at 5:17. This train brings the evening mail from Sioux City. The evening Ponca train changed to 5:58, four minutes earlier than before. Several of the passenger trains now stop on signal only, so you had better make your intentions known to the agent and buy your ticket early.

A GOOD POSITION—Can be had by ambitious young men or ladies in the Railway or "Wireless" Telegraph service. Since the 8-hour law became effective, and since the extensive developments of wireless telegraphy, there is a shortage of 10,000 telegraphers. Positions pay beginners $70 to $90 per month. We operate under supervision of Telegraph Officials and all graduates are guaranteed positions. Write for full details to the Institute nearest to you. NATIONAL TELEGRAPH INSTITUTE, Cincinnati, O, Philadelphia, Pa, Memphis, Tenn, Columbia, S C, St Paul, Minn, Enid, Okla, Portland, Ore.

George Barnett received word Saturday by telegraph that his brother-in-law, Wm Black, had died that day at his home in Rushville, Neb. The particulars of his death which followed by letter, state that he died from heart failure. He was found lying unconscious in the barn, and only lived a few minutes after being found. He had been in apparent good health, and his death came as a shock to his relatives and friends. The deceased man was married to Miss Bell Barnett, a daughter of Wm Barnett and wife of this precinct, and leaves, besides his wife, three sons to mourn his sudden departure. Wm Barnett of Sioux City, and Mrs Chas Blessing of this precinct, brother and sister of Mrs Black, departed Sunday for Rushville to attend the funeral rites.

Death of Mrs. T. J. O'Connor.

Mrs T J O'Connor, of Homer, passed away Wednesday morning at 5 o'clock, after an illness of a few weeks. Her death was extremely sad from the fact that she leaves six small children, three girls and three boys, the eldest being ten years of age and the youngest three weeks. Mrs O'Connor was formerly Miss Mary Dillon, of Sioux City, daughter of Mrs S H Dillon. Before her marriage eleven years ago, she was organist for several years at St Mary's Catholic church. She was an accomplished musician, having graduated at Leipsic, Germany, and was considered one of the best instructors in Sioux City, where she had made her home with her parents since a child.

The deceased was 38 years of age, and leaves, besides her husband and other relatives, six children. She was prominent in social affairs, and will be missed not only by the bereaved family, but by all with whom she was acquainted.

The funeral will be held at 10 o'clock a m to-day, Friday. Interment will be in the Catholic cemetery at Homer.

During Mrs O'Connor's illness her husband, T J O'Connor, scratched his hand on a rusty nail, and being so concerned about his wife's illness he neglected the wound on his hand which became infected, blood poisoning setting in and for a time it was feared that he would lose his arm. He is somewhat improved at this time and if tetanus does not develop it is thought he will recover.

Van de Zedde is rebuilding his ice house on the site of the old one.

Will H and Roland B Orr drove to Hubbard Tuesday in the former's auto.

Barney Gribble ate Thanksgiving turkey at the Jon Jackson home at Meadow Grove, Neb.

Miss Jessop, one of our popular teachers, spent her Thanksgiving vacation with relatives at Plainville.

Glen Armour shipped a car of hogs to Omaha Monday and brought back a double deck car of sheep, which he will use to clean up a lot of rough feed.

Miss Elsie Brown, the "Brownie Girl," entertained a fair size a audience at the M E church Wednesday evening. Her readings were greatly enjoyed, and the entertainment was up to the high standard of this year's lecture course.

Harvey Zentmire, living on the W P Warner farm southwest of town, was in this place on business, Tuesday, the first time in several months. He still walks on crutches, from the effects of a severe inflammatory rheumatism which settled in his left knee and is unable to bear any weight on his foot.

Croup is most prevalent during the dry cold weather of the early winter months. Parents of young children should be prepared for it. All that is needed is a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Many mothers are never without it in their homes and it has never disappointed them. Sold by all druggists.

