Ponca Leader: Chas Finkle of near Hubbard, came up Wednesday evening for a visit with his parents, Mr and Mrs E E Finkle. Fred Hurlinger and sister, Sadie Ruth, a sister-in-law of Mrs S P Mikesell, stopped in Ponca last Thursday on their way from Colorado, and visited at the S P Mikesell home until Monday noon, when they left for Dakota City, where they will visit for a short time with Mrs Will Altemus, then return to their home at Indiana, Penn.

Omaha True Voice: As a result of the concourse held in this city on Wednesday of this week Rev J P Devane, of Dixon, Neb, has been appointed irremovable pastor of St Patrick's parish, Jackson, Neb, to succeed the late Father P F McCarthy. The rectorship of North Platte has not yet been filled. Father Devane is one of the active young priests of the diocese. He was ordained about twelve years ago and his first appointment was as assistant at Holy Family church, this city. He was then appointed pastor of Sidney, Neb, and remained there until about six years ago when he was appointed to Dixon. About a year ago Father Devane completed a fine parochial school at Dixon and has made great improvements on the church property there during his pastorate.

Homer Star: Geo W Ashford was in Lincoln the first of the week. Claud Thacker went to Hornick, Iowa, Monday, for a short visit with relatives. Ed Polley was operated on at Sioux City last week and from last reports was getting along nicely. Myron Bates leaves today for the sand hills where he will work for C J O'Connor. He will file on a Kinkaid homestead later. Miss Ingrid Ahlberg of Winnebago, visited several days the past week in Homer with Mattie McKinley and other friends. J M King was called to Fresno, South Dakota, last Thursday by the illness of his sister Mrs W B Allen. He returned to Homer, Monday evening driving home from South Sioux City, and left her much better. Mr King informs us that he was lost in a snow storm one night while up there and wandered around several hours before he finally came to a house. Miss Grace Wood who has been attending high school in Homer for two years past, died of pneumonia at the Herbert Harris home Friday, February 3, after an illness of but a short time. Her parents, Mr and Mrs Frank Wood, live on the reservation. The deceased was a member of the senior class of the high school and would have graduated this spring. Her professor and teachers speak of her as a bright and intelligent girl. She was well liked by her schoolmates and her untimely demise is mourned and regretted by all. She was born April 21, 1896, and besides her mother and father, leaves four brothers and one sister to mourn her departure. The pupils of the high school and Prof Campbell contributed a beautiful floral pillow with the deceased's name in the center. The funeral services were held at the Lutheran church Sunday, by Rev J L Hammond and the remains laid to rest in the Green Valley cemetery southwest of Homer.

A few minutes delay in treating some cases of croup, even the length of time it takes to go for a doctor often proves dangerous. The safest way is to keep Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house, and at the first indication of croup give the child a dose. Pleasant to take and always cures. Sold by all druggists.

IN MEMORIAM

Resolutions adopted by Dakota City Lodge No. 81, O. E. F.

WHEREAS: The sudden death of Brother Alexander M. Nixon casts a gloom over our entire membership and not to its relief, but upon all as far as his acquaintances extend, it was a man that was well and favorably known, and whose influence was felt in whatever he entered into. In his death we have lost a loyal member, and a noble and beautiful life character. While mourning for his loss we gladly accord a tribute to his memory, and hope that the sympathy goes out to the bereaved ones left behind.

Resolved: That the charter of our lodge be draped in mourning for thirty days and that a copy of these resolutions be spread upon the minutes, and a copy given to the county papers and a copy sent to the family of deceased.
