

OWES HER LIFE TO

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Chicago, Ill.—"I was troubled with falling and inflammation, and the doctors said I could not get well unless I had an operation. I know I could not stand the strain of one, so I wrote to you sometime ago about my health and you told me what to do. After taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and Blood Purifier I am to-day a well woman."—Mrs. WILLIAM ANNERS, 988 W. 21st St., Chicago, Ill.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs, and to-day holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases of any similar medicine in the country, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the Pinkham laboratory at Lynn, Mass., from women who have been cured from almost every form of female complaints, inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration. Every such suffering woman owes it to herself to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial.

If you would like special advice about your case write a confidential letter to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free, and always helpful.

HUMOR IN THESE VERDICTS

Quaint Ideas and Expressions Recorded as Having Been Rendered by Coroner's Juries.

Referring to a verdict recently given by a coroner's jury that death was "caused by the medical evidence," the British Medical Journal says: "This verdict may be added to those cited in the report of the select committee on death certification, where Dr. Ogilvie is quoted as saying: 'One verdict came before me a little time ago which was this: "A man died from stone in the kidney, which stone he swallowed when laying on a gravel path in a state of drunkenness." That was given as a verdict. I thought some joke had been played, and I wrote down about it, and found it was an absolute fact. Another one is like this: "Child three months old, found dead, but no evidence whether born alive." These novel judgments recall that an upstate newspaper not long ago spoke of taking a murdered man's "post-mortem" statement.

Note From Baswood Bludge.
Somebody took the rope off the bell in the fire engine house to use for a clothesline, and now, when there is a fire, the constable has to climb up into the tower and ring the bell with a hammer. Somebody took the hammer the other day, and when Hank Purdy's corncrib ketcher fire, the constable had to hurry down to Hilliker's store for to borrow a hammer. Hilliker had lent his hammer to Deacon Renfrow, who lives four miles out in the country, and by the time the constable had got there and hunted around in the barn for the hammer and got back to the engine house, the angry elements had done their worst and Hank's corncrib was a mass of smoldering ruins.—Judge's Library.

AFTER MIDDLE WEIGHT TITLE,

Frank Klaus of Pittsburgh.

The coming middle-weight champion of the world, in the estimation of many good boxing judges, is Frank Klaus, of Pittsburgh. Klaus has come into ring prominence within the past year and is growing better every day. His friends believe that he is the logical successor of Stanley Ketchel, being a fighter along the same lines as the unfortunate Grand Rapids boxer, who fell by an assassin's bullet. Klaus is 23 years of age. He has been in the boxing game for some time, but his reputation had not

YALE NOT RUNNING SMOOTH

Team Is Expected to Improve Great Deal, However, Under Work of Its Expert Coaches.

Yale does not stand as impressively as usual for superiority on the gridiron by anything evidenced as yet this year. Captain Daly hasn't a coherent, smooth running football machine at his disposal. The team hasn't got the punch, the power to forge a swift, sure attack when it is needed. It is expected to improve a great deal, however, under the work of its expert coaches.

Enough games have been played and the season has advanced far enough to make the assertion that the chief aim of those who worked so hard last winter as members of the rules committee has been accomplished.

Captain Daly of Yale.

The game is much safer and the players are open to fewer and less serious injuries. The game is less exhausting and freer from much unnecessary roughness, which more than anything else opened the way to constant unfavorable criticism. There are bound to be some injuries. It could not be otherwise. In such a strenuous sport, but the injuries up to this time have been of a minor kind, except in two or three cases.

Although Yale has suffered more than any other team by the new rules, Head Coach Ted Coy is far from knocking the new code. "Give them a chance," says the greatest of Yale players. "Despite the fact that people claim there is just as much chance for injury as there was of yore, the game as it is now played is not as dangerous as before. And I believe that from a spectator's viewpoint the new game is much more interesting and exciting. Every play can be seen now, whereas before, when the old rules were in vogue, attack after attack on the line could not be fully appreciated by the spectators, inasmuch as they couldn't tell who carried the ball."