The Lyons Mirror states that Chas Phillips, father of Mrs David Everett, left for Hartford, Connecticut, Monday, to visit his sister, Mrs Thomas F Brabazon, and husband. He is almost 80 years old and don't know whether he will ever return to Lyons. He was an old pioneer of Nebraska, having settled at Dakota City June 23, 1868, and then took a claim on the wild prairie near where the wild prairie now stands, and lived in a tent and covered wagon. The Mirror wishes him a safe journey and pleasant visit.

Representatives of the Lytle construction company, of Sioux City, were here Wednesday measuring up the foundation of the S A Stinson store which burned a few weeks ago, and will make an estimate on the cost of a new building, which will in all probability be erected on the site of the one burned. The residents of Dakota City and vicinity will be pleased to see a new store building erected by Mr Stinson, as they now realize the need of a good general store where a moderate stock of dry goods, clothing, furnishings, etc, is carried. Mr Stinson was assured that in case he gave them the contract they would have the building erected in three weeks' time.

Miss Lottie Orr, daughter of Mr and Mrs R B Orr of this place, was united in marriage Thursday to Mr Clyde Hodson, of Winside, Neb. The ceremony which was performed by Rev J G Shick, of McCabe M E church, in Omaha, of which Rev Shick is pastor. Miss Orr is a Dakota City girl, having spent nearly her entire life among us, and her hosts of friends join us in wishing her unbounded happiness. For the past year or more she has had charge of the telephone exchange at Winside, where her husband is in the undertaking and embalming business. After a week's visit with relatives of the groom at Red Oak, Iowa, the newly wedded couple will be "at home" to their friends at Winside, Neb.

Keep the Babies Warm And They'll be Healthy And Happy

Many children get sick and die every winter because of some poor heating appliance in the home. Come and see us and we will show you a Base Burner that will not only keep the children warm, healthy and happy, but will save one half on your fuel bills.

There is no other base burner like THE FIRST CLASS FAVORITE, with TRIPLE EXPOSED FLUES, because the features that make it such a wonderful heating stove, so economical in the use of fuel, are patented.

Don't put off the buying of your stove until the cold days come. Drop into our store any day, and we will be glad to show you this beautiful Base Burner. It is a Real Favorite. There are more of them sold than of any other base burner made, and we guarantee it to be the best made.

It's like opening a bank account to buy a Favorite Base Burner, because it saves you money every day it is in use, and brings such comfort and satisfaction, too.

Mr and Mrs Louis Jeep, sons Waldo and Adelbert, and daughter Miss Edna are planning a trip to California the first of the year where they will spend the winter.

The new Omaha depot is fast nearing completion. The plastering is done and the interior woodwork is being put on. It is thought that December 1st will see the new structure occupied by Agent Cooper and his office force.

A representative of the insurance companies doing a business here in South Sioux City was in town this week looking over the town. It is supposed by local insurance agencies that the town will be re-rated, but whether insurance will be more or less has not yet been learned.

The engagement of Mr Roy Pilgrim, a former South Sioux City boy, son of Mr and Mrs Wm Pilgrim and Miss Ethel Burke of Bancroft, who has made her home here for the past four years, was announced last week. The wedding will take place at the home of the young lady at Bancroft, on November 30th.

Joseph English, who last purchased the Cora B Miller farm west of town for $8,500, last week completed arrangements for its sale to a man from Iowa for $12,000. This was $175 per acre. Mr English had added considerable improvements but the advance in the price of Dakota County lands showed his good judgement in purchasing here.

While working in the Fairbank and Hamlet cattle shed at the Crystal Lake Distillery Monday R. N. Wanhob had the misfortune to have an arm broken. The cattle fresh from feeding on the plains, had been chained in their places and Mr Wanhob was trimming their tails and getting them in shape for the winter's feeding. One of the cattle kicked his arm and resulted in a break between the elbow and the wrist.
