Flege Given Life Sentence.

William C Flege, who last Saturday night was found guilty by a jury of twelve farmers of the murder of his sister, Louise Flege, on June 30 last at their home near Wayne, Neb, was Wednesday night at Ponca, sentenced to life imprisonment in the state penitentiary by Guy T Graves. The penalty is the limit for second degree murder.

J J McCarthy, who conducted the ase for Flege, filed a motion for a new trial and made his argument, but the judge overruled the motion. Mr McCarthy said he would take the case to the supreme court, and stated that the fight had just begun, and he expects to get a new trial for the convicted man. When the sentence was read to Flege as he sat in the court room he dropped his head and appeared to give up all hope, and even when Mr McCar thy tried to cheer him up by telling ing him he might get a chance in the supreme court his manner remained unchanged. He was taken back to the county jail in the custody of Sheriff H A Maskell and will be taken to Lincoln in a few days by the sheriff or