Duchess Takes Up Golf.
The Duchess of Marlborough is the latest convert to golf. She has gone in for it so strongly that she has actually decided to take a house at North Herford, close by one of the best courses in the United Kingdom. She is killing two birds with a single stone, for the air thereabouts resembles that of Switzerland and suits Lord and Spencer Churchill, her cousin son, who despite the constant efforts of his mother, does not seem to mind.

Eddie Kelly Knocked Out.
The Airedale, fatherly right champion, and a favorite ever, Eddie Kelly of Buffalo, before the Mohawk Valley Athletic club at Amsterdam, N. Y., the other night. Attell was best from start to finish.

LIGHT PLAYERS IN DEMAND

Gridiron Stars Need Not Possess Great Weight, as Agility and Speed Figure in Contests.

Light, fleet-footed backs are in demand this year for all the college football teams. Under the new rules the light player has at last come into his own. This does not mean that the back field can be composed of men in the lightweight class. But the day of the ponderous, heavy backs seems to be a thing of the past. A player weighing from 150 to 180 pounds has the odds for the positions this year.

The abolishment of the sturdy, catapult type of back is due to the change in the rules dealing with the old style of the plunging play. No longer is it legal for the human battering-ram to hurl three or more men as interference at an opposing line. Mass play has been effectually abolished. And so the character of the game has undergone a great change from the days of the flying wedge.

That the big college teams realize the futility of playing heavy men in the back field is shown by the number of shifts made this year. The heavy men had their tryouts early in the season and they failed to make as much headway as the lighter players. In some cases the experiment proved rather costly.

Harvard was one of the first to realize the value of light men in the back field. Evidence of this was shown when Minot, an All-American back of last year, was shifted to a place in the line. Minot's plunges through opposing lines last season netted the Crimson many big gains, but with the restrictions on this style of play this season the coaches decided he would be more valuable on the line.

Later in the year Princeton made a similar shift. Captain Eddie Hart, reckoned one of the best line plungers in the country, was taken out of the back field after the Lafayette game and placed in the line. In the game with Carlisle Hart more than won his spurs as an aggressive line man. He opened up some big gaps for the backs to tear through.

Coach Ted Coy of Yale was another football director to startle the experts when he placed Howe in at full back. Last season Howe was the choice for quarter back and it was expected he would play that position this year. He is heavy enough under the new rules, but he does not measure up to the credit by many pounds to some of the old-time full backs.

Perhaps the forward pass had much to do with giving the light men their opportunity. Surely that, coupled with the necessity of end runs, has worked a big change in the complexion of the attack. To be successful the forward pass must be hurled and received by a player quick on his feet, one able to get started with the ball at top speed. While lacking in concentration of attack and a bit weak on the defense, Princeton has one of the fastest back fields in the country. Sparks, Pendleton and Ballou make up a combination hard to beat. Pendleton is counted one of the best runners in a broken field of recent years, and Sparks shows plenty of dash in his attempts to skirt the ends. Ballou is fast on his feet and at the same time an able punter. Against Housar of Carlisle he made an excellent showing, outkicking the Indian by many yards.

Nor are the Tigers without their usual drop kicker. Pendleton has acquired himself well in the early games and seems capable of dropping the ball over the cross bar from any point almost within the 40-yard line. The list of star Princeton kickers is a long one. Somewhat Nascent secures a good goal kicker almost every year.

While Harvard has been rolling up big scores on its opponents Yale and Princeton have not been doing so well. Yale was scored on by Syracuse, beaten by the Army and held to a no score tie by Vanderbilt. Princeton started off well enough by scoring 18 points on Stevens, but only managed to score 12 on New York university. Villa Nova was easy for the Orange and Black, but the Tigers barely won by a score of 3 to 0 over Lafayette. They defeated the Indians, 6 to 0.

DEATH NOT DUE TO FOOTBALL

Autopsy Reveals Real Cause of Freshman's Demise at Cornell—Died of Heart Disease.

