

Failures are almost impossible with Calumet. We know that it will give you better results. We know that the baking will be purer

e wholesome. We know that it will be more evenly alsed And we know that Calumet is more knownical, both in its use and cost. We know these things because we have We know these things because we have put the quality into it-we have seen it tried out in every way. It is made now in millions of homes and its modern baking powder. Have you tried it? Calumet is highest in quality-moderate in price.

Received Highest Award-

World's Pure Food Exposition.

ASTONISHED THE "OLD MAN"

His 'Rah 'Rah Son by No Means the "Dude" He Had Hitherto Seemed to Be.

The new governor of a western state has two gons. One is big and husky like his father, but the other is more slight; and at time he rather vexes his father by his affectation of 'rah-'rah-boy clothes and a general air of lassitude and dudishness.

The two sons and the father were in the library one night and the name of a prizefight referee came into the conversation. The 'rah-'rah boy had been sitting by, twiddling his thumbs. but his ears pricked up at the man's name and he drawled: "I rather like that chap. He's all right."

"What do you know about him?" the other brother asked, rather con-

SYNOPSIS.

their purposes.

Thomas Ardmore and Henry Maine present stumble upon intrined when the novernors of North and South Carolina re reported to have quarreled Both rates are in a tormoil over one Applever so that it pointed at the man's "Stop right there! We've got old one Apple man Appleweight, so you've lost your with Darbara Os governor of South leader, and I tell you the jig's up. daughter other 24 hours hus passed."

"I judge from the tone of your reover for all sorth in threatons in a second marks that you are Ardmore, the owner of Ardsley. Am 1 right?" "You are quite right. And you are both Griewold and Ardmers set out to make the other prosecure. Ardmors or-ganizes a big bunt. Griewold is men cap-ture Appleweight. Jerry Damerheid dis-covers the captive and leads him to Ards-ley, her own prisoner. Griewold and Bar-hura explore the scene of the disappear-ance and meet Ardmore and Jerry Grie-wold refutnes to recognize his friend. Jerry reveals the presence of Appleweight at Ardsley. a member of a disreputable gang of outlaws that has been bringing shame upon the state of North Carolina, Now, want you to murch straight ahead of me. Step lively now !" And Ardmore flourished the pistol menacingly. 'March!'

CHAPTER XV .- Continued. The man hesitated, flung up his head defiantly, then moved slowly for-"There's a line of the South Caroward.

Hna militia crawling through the "Wat will cross the creek right woods toward Raccoon creek. They here," he ordered; "it's a protty jump insist that it's a practice skirmish and there from that boulder-there, that that they've come over here because was bully! Now right along there. the landscape is naturally adapted to over the log-see the trail! Good!"

It was warm and the captive was "It's awfully nice of them to like perspiring freely. He moved along my scenery. You'd better send your docilely, and finding that he manibest man out to meet Col. Gillingwafested no inclination to bolt, Ardmore ter of the North Carolina militia, and dropped the revolver to his side, but tell him to march all his troops into with his finger on the trigger. the estate by the north gates, and to

They soon reached a field where be in a hurry. Tell him-tell hims some laborers were at work, and Ard-Goy. Dangerfield is anxious to have more called them to him for instructhe staff present in full uniform at a tions grand ball at Ardsley to night." "Boys, this is one of the timber Ardmore rode off alone toward Racthieves; put him in that corn-crib uncoon creek to catch a view of the til I come back for him. The nights enemy. How far would Griswold go? are warm; the sky is perfectly clear; Ardmore could go as far as Grisand you will kindly see that he does wold; yet he was puzzled to know not lack for food." why Griswold was in the field at all.

These reflections carried him far toseized Ardmore's prisoner, who now ward Raccoon creek, and when he had reached that tortuous stream he dis- broke forth in a torrent of wrath, gasp, and his feet struck the bare struggled vigorously. mounted and tied his horse, the more freely to examine the frontier. By lumping from boulder to boulder he easy there! Now in he goes."

crossed the turbulent tide and gained the other side with a sense of entering the enemy's country. "Now," he muttered, "I am in South Carolina.' He drew out his map and held it against a tree the better to study it. reassuring himself that his own property line embraced several sections of the forest on the south side of the state boundary.

