from our Exchanges

Walsh Times: Miss Mary Harry of Jackson, is a guest of Mrs O B Pflitz, this week.

Martinsburg Items in Ponca Journal: Claude Thompson, formerly of Hubbard, is here barbering at the Gwin barber shop.

Ponca Journal: David Griffith of Dakota county, formerly of this place, was visiting here a few days the first of the week.

Hornick Items in Sloan, Ia. Star: Mr and Mrs Fred Forney returned last Tuesday evening from a visit with relatives near Homer, Neb.

Wayne Democrat: South Sioux City is to have a vinegar factory. There must be plenty of old 'booms' in that town that need pickling.

Lyons Mirror: Miss Kate McElhinney we are pleased to report, was able to come home from Omaha Monday, after undergoing a very serious operation.

Ponca Leader: Mel Harden left this week with a car for Twin Falls, Idaho, containing live stock, farm machinery, and the like for Will Mikesell and Arthur Scott. Mel went to look over the country.

Winnabago Chieftain: Mrs Ida Coleman was here from Homer Tuesday, the guest of Mr and Mrs Louis Herman. Mrs Louis Herman returned from Homer Friday where she had been for a little visit. Mrs Herbert Harris and her son, Dan, and family were down from Homer Sunday to visit at the home of their son and brother, T T Harris.

Sioux City Journal, 18th: Edward Kearney, jr, the 2-year old son of Mr and Mrs Edward T Kearney, of Jackson, Neb, was brought to St Joseph's hospital Thursday in a serious condition from blood poisoning in the arm. The child was no better yesterday, and the fear is entertained that he may not recover. The members of the Kearney family are at his bedside.

Emerson Enterprise: Gus Isenburt was at Dakota City Tuesday on business. A Ira Davis has been appointed referee to sell the Schopke property on Main street. J A Ireland and J A Pope went to Holt county Tuesday morning to look after a land deal. S J Lingren of Wayne purchased the Jake Francisco property in South Emerson Wednesday and will move his family here soon. O E Danielson engineered the deal. The purchase price was $1,600.

Sioux City Journal, 21: 'Billy', the 2-year-old son of Edward T Kearney, of Jackson, Neb, died at St Joseph's hospital this morning at 1:40.

The child had been in the hospital for some time. Mr Kearney is a banker at Jackson and 'Billy' was his only boy. The body will be held at the hospital until Wednesday morning, when the funeral will be held in the hospital chapel at 7:30 o'clock, after which the remains will be sent to Jackson for interment.

Homer Star: Miss Eleanor Campbell of Osola, is here visiting her brother, Prof Geo E Campbell. Mrs Joseph Smith and son Clyde left last Thursday evening for the sand hills, called there by the sickness of an infant belonging to Mr and Mrs Chas Smith. Chas Skidmore, sr, left for the National capital last Monday where he will look after some patent interests that he has pending. Geo Thacker has leased the Winch property occupied last year by the King-Triax company and will install an implement business March 1. C J O'Connor, and Tom Huston of Chesterfield, went to Creston, Iowa, last Friday on a horse purchasing trip for the O'Connor ranch in Cherry county. Three members of the family of Mr and Mrs Ed Ross are sick at their home north of Homer. Mrs Ross is in decidedly poor health while two of the children are down with the measles. The 20th anniversary of Mr and Mrs S A Bridenbaugh on Saturday evening, February 11th, was largely attended, there being 75 relatives and friends. Some Haviland china dishes were given as a token of remembrance. All report a good time. While chopping wood on the Joseph Smith place, Monday morning, Charles Scott made a miss lick with the axe he was swinging and struck his right foot near the second joint on the big toe, cutting a nasty and painful gash. He managed to get to Dr Smith's home where the wound was dressed, after which he was taken to his home in a buggy. While the wound is painful there is no serious results anticipated and his ultimate recovery is only a matter of good care and time.

Edwards, the little son of Edward Kearney of this place, passed away at St Joseph's hospital, Monday night, after a brief illness. 'Little Billy' as he was familiarly called, was two years old and the only son of Mr and Mrs Kearney. He was a winsome, lovable baby, sturdy and strong, always happy and smiling up to the time of his fatal sickness. The remains were brought here Wednesday morning over the C & N W R R, and were met at the station by a large funeral procession who followed the remains to St John's cemetery, where interment was made. The entire community extend their deepest and most sincere sympathy to the family in this their hour of sorrow.

