Primary Results.

Below is given the vote of the primary election by precincts on the candidates whose names appeared on the printed ballots. A number of names were written in on the ballots, and in the case of county superintendent on the democratic ticket, Leoline Murphy received 19 votes, while there were 16 casting votes. It was the same all the way through the list of candidates, from supreme judge to coroner.

For judge of the 8th judicial district, the republicans had no candidate on their ticket, but several were given complimentary votes, among them being R E Evans, 5 votes; W P Warner, 3; Guy T Graves, 2, and several others one each. Some one gave Miss Engelan a complimentary vote for county clerk, but of course this cannot be blamed on her.

A much larger vote was polled than was anticipated at the primary, which goes to show that the people are taking more interest in the new method of placing a ticket in the field than they formerly did, when it was left to a few party leaders. The number of votes cast by precincts will be found in another column.