"If Grissy shoots me, it will be on my own land," he said aloud.

He cautiously followed the stream until, several hundred vards farther on, and overhanging the creek, he came upon the log cabin in which Big Paul had reported the presence of a ghost. Paul's story had not interested him particularly, but now that he was in the neighborhood he re solved to visit the cabin and learn if possible how ghosts amuse themselves by day. He had thrust a revolver into his pocket before leaving the house and while he had no idea that ghosts may be shot, he now made sure that the weapon was in good order. As he sat on a log slipping the cylinder through his fingers he heard whistling farther along the creek, followed quickly by the snapping of twigs under a heavy tread, and a moment later a tall, slender man broke into view. The stranger was dressed like a countryman, but he was unmistakably not of the Ardsley force of workmen. for these wore a rough sort of unlform. His hands were thrust carelessly into the side pockets of a gray jeans coat. They were thrust in deep, so that the coat sagged at the pockets. "Hear, hears," with which certain His trousers were turned up from a pair of rough shoes and he wore a gray flannel shirt, the collar of which was guiltless of a tie. He was smooth shaven, and carried in his mouth a short pipe, which he paused to relight when about a dozen yards from Ardmore. Then, as he held the lighted match above the pipe bowl for an instant to make sure his tobacco was burning, Ardmore jumped up and covered him with the pistol. "I beg your pardon," said the master of Ardsley, "but you're my prisoner!"

turb a self-possession so complete-a tranquillity as sweet as the fading afternoon.

"Mr. Ardmore, I dislike to do it, but your amazing conduct makes it necessary for me to disclose my identity," and the man's manner showed real embarrassment.

"I knew it; I knew it;" nodded Ardmore, folding his arms across his chest, "You're either the king of Siam or the prince of Petosky. As either, I salute you!"

"No!" roared the captive, beating impotently against the door of the cage with his hands. "No! I'm the governor of South Carolina!"

This statement failed, however, to and he took a step toward Ardmore, who immediately threw up the revol- produce the slightest effect on Mr. Ardn ore, who only smiled slightly, a smile less incredulous than disdainful. "Oh, pshaw; that's nothing," he replied "I'm the governor of North Caro-Hna!" and mounting his horse he We'll have you all in jail before an gravely lifted his hat to the prisoner and galloped away.

While Mr. Ardmore was securing his prisoner in the corn-crib it may be interesting to return for a moment to the haunted log cabin on Raccoon creek, the interior of which was roughly but comfortably furnished. Above were two small sleeping-rooms, and beside the hed in each stood a suit-case and a hand-satchel. In each room hung, on convenient hooks, a long, black frock-coat, a pair of trousers of light cloth, and a brond-brim black felt hat. Coat, trougers and hat were exactly allke.

In the room below sat a man in his shirt-sleeves, his feet on a cheap deal table, blowing rings from a cigar. He presented a picture of the greatest ease and contentment, as he occasionally stroked his short brown beard, or threw up his arms and clasped his an array of playing cards and poker hlps.

"It's too good to last forever," the beautiful and healthy home. lone occupant reflected aloud, stifling a yawn, and he reached out, with careless indifference, toward a bundle of newspapers tied together with a piece of twine and drew one out and spread it across his knees. He yawned again as though the thought of a world whose affairs were stamped in printer's ink bored him immensely; and then the bold head-lines Two of the men jumped forward and that shouled at him across half a quarter of the sheet caused him to floor of the cabin resoundingly. He

"That's right, boys; that's right; now bent over the paper with the greatest eagerness, muttering as he object of building for the readers of his paper. On account of his wide expethere as Editor, Author and Manufac-turer, he is, without doubt, the highest uthority on all these subjects. Address all inquiries to William A. Radford, No. 194 Fifth Ave., Chicago, III., and only enclose two-cent stamp for reply.

It is plainly evident to all observers thoroughly constructed and arranged descriptions of modern houses and materially to its cost. discussions of architectural subjects press, finding a place in the newspapers and popular magazines.