B B Gribble returned from his Omaha and Lincoln trip last Friday. Mary Hartnett was in Ponca a couple of days the past week. Hans Nelsen and wife of Rebird, Nebr, called at the Anderson, Green and Christensen homes Thursday of last week. We want your produce, and we are still paying more than the market affords. Carl Anderson. Mrs John Hart, Mrs Joe Hagan and daughter Mary, were among the Sioux City passengers from here, Wednesday. James P Jensen and Geo Georgensen were among those who shipped stock from here Thursday. Nellie Heaney came down from Nacora, Thursday and is visiting at the John Hart home. Remember Harry Pounds sale next Thursday March 2. Chas Dodge, Chris Erickson and Peter Sorenson were passengers for the city last Friday. Among those from here who went to Sioux City, Sunday, were Thos Hartnett, Harry Pounds, Willie Heaney, E Christensen and son Joseph, Harry Gribble, Chelsea Thompson and Marie Kelliger. Rev Romick, of Wynot, visited friends in Hubbard the past week. Miller's coffee can't be beat for quality and price. Carl Anderson sells it. Clara Reiss and Lon Welch were married Wednesday. Minnie Rasmussen, Mrs O L Thompson and daughter Gladys were Sioux City passengers from here Saturday morning. Carrie Stone visited at the Chris Rasmussen home Saturday and at the Albert Schroeder home Sunday. Don't overlook our shoe stock when you want shoes that will wear and look neat, and the prices, well, we have shoes in all prices. Carl Anderson. Gladys Thompson and James Smith were married last Saturday in South Sioux City, Rev J L Phillips officiating. Ed Long, George Portis and Jim Smith were Sioux City visitors from Saturday until Monday. Dan Hartnett was a business caller in the city Friday. All kinds of smoked and salt fish, for the Lenten season at Carl Anderson's. The Misses Mary and Delia Timlin were in the city last Saturday. The Ladies Aid society met at Chas Dodge's last Wednesday. Willie Heaney and Mike Smith were city passengers Monday. Gertrude Hall was an over night visitor in the city Sunday. Shirt waists, in the latest patterns and approved styles, at Carl Anderson's. Alice Heffernan and Mrs Tom Long visited at the academy in Jackson, Sunday. The dance given in the M W A hall by the Remiin orchestra was very largely attended. Mr and Mrs Henry Peters returned Tuesday from a week's honeymoon trip in Iowa. Mrs D C Heffernan was in Sioux City Sunday to see her husband. The Judge will soon be able to return to his home. A new assortment of fancy dress shirts just in at Carl Anderson's. JACKSON.

E L Kennelly was confined to his bed the past week with a bad case of lumbago. John Sierck and John Bibe had cattle on the market Monday. Miss Parr, of Newcastle, Neb, is a guest at the L W Hall home. Bert Smith and family moved to South Sioux City the last of the week. W D Boyle and family who lived on the C Delonghery farm the past year, moved to near Dakota City Tuesday. Mr and Mrs Killairn of Genoa, Neb, spent over Sunday with their daughter Mable, who is a student in St Catherine academy. J W Funnell and wife and Mrs J M Brannan and daughter Josephine, were over Sunday guests at the John Lilly home in Sioux City. Quite a number from here attended the matinee in Sioux City Saturday. Louis Pedersen and A Demary had a load of hogs on the Sioux City market Tuesday. Mrs F J Morgan and little son Stephen, departed Tuesday morning for St Charles, Ill, in response to a telegram announcing the death of her brother-in-law, Mr C Devlin. Axel Lind is moving his family and personal effects from Waterbury this week to the H W O'Neill farm, which he has rented for the coming year. Mrs J E Jenkinson of Sioux City, spent over Tuesday night with her folks here. Mrs M Lyons returned to her home at Winslow Tuesday after an over Sunday visit with her little daughter at St Catherine's academy. She also visited in the Mrs Catharine Twobig and D T Clark homes at Vista. On last Friday evening a splendid program was rendered by members of the music class of St Catherine's academy. The instrumental numbers showed a mastery of technique and an appreciative interpretation of the composers' thought, which would do credit to professional musicians, while the pure tones and exquisite sweetness of the vocal selections are rarely found in artists so young. The one regrettable feature was that the small Assembly Hall could not accommodate the number of patrons who are always eager to enjoy and applaud the excellent in music.

James King was looking after business at Goodwin and vicinity Monday.

SALEM

The young folks and some of the old ones too, indulged in a card party and social evening at the Luther Heikes home Tuesday evening. Wheeler Conhry left last week for Yamhill, Ore, the home of his parents, where he will try western farming again. This community was shocked to hear of the death of one of its pioneer residents, 'Uncle' John Blessing, which occurred Sunday night. Mrs George Sherwood of Sioux Falls, S D, visited her sister, Mrs E Cornell, a few days this week. Waldo Hoy of South Sioux City, who has rented the Chris Geister farm for the coming year, was married at South Sioux City Wednesday to Miss Mabel G Waddell, daughter of Albert Waddell of Allen, Neb. Madious Leamer's team furnished a little diversion for the people of Dakota City Wednesday (as well as for Madious) when they broke loose from a hitching post and took a spin around town. In their mad chase they collided with a telephone pole and broke the wagon tongue, and scattered the harness to the four winds. Madious spent the afternoon gathering up the wreck and making repairs.
