James McAllister received a severe electric shock Sunday when he took hold of a brace wire on the pole in front of S. A. Stinson's store, that carries the street car trolley wire. In some way the brace wire had become connected with the bracket which supports the trolley wire and was receiving the full voltage of that wire. The shock knocked Jimmie down, but he soon recovered from the effects of it. The brace wire was removed from its dangerous position by F. H. Forrest, manager of the telephone exchange.

An adjourned session of the district court will convene here next Monday, May 20th, when the trial of James Connell and Ed Glenn, who were captured in Sioux City in possession of several bolts of silk that had been stolen from the Farmers Exchange store at Homer, will come up for a hearing before Judge Graves. It may be a hard matter to connect the prisoners with the burglary of the store, but the fact that they were "caught with the goods" is pretty good evidence that they know something about the deal.

Mrs. Luther Harden Answers Final Summons.

Surrounded by her family and immediate friends, whose tender care had been so faithfully and willingly administered to her during her last long siege of sickness, Mrs. Luther Harden, one of the old and respected residents of Dakota City, passed quietly and peacefully away last Thursday, May the 9th, 1912, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Eva L. Orr. Her death was due to ailments incident to old age.

Deceased was born July 7, 1839, in Illinois, and was in her 73rd year. Her maiden name was Sara Jane Underwood. She was married to Luther Harden March 6, 1857, in Jefferson county, Iowa, and came to Dakota county to reside, May 9, 1867, just 45 years to a day previous to her death. Besides her husband she is survived by two children, Mrs. Eva L. Orr and Burgess G. Harden, both residents of this place.

Her home life and character had been a noble example of true womanhood, and the memory of her kindly disposition and loving ways will be cherished by her host of friends and acquaintances who deeply sympathize with the bereaved family.

The funeral services were held Saturday at 2 o'clock from the Methodist Episcopal church, of which the decedent had been a devoted member during her long residence among us, the ceremony being conducted by Rev. W. R. Warren. Interment was made in Graceland cemetery, Sioux City.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES
Edith Perry re-entered school Thursday of last week.

Lottie Hileman, Leona and Emma Schmidt, Loyd Moore, Theodore Frederick, Charlotte Warren, Elsie Lorenz, Alex Quintal and Gerald Hall are pupils of the first intermediate department who have received large certificates of perfect attendance.

In last week's school column we stated that the pupils of the eighth grade are given three trials to pass the state examination. We were in error and again glad to make correction. The state department makes it optional with the county superintendent whether the pupils are given two or three trials. In this county the pupils are given only two trials.

For the past few days the agricultural class has been figuring out balanced ration for the different animals on the farm.

The names of those who successfully passed the eighth grade state examination are: Ruby Moore, Helen Bierman, Baby Dierking, Daisy Knepfer, Keith Evans, Rudolph Lischke, Samuel Heikes, William Lorenz, Albert Bierman, and Harold Van de Zedde, rank 1, Ruby Moore; rank 2, Samuel Heikes.

Items reproduced in the Sioux City Journal from files of twenty years ago, May 15, 1892:

A large crowd of sports went to Covington yesterday to take in the Ward-Bridgewater fight. Bridgewater was on deck but Ward was not. He had gone to Chicago.

Covington people have decided not to hold an election to vote on the question of issuing bonds for the purpose of raising money with which to build protection for the river front. The reason is that it is thought the Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis & Omaha company will build protections along the river front to keep the river from cutting a channel south of the Nebraska end of its bridge.

Are you interested in the Taylor Cemetery?
All those that are interested or have relatives or friends buried in the Taylor cemetery are kindly asked to meet at the cemetery on Decoration Day, May 30th, between 9 and 10 o'clock a. m. for the purpose of decorating the graves, and doing what repair work is necessary. The men will please bring a spade, hammer, axe or wrench, and have the work done up on that day. It would also be greatly appreciated if the ministers would come and give a short program at noon. The ladies may provide a basket dinner to eat at the noon hour. This has been suggested to me by people that have an interest in the cemetery. Every one come and make the day interesting. Fred Bartels.

Miss Georgia Jay Sues for $50,000 Heart Balm

Chicago, May 14--Special to Sioux City Journal: Miss Georgia Jay, daughter of Mrs. Laura Tracy Jay, formerly of Sioux City, Iowa, has filed suit here for $50,000 damages for breach of promise against Homer Rodeheaver, now choirmaster for Billy Sunday, the evangelist. It is declared they fell in love at a revival meeting in Sioux City.

Sioux City Journal, 15: The suit indicated in the above dispatch is the outcome of a love affair which grew up in Sioux City during the visit of Evangelist W. E. Biederwolf in the late summer of 1909. Homer Rodeheaver was the evangelist's choirmaster. Miss Jay, with her mother, Mrs. Laura Tracy Jay, lived at 1824 Pierce street until about a year ago, when they moved to Chicago.

Rodeheaver first met Miss Jay after the revival meetings in charge of Rev. Biederwolf had been started in the huge, temporary tabernacle at Tenth and Nebraska streets. The extraordinary popularity of the evangelist caused the meetings to be protracted into the fall, so late it was necessary to install furnaces. Incidentally the delay gave the choirmaster and the Sioux City girl a chance to progress along the path of romance.

The attentions of Rodeheaver were marked at the time, say friends of Miss Jay. Rumors of a serious attachment, however, died out after the singer had left the city.

Miss Jay was employed for some time as bookkeeper for the Walters Bros. company, a live stock commission firm.

[Miss Jay was well known to Dakota City people, where she was born and grew to young womanhood. She was a daughter of the late Mel C. Jay.]

Please do not forget that we always carry on hand a very good stock of hardware, granite ware, etc., and that our prices cannot be beaten anywhere. Schriever Bros.

Visit Yellowstone Park This Summer

SEE AMERICA FIRST. Travelers from Europe visit Yellowstone Park and say there is nothing comparable with that wonderland. The season of 1912 offers still more attractive routes through the Park. For instance you will be able to go through the park one way via Cody, the scenic entrance over Sylvan Pass, returning via Gardiner, North entrance, or vice versa. A complete system of automobiles and Park coaches is operated between Cody and the Lake Hotel, in connection with the park hotels and stage lines.

You can buy round trip rail tickets to Gardiner or Cody for about $32 and make your own arrangements, including if you like, Willey Permanent Camp six-days tour, or you can buy round trip tickets to Cody and there use the Frost & Nichols sixteen day personally conducted camping tours through the Park. There are no such vacation tours in this country.

You can make the Park tour one way through Denver, Scenic Col. rd. and Salt Lake City, the other via Gardiner. Then there are side trip Park tours from Livingston on the main line of the Northern Pacific for those going by rail.

If you will consult with us we will be glad to show you the various attractive ways of making the tour of the Park and hand you folders.

Undertaker

B. F. SAWYER was born May 8, 1850, in Mansfield, Mass. He started as an apprentice for three years in the Undertaking business in New York City with the largest firm in the city, remaining with them for five years. He has followed the profession ever since, coming to Jackson, Neb., in 1880 and starting the business here. He has one of the best equipped Undertaking Parlors in the state, with commodious quarters, lady assistants, fine hearse and equipment and a large stock always on hand.

He understands all the successful methods of embalming and makes a specialty of the Miao system, which preserves the remains forever, requires no cutting or excision of the body, and takes nothing away nor adds anything to the subject, the thorough embalming being done exclusively by external methods.