This growing interest among the people is all to the good. Architecture has suffered too long from popular ignorance and popular apathy. Generally speaking, people get the kind of architecture they like and the kind of building they are willing to accept. There is enough architectural genius

If the genius of the architect and is located. the skill of the workman are unemployed, or are wasted on unworthy

ofr. William A. Radford will answer many matters of detail: but he should contions and give advice FREE OF OST on all subjects pertaining to the ing after the ideal of the picturesque. Having determined on the accommodation he desires and can afford, he will be well advised to be guided in regard to the design by his architect. The little cottage illustrated herewith is an example of a building that the number of people who take according to the very best ideas an intelligent interest in house plan- for convenience; yet at the same ning and house building is increasing. time some little thought has The popular press reveals this ten been given to make the building atdency very clearly. Illustrations and tractive in appearance without adding

For $1,500 this five-room cottage are overflowing from the technical has been built, using the very best methods of construction and finishing the building on the inside with oak, birch and yellow pine. A glance at the floor plan will show the desirable features of its arrangement. The living room and dining room are of large size and open together by means of an arch opening. The kitchen is well away from the hands about his head or caught lazily and enough skilled craftsmanship in from the dining room by the pantry, at the smoke rings. On the table lay our midst today to transform every we arrangement which has been found town and village into a thing of beau- to be very satisfactory. There are ty and to provide every family with a two good sized bedrooms very well placed. The bathroom is convenient-

> The attic space in this cottage is valuable for storage purposes, and objects, it is because the demand for since it is well ventilated serves to this beautiful architecture has not keep the first story cool during hot rest of the house, being separated

ALFALFA CLOVER.

Salzer's strain of hardy, luxuriant Alfd-fa Clover grows everywhere and brings from two to five rousing crops annually. It's the vigorous, healthy kind planted by Ex-Gov. Hoard of Wisconsin and thous-ands of other successful farmers through-out the U.S. We are the largest growers of clovers, grasses, seed oats, wheat, rya, rye, harlow, notatoes, etc. in America.

of clovers, grasses, seed oats, wheet, rys, rye, barley, potatoes, etc., in America. For 100 in stamps we mail you: 1 Pkt. Luxuriant hardy Alfalfa Clover. 1 Pkt. Billion & Grass-the 10 Ton wonder. I Pkt. Silver King Barley-173 Bu per A. 1 Pkt. Bonanza Oats-Sworn yield 259 Bu. per A, winning 4 Farms in 1910. 1 Pkt. Spelts-the cereal hay marvel. And 5 or more other packages farm seed novelies or rarities, together with our big novelies or ratities, together with our big catalog, bristling with seed truths all for but 10c in stamps, or send 25c and we add a big package famous French bean coffeel John A. Salzer Seed Co., 182 South 8th St. La Crosse, Wis.

WHAT SHE THOUGHT.

Mrs. Gumm-And what d'yer think of that there Jones as is moved in next dore but one to you?

Mrs. Jawkins-Why, I don't like talking about my neighbors; but as to Mr. Jones, sometimes I think, and then again I don't know, but, after all, I rather guess he'll turn out to be a good deal such a sort of man as I take him to be.

COULD NOT STAND SUFFERING FROM SKIN ERUPTION

"I have been using Cuticura Soap and Cutlcura Ointment for the past three months and I am glad to say that they cured me of a most annoying skin eruption. It began by my noticing red blotches appearing on my face and scalp. Although they were rather disfiguring, I did not think anything of them until they began to get scaly and dry and to itch and burn until I could not stand the suffering. Then I began to use a different soap, thinking that my old kind might be hurting me, but that didn't seem to do any good. I went to two different doctors out neither seemed to relieve me any. I lost many nights' sleep in continual scratching, sometimes scratching till I drew the blood on my face and head. Then I started in to use the Cuticura Remedies and in two months I was entirely relieved of that awful pest. I am so delighted over my cure by Cuticura Remedies that I shall be glad to tell anybody about it." (Signed) G. M. Macfarland, 221 West 115th St., New York City, Oct. 5, 1910.

Cuticura Soap (25c) and Cuticura Ointment (50c) are sold throughout the world. Send to Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., sole props., 185 Columbus Ave., Boston, for free book on skin and scalp diseases and their treatment.

temptuously "Oh, he gave me a shade the best of it one night." "Gave you the best of it?" father and brother shouted.

