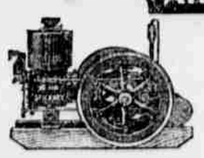
Stickney Gasoline Engines
ARE THE BEST No. 4



Economy—
I Can Help You

You know that you should have a Stickney Engine but do you know what size will do your work most economically, both in cost of fuel and in the expenditure of your time as an engine too small to do the work is not true economy. It is not economy to overload your engine nor to run it at too high a speed. Again the right size of engine will not give proper results unless the pulley sizes are right and the hook up is correct. This is where I can help you before you buy as well as look after you when you have bought.

Once more let me offer my help and show you the Stickney Engine—its outside igniter, its perfect cooling system, its automatic mixer, its ball bearing governor and its three point suspension.

Sunday School Convention.

An interesting program is to be rendered at the County Sunday School Convention at Boals M E church, South Sioux City, April 26 and 27, 1911.

The county officers are anxious to have every Sunday school represented at every session of the convention. All schools that have not attended to the matter of electing delegates should do it this week.

If every Sunday school would be represented, and the new methods recommended would be introduced into these schools, it would certainly result in larger schools, better work, and more influence of the school in the local community.

Wanted.

Cattle and horses to pasture.

WILL SEE CORONATION OF KING GEORGE V.

Miss Perle Stinson departed Tuesday for Kansas City, Kas, where she joined Miss Tiera Farrow, a former schoolmate at Garnett, Kans, and from there they start on a summer's tour of Europe. Their itenerary takes them first to Washington, D C, and from there to New York, when they sail the 29th inst on the steamer Koenig Albert, of the North German Lloyd line.

Their trip will take them through the Mediteranean to Italy, where they will visit all the places of interest in nearly every country on the eastern hemisphere.

They will be in London for the coronation of King George V, which important event takes place June 22.

Germany, France, Ireland, Scotland, Norway, Sweden and Denmark are on their list. Their last stopping place abroad will be Munich, where Miss Farrow expects to remain a year or more for the study of language. Miss Farrow spent several months abroad last year and is well versed in the ways of foreign people, which will be of value to them on this trip. Miss Stinson had partially decided to spend some time in the study of music while abroad, but will not determin upon that until later. Their sight seeing trip will end at Berlin, August 1st.

MISS PERLE STINSON.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Thursday and Friday of this week the second eighth grade examination will be held.

The Botany class has been supplied with herbariums and each member is required to analyze twenty-five specimens. This will aid materially in making plant study interesting and practical.

The sooner the grade pupils learn that they must measure up to the standard the sooner we will have good high school students. Over 75% of the failures in high school are directly due to having been "slid through" the grades.

The two new 12 inch suspension globes were received this week and placed in the intermediate and second primary departments. These globes will be a great help as most of the Geography work for the remainder of the year in the 4th, 5th and 6th grades will be map study.

The returns of the March eighth grade examination have been received and while the adverse conditions under which the work has been presented may excuse some of our pupils to a certain extent still it is very apparent that not all of them have put forth an honest effort. Although we would like to have a large ninth grade next year under no circumstances will any one be admitted who cannot pass the required examination satisfactorily.

Many people make the fatal mistake of wanting their children to be promoted whether they have met the requirements or not. Right there is where the trouble begins. After a pupil has once "slid through" he depends on that process. How many of us who have never studied Greek even though we have seen many Greek books can read Xenophon Anabasis? So it is with the student who lacks foundation, he cannot grasp the subject though he put forth an honest effort.

Curious Foods.

Man is the only animal that laughs, so the naturalists declare. To which may be added, that he is about the only animal that is an omnivorous feeder; all-devouring; swallowing the animal, vegetable and mineral kingdoms indiscriminately. That he pays the price of his catholic appetite, the fact that eighty-five percent of the diseases that arise to afflict him arise from the digestive organs, go to prove.

There are edibles whose use probably began with necessity, and the taste for them so acquired, continued when the necessity for them disappeared. Or, to put it in another way, hunger set the fashion and the vogue survived the hunger. Raw oysters, insects and sea weeds are representatives of this class.

The use of other foods may be traced to palates that have been vitiated by indulgence in epicurean pleasures, and whose sense of taste in consequence only respond to food of a strong, unusual or even abhorrent flavor, that is, abhorrent to the normal mouth. Some Russian dishes and certain cheeses are examples of this type of eatables.—From Physical Culture for May.

Easter Services.

Easter services in both Salem and Emanuel Lutheran churches were enjoyable and inspiring. Many expressed themselves as being glad in the privilege of celebrating Christ's undying love for them.

Eleven young men and women made a public profession of their faith in the risen Christ, and were admitted to full membership in the church.

The music of the trained choirs was soul-inspiring. The offerings to be devoted to Synod and Church Extension amounted to $49 58.

S. L. Keller, Pastor.

Frank Hogan has been confined to his home this week with typhoid fever. He is recovering at this writing. Mr Hogan had been sick for several days but did not call in the doctor. When he took to his bed it developed that he had been suffering from Walking Typhoid.

The barn on the Foye farm on Walkers Island occupied by A W Hadly was blown down during the storm of Wednesday. The barn was a large one although quite old. While not a total wreck, it parted in the middle and broke off where the hay mow commenced.

Clerk J N Mullins of the W O W lodge here received word this week of the death of Rudolph Finuette, a former citizen here and a member of the local order. Death took place at Garner, Iowa, April 3rd at the age of 59 years. Death was due to apoplexy. He leaves a wife and three children. It has been about 19 years since Mr Finnette and family have lived here.

Eudora Lodge No. 183, A. O. U. W. has unanimously selected L. Kryger of this city, as their choice for the position as member of the Finance Committee, a state office in that order. The South Sioux City lodge feels that in Mr Kryger they have a good candidate. He has been a member of the order for 27 years was a delegate to the organization of Nebraska Jurisdiction from Missouri

During the heavy rain and thunder storm Wednesday afternoon the ice house at D L Fairbank's residence was struck by lightning and a fire resulted. The heavy rain prevented its getting a big headway and the other buildidgs on the place from being in any great danger. The ice was not a total loss but suffered considerable damage. The loss is estimated at $150.

At their home in Seargent Bluffs on Monday Mr and Mrs Henry Oehlerking celebrated their golden wedding anniversary. Those from here attending were their son Will Oehlerking and family and the following friends and relatives; Henry Bierman and wife, John Sohn and wife of Brushy Bend; Fred Krumweide, Fred Beerman, Geo Bates and wife of Dakota; Wm Beerman of Battle Creek and Louis Dierking and family of South Sioux City. They presented Mr and Mrs Oehlerking with 2 rocking chairs and a kitchen cabinet. A pleasant day was enjoyed and they wished the old couple many happy returns of she day.

"The Bank that ALWAYS treats you RIGHT"

Bank of Dakota County Jackson Nebr.

MR. ED. T. KEARNEY,
DEAR SIR:—

As I understand it, today is your Quarter Centennial in the Banking business, and I am sure that you can look back upon those twenty-five years (behind the Banking Guns) with pleasure and satisfaction. I honestly think that you, during those twenty-five years, have done much good to your fellowmen, and this community generally and sincerely hopes that Kind Providence will give you fifty years more, happy, prosperous, successful business. I like your way of doing business, your kind monthly advices to your patrons is excellent and bound to do much good. Unfortunately very many just need such advice, and coming from a man in your position, it is sure to hit the muggish spot in the yellow fellow.

Yes, Mr. Kearney, I like your way of doing business. I wish I had more money so I could do more business with you. I thank you for the kindness you have shown me during these twenty-five years I have known you.

Sincerely yours,