That Lauren B. Paine of Duluth the freshman who died at Cornell in February the other night, did not die from injuries sustained in football practice was made known after an autopsy upon the body by Dr. Charles A. Bentz, the Buffalo pathologist.

The findings confirmed the opinion of the football coaches and others connected with the game and removes all doubts as to the playing of the balance of the scheduled year. The findings are contained in the following telegram sent by President J. G. Schurman to Franklin Paine, the boy's father:

"Dr. Bentz of Buffalo made a post-mortem examination and has just submitted to me the following signed report: 'From the patient died of unexplained acute dilatation of the heart, associated with arterial disease and a gastro-entero colitis. There was no evidence of anything due to football injury. The gastro-entero colitis was the most important cause of the dilatation.' I should add that Dr. Bentz is a member of the department of pathology of the University of Buffalo and has made thousands of autopsies."

A Bishop's Opinion of Football.
In a recent sermon on football Bishop Chandler of the Southern Methodist church said:

"The bottom truth in the matter is that the element of brutality which is so largely a part of the game has an effect in the elimination of this element would mean elimination of the game. There are some things which cannot be reformed without the death of them because the heart of their life is the evil. This is the case of football. It is inherently and incurably bad."

100 Mile Bicycle Record.
F. H. Grubb, the English vegetarian cycling club rider, accomplished a fine performance in beating the Eastern English countries' 100 miles cycling record. Despite the wind, he covered the distance in five hours, one minute, twenty-two seconds, as against the previous best time of five hours, ten minutes, twelve seconds.

Sammy Smith Outpainted Goodwin.
Young Sammy Smith of Philadelphia's outpainted Jack Goodwin of New York city in a fast ten-round bout before the National Sporting club in the latter city the other night. The fighting was furious throughout with Smith showing to advantage, except in the sixth round, which was Goodwin's.

UNCLE CALHOUN SPOKE OUT

Answer No Doubt Truthful, but by No Means What the Orator Desired.

Booker T. Washington, congratulated by a New York reporter on the success he had made of his life, said with a smile:

"I suppose I must be modest and declare that luck has had more to do with my progress, or otherwise I'll be in Senator Dash's shoes."

"Senator Dash of Tallapoosa prided himself on his fins from the bottom," for Senator Dash in his youth had worked with the colored people in the cotton fields.

"Boasting at a political meeting about his rise, the senator sneered at Uncle Calhoun Webster among his audience and said:

"I see before me old Calhoun Webster, beside whom, in the broiling southern sun, I toiled day after day, Now, ladies and gentlemen, I appeal to Uncle Calhoun. Tell us all, uncle, was I, or was I not, a good man in the cotton field?"

"Yo' wuz a good man, senatah," the aged negro replied; "yo' wuz a good man, fo' a fack; but yo' aunty didn't work much."

STOMACH MISERY VANISHES

Indigestion, Gas, Sourness and Dyspepsia Go and Your Stomach Feels Fine in Five Minutes.

If your meals don't tempt you, or what little you do eat seems to fill you, or lays like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn or a sick, sour, upset or gassy stomach, that is a sign of indigestion. Ask your pharmacist for a 60-cent case of Pape's Diapiesin and take a little just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, Nausea, Debilitating Headaches, Dizziness or Intestinal griping. This will all go, and besides, there will be no undigested food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapiesin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it prevents fermentation and takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there. Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store here in town.

These large 60-cent cases of Pape's Diapiesin contain more sufficient to thoroughly cure any case of Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Gastritis or any other stomach disturbance.

All in Good Time.
Seven-year-old William had become the proud owner of a pet pig, and insisted upon having all the care of it himself. After a few weeks, as the pig did not seem to thrive, his father said to him:

"William, I'm afraid you are not feeding your pig enough. It does not seem to be fattening at all."
"I don't want him to fatten yet," William replied, knowingly. "I'm waiting until he gets to be as long as I want him, then I'll begin to widen him out."—Tit-Bits.