"Yes; you see, I fight under the name of Young Ryan and he counted pretty slow one time when I was down."-Saturday Evening Post.

A Frequent Speaker.

A member from a northern constit uency, who was one day reproached by a disappointed supporter for never opening his mouth in the house, repudiated the accusation with indignation. Not a day passed, he declared, but that he said something; and it was reported in the papers, too. In confirmation of his statement he produced the report of the last debate, and pointed triumphantly to the speeches were punctuated. "That's me," he said .- Tit-Bits.

Between Octogenarians.

understand they sentenced him to life imprisonment?" "Well, no; it wasn't as bad as that He got only 99 years!"-Puck,

CHILDREN AFFECTED By Mother's Food and Drink.

Many bables have been launched into life with constitutions weakened by disease taken in with their mothers' milk. Mothers cannot be too careful as to the food they use while nursing their babes.

The experience of a Kansas City mother is a case in point:

"I was a great coffee drinker from a child, and thought I could not do without it. But I found at last it was doing me harm. For years I had been troubled with dizziness, spots before my eyes and pain in my heart, to which was added, two years later, a chronic sour stomach.

"The baby was born 7 months ago, and almost from the beginning, it, too, suffered from sour stomach. She was taking it from me!

"In my distress I consulted a friend of more experience and she told me to quit coffee, that coffee did not make good milk. I have since ascertained that it really dries up the milk.

"So, I guit coffee and tried tea and at last cocoa. But they did not agree with me. Then I turned to Postum with the happlest results. It proved to be the very thing I needed. It not only agreed perfectly with baby and myself, but it increased the flow of my milk captor.

"My husband then guit coffee and used Postum and quickly got well of the dyspepsia with which he had been troubled. I no longer suffer from the dizziness, blind spells, pain in my heart or sour stomach.

"Now we all drink Postum from my husband to my seven months' old baby. It has proved to be the best hot drink we have ever used. We would not give up Postum for the best coffee we ever drank." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich. Get the little book, "The Road to Wellville," in pkgs.

"There's a Reason."

Ever read the above letterf A new me appears from time to time. They are genuine, true, and full of human

The stranger shook the flame out of the match stick carefully and threw ing that his imprisonment was a seriit away before turning toward his captor.

"Young man," he said with perfect self-possession, "don't fool with that fool," he howled, "but I didn't know gun, it might go off."

region; his tone was one of amused tolerance. Ardmore was short of is much more polite. He's sitting on stature, and his knickerbockers, his case of Chateau Bizet in my wine leggings and Norfolk jacket were cellar, playing solitaire."

not wholly consonant with the revolver, which, however, he leveled bawled the captive in astonishment. very steadily at the stranger's head. "You are an intruder on my property," said the master of Ardsley, "and might give him hydrophobia; but he's unless I'm much mistaken you have perfectly content in the wine cellar. been playing ghost in that cabin. Eve heard about you. Your gang has been him?

enough, and this game of playing do with him, but the scoundrel unghost to scare my men won't do."

stranger was clearly surprised. He his own state punish him." held his pipe in his hand with his The prisoner leaned heavily against thumb over the bowl and seemed to his prison door and glared out upon take a more serious interest in his his jailer with a new, flerce interest "And now," continued Ardmore, the Appleweights! I don't want to re-"I'm tired of having this end of the veal my identity to you, you young country run by the Appleweights, and beggar; but I demand my legal their disreputable gang, so I'm going rights." to lock you up."

The stranger turned toward the cabin, one corner of which was plain- of habeas corpus doesn't go here. ly visible, and shrugged his shoulders. You seem rather intelligent for a barn "I have nothing to do with the Ap- burner and timber thief. Come now, pleweights, and I assure you I am not what is your name? a timber thief."

"Then you must be the one who has imperturbable figure of his captor us to headquarters, or my instructions lifted a few steers out of my herd. It through the slats of the corn-crib. Ardmakes no difference just what branch | more returned his gaze with his most of the business you are engaged in, bland and child-like air. Many people for we're picking up all the gang and had been driven to the point of madyou've got to come along with me." ness by Ardmore's apparent duliness. The captive showed signs of anger The prisoner realized that he must better get up and climb." for the first time. His face flushed, launch a thunderbolt if he would dis-

"You're My Prisoner!"

A series of corn-cribs fringed the read, and some of his mutterings field, and into one of these, from were, it rust be confessed, not with which half the corn had been removed, out profane embellishment.

the prisoner was thrust sprawling upon the yellow ears, and when he rose and flung himself round, the door of the corn-crib slammed in his face. He bellowed with rage now, see ous matter, and that it seemed likely to be prolonged indefinitely. "They always told me you were a that anything as crazy as you are was His drawl was characteristic of the loose in the world." "Thank you. The head of your gang

"Appleweight in your wine cellar!"

"Certainly, I was afraid to lock him in a room with bath for fear R

"What are you going to do with cutting off my timber about long "I haven't decided yet just what to doubtedly belongs in South Carolina "Stealing your timber?" And the and I have every intention of making

"I tell you I've nothing to do with "My dear sir," retorted Ardmore

'you have no legal rights, for the writ

The prisoner gazed down upon the

TWO COWARDLY GOVERNORS MISSING. Scandal Affecting Two State Executives-Is the Appleweight Case Responsible ?- Rumors of Fatal Duel

on State Line. He read breathlessly the startling story that followed the head-lines, then rose and glanced anxiously at his watch. "Am I drunk or mad? I must find Osborne and get out of this."

He leaped to the open door, and mzed into the forest from a little platform that commanded all sides of the cabin. And there, to his utter amazement, he saw men in khakl merging cautiously from the woods. They were unmistakably soldiers of some sort, for an officer was giving | It is to contain accommodations which | ut like a fan along the creek. The bserver of this maneuver mopped his read with his handkerchief as he the wrong end, watched the alert movements of the igures in khaki.

He was so absorbed that he failed the platform, but he was now rudely aroused by two uniformed youngsters with S. C. N. G. on their caps, who sprang upon him and bore him with in and not to look on," he will do well a crash to the puncheon floor.

"You're our prisoner!" shouled one of them, rising when he found that the relative positions of dining room the prisoner yielded without resist and kitchen. Let the man with $2,000 ance

"What for" blurted the captive, will buy and therewith be content. If sitting up and rubbing his elbow. "For being Bill Appleweight, alias.

Potect. Get up, now, and come with are to break your head."

in the knowledge that all the material "Who in the devil are you "" panted used in the house is thoroughly sound the prisoner. and has been put together in a work-

"Well, if it's anything to you, we're manlike manner. the South Carolina militia, so you'd (TO BE CONTINUED.)

little residence for the small family tutes good architecture and sound

EUROPE TAKING TO BUDDHISM

Religion of the East Is Making Rapid Strides in the Countries of the Occident.

Buddhism has been making great strides in Europe for the past year. The membership of the Buddhist society of Great Britain and Ireland is now counted by hundreds and branchbut the result is not likely to make es have lately been established in Liverpool and Edinburgh. Prof. Rhys Davids, the writer on Pall and Buddhist literature, is its president, and among the vice-presidents is the earl of Mex-

When the house-hunting man turns borough. A Scottish convert to Buddwith disgust from the "desirable villa residences" to which the house agents hism, who is now a monk in Burma, is shortly to start a campaign in Great have directed his attention, and tried to sell to him, and determines to build Britain, having been appointed first resident missionary. himself a house according to his own

DINTING ROOM

LIVINO ROOM

Floor Plan

to give more attention to the sound ness of the walls and the root and to spend determine that he will have as much good sound building as $2,000 this means being content with two sitting rooms instead of the desired three, or abandoning a projected inglenook, there is a solid consolation and his wife's ideas he takes a very Great progress has also been made by the German Buddhist society, right and proper course, but he is apt which has two important press organs, to go about it in a wrong way. He in-in Leipzig and Breslau, Buddhist progagandists have been especially active in Hungary, where five editions of a Buddhistic catechism have been exhausted.

PED DOOM

PORCH

For the first time in Europe an atempt has been made there to get Buddhism officially recognized by the state, so that it could be taught in the schools. The plan was not successful, however. in Switzerland and Italy the number of adherents of the ancient orienti faith is also growing steadily. At Lugano appears the Coenobium, one of the most important Buddhist publications in Europe. New Buddhistic colonies, it is announced, will shortly he formed near Lausanne and also in the Italian province of Umbria.

Relice of Stone Age.

Arthur Diosy, F. R. G. S., has recently completed a series of explorations in Yucatan which bring to light vites an architect to design him a many new facts about the stupendous "picturesque" house, with nooks and ruins which stretch through the counbay windows and overhanging eaves. try in a chain 300 miles long. The most amazing thing about sharp commands, and the line opened might reasonably be supplied for these ruins, according to Mr. Dlosy, $4,000, but it is to cost not a penny is that the people who possessed such more than $2,000. That is to begin at high architectural skill and the knowledge of rich and graceful decorative If a man's chief ambition is that all arts, belonged to the stone age and the landscape painters in the neigh- had no knowledge of metals. These borhood should come and erect their wonders in stone were carved with to hear stealthy steps at the rear of easels before his house, he does well flint implements and a civilization to concern himself primarily with which has been compared to that of gables and nooks; but if he hold with Egypt grew up without even the use Bacon that "houses are built to live of bronze and fron.

No Chance to Be Cheap. Why do you delay proposing to that girl?" "I'm saving up to buy an engagement ring. 'Something especially expensive?"

"It'll have to be. I can't fool her. Her father runs a jewelry store

Spurring Him On.

"You den't tackle work like you did football, son." "The surroundings are different, father. "I guess that's so. Maybe it would

When the essential thing-good building-is secured, a man may find help if I instructed the other clerks it possible to indulge his fancies in to give your college vell occasionally."

Nine or Ten Deposits.

"It is expensive to learn to fly," said Clifford Harmon at Mineola. "Your aeroplane corts more than $5,000. You must pay a fee of $500 for tuition, and you must deposit, too, about $500 more for damages. All the damage you do to the machine you learn on must be paid for, and your deposit may easily be eaten up.

"I was talking one day at Nice to an English fiver.

"'I learned to fly in a week,' I said. 'How long did it take you to learn?' "'Oh, nine or ten-'

"'What!' I interrupted. 'Not nine or ten weeks?'

"'No, aeroplanes,' said he."

Rattlesnakes Appear Early.

The unusually warm weather throughout central Wyoming the last few weeks has caused large numbers of rattlesnakes to leave their dens and many have been killed by ranchmen and others. Not in the recollection of the oldest inhabitants have rattlesnakes appeared so early in the year. -Casper Correspondence Denver Republican.

DISTEMPER

In all its forms among in ages of horses, as well as dogs, cured and others in same stable prevented from having the disease with SPOHN'S DISTEMPER CURE. bottle guaranteed. bottles sold last year $.50 and $1.00. Any good druggist, or send to manufacturers. Agents wanted. Spohn Medical Co., Spec. Contagious Diseases, Goshen, Ind.

Advantages.

"You must have found the arctic circle very unpleasant."

"Yes," replied the arctic explorer; but it has its advantages. The cllmate is disagreeable, but the people aren't always worrying you about proofs."

USE ALLEN'S FOOT-EASE

the antiseptic powder to be shaken into the shoes. It makes your feet feet easy and com-fortable and makes walking a delight. Sold everywhere, US# Refuse institutes. For free trial everywhere, 155 Refuse inditines. For free trial package, address Allen S. Ohnstead, LeRoy, N.Y.

If a man's wife can read about polltics without wishing she were a man, he will never experience the pleasure of being henpecked.

Piles are often cured by careful diet, and Trask's Ointment. Write for Dr. Marrs' "Practical Study of Piles" to D. Ransom, Son & Co., Buffalo, N. Y. Free.

Can a woman become a member of the Daughters of the Revolution just because her ancestors murdered the king's English.

Druggists everywhere sell Garfield Tes, ie Herb laxative. It acts as a gentle aid to Nature.

The strongest symptom of wisdom

We pay high prices for Hides and urs. Sell Guns and traps cheap. N. 7. Hide & Fur Co., Minneapolts, Minn.

A woman always fears she won't be in man is his being sensible of his own follies --- Rochefoucauld in time for the bargain sale.