W N Huse, editor of the Norfolk Daily News, and one of the best known journalists in northeast Nebraska, died at his home in Norfolk, Neb., Monday after a lingering illness from gall stones.

Hon. H. P. Shumway, senator from this district, was well treated and has had plenty of work given him by the senate. He was appointed chairman of the committee on Claims and on Education, and a member of the committee on Finance, Ways and Means; Drainage; Employees; Agriculture; Insurance; Library; Public Printing; School Lands and Funds, and University and Normal Schools. His first bill was a modified form of the Putnam Act of Minnesota, giving state aid to high schools teaching an approved course in Agriculture.

armed with a government mittimus. Nolen was sent for and given to understand that he was wanted at police headquarters by Chief of Detectives Steve Maloney. Outside the county jail an automobile was waiting and in it was Marshal Warner. The machine started at once, not for police headquarters, but to the union depot. The trio arrived at the depot about two minutes before the 11:25 Burlington train pulled out.

Homer Star: Chas Smith, from Rock county, arrived on Sunday to visit with friends and relatives for a few days. Miss Elsie Wilkins returned on Sunday evening to Wayne to resume her studies at the state normal. Tony Larsen and Earl Rasdal returned to Lincoln on Sunday to again take up their studies at the state university. Miss Eleanor Murphy and Miss Margaret Ashford returned to Lincoln on Sunday to resume their studies at school. Mrs Ames, of Forrest City, Ia, sister of James Alway, sr, and Mrs Richards arrived last week to spend the winter with relatives. Miss Bessie Hughes returned to Sheldon, Ia, on Sunday to take up her studies at the high school. Allie, a brother, accompanied her to Sioux City. George R Rockwell left on Tuesday for Sioux City, where he entered the St Joseph's hospital and underwent an operation for abscess which has been bothering him for some time. The many friends of Mr Rockwell wish him a speedy recovery.

Hope Dickover sold his household goods at auction on last Saturday in front of the Farmers Exchange. He has quit farming and moved his family to Chicago where he will engage in business with his father. The farm recently vacated by Mr Dickover has been rented to Roy Orr for the coming season.

Poncea Journal: J M Davey, the pioneer Poncea merchant, died Saturday morning at about 10 o'clock, more than six weeks of illness from heart trouble. The funeral took place Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock from the Catholic church in Poncea, Father Moore conducting the obsequies. A large number of people attended, filling the church to overflowing. The business houses closed during the funeral services. The remains were buried in the South Creek cemetery. In the death of J M Davey the community loses a good and worthy man, who attended to his own business, and had no time to interfere offensively with others. There are many who can testify to his helpfulness in times of need. He was a kindly father and faithful friend. He was held in affectionate esteem by his wife and children, to whom he was devoted. The following appears in the history of Dixon county, published 1896: "J M Davey was born in Washington county, Wis, in 1845, and lived in that state until his twenty-eighth year, when he came to Nebraska and located on Elk creek, Dakota county. After two years he removed to Poncea (1875), where he has been in the mercantile business since. Mr Davey married thirty-three years ago, a lady who died six years later. His present wife, whom he married nineteen years ago, was Mary McCormick whose parents reside in Dakota county. He has had two children, three by his first wife and seven by his second. In financial affairs he has been very successful and is now a large land owner in Dakota and Dixon counties." Deceased is survived by a wife and ten children, all of whom reside in Poncea except Mrs M P Wheeler, of Osprey, Wyo. There are six sons, Frank, Joe, Dr J M Davey, Homer, Harry and Dan, and four daughters, Mrs M P Wheeler, Mrs W D McCarthy, Miss Florence and Miss Bonnie. He had one brother, Frank, of Sioux City, who attended the funeral. The following were in attendance at the funeral: Frank Davey and wife, Jas T Whig, Mrs Maloney, Mrs Smith, Sioux City; Jas Heeny and wife, Naacora; Frank Heeny and wife, Hubbard; Mrs Fred Berry, Wayne; Jas and Mary Barry, Mrs Sarah Erlach, Jackson; B J McDonald, Emerson.

Walthill Times: Mrs W Wamsley of Homer, was a Walthill visitor Thursday. Wm Aulerich and wife, from Homer, were visitors between trains Monday. Miss Ellen Rockwell and Miss Cora Metcalf were Homer passengers Saturday. Mrs J L Blanchard, of Homer, was in town Thursday, having some dental work done. Mrs Tom Ashford and Mrs D B Stidworthy, of Homer, were the guests of Mrs J V Gorham between trains Saturday.

Sioux City Tribune, 11: An extra day or two must be added to the week if W E Holmes, secretary of the Commercial club, is to accept all the speaking invitations he is receiving. The bids are rolling into the office at an alarming rate. Two were received today. The committee in charge of the farmers' institute at Dakota City, N.D., wants him to talk about agricultural reports for counties on February 4 or 5. H E Kester, president of the Associated Advertising Clubs of Iowa, has wired Mr Holmes, asking him to speak at the annual convention in Waterloo on February 5. The subject assigned him is "Building Up Your Home Town." Both invitations are being considered.

Allen News: Art Hale was in the city Tuesday. Mr and Mrs Frank Hale were city visitors Saturday. Col E F Rasmussen, of near (trouduw), was in town Saturday on business. Charles Antrim and wife of Dakota City, visited here at the Frank Hale home over Sunday. Mrs John Allen and daughter, Arthur, returned Saturday night from a few days' visit with Mrs Allen's mother, at South Sioux City. The Cavanaugh family has moved to Jackson, where they will make their future home. Miss Cornelia will attend the state university at Lincoln, after February 1, and will receive her degree in June. She has resigned her position here as assistant principal. Stirling Stewart was elected by the school board Thursday night to take her place.

Winnebago Chief: Johnnie Ashford departed on Monday evening for St Paul, Minn, to resume his studies at St Thomas college. Editor Jeff Taylor, formerly of the Homer Star, was in Winnebago Wednesday for a few hours, and paid the Chief's office a call. Postoffice Inspector L A Thompson, of Omaha, arrived in Winnebago Saturday evening, and on Monday he checked up the missing stamps with Postmaster H G Niebuhr, since the robbery of a week ago. About $20.00 in stamps were so badly damaged that they cannot be used, which loss, together with the missing money, must be born by Mr Niebuhr, for the reason that the combination of the outer door of the safe that was blown was not turned on. There seems to be no clue to the robbers, other than it is thought by some that it was done by the same parties who blew up a safe in Sioux City since. Walter Niebuhr returned home Sunday evening, from his Colorado trip, and much to the delight of two or three young ladies, did not have a wife with him, as was the report that he would have. It seems that a traveling man, who accompanied W E Denver, took it into his head to get a little drive on Walter, so he mailed a card to one of our business men to be on the lookout for Mr Niebuhr on his return, as he would surely have with him one of the fairest of Denver's young ladies, and for the crowd to be ready upon his home coming with a dollar and a half's worth of rice. While these few young ladies were just elated over the result, the party who had the rice in readiness, for the white shower, felt a bit fooled as they greeted the still single Walter, entirely innocent of the so-called news that had been sent back from the mile-high city. However, all the next day Joe Sharkey insisted that the bride went on to South Sioux to fool the folks in Winnebago on the banks of the Omaha, and prompted everybody who came in to jump Walter for the cigars, and we understand, however, on a rather flimsy foundation, that it was six boxes he handed out to the fellows whom he somehow could not make believe he was not married. All because the Chief had said he went out there to get a wife, O, what a mess a newspaper can stir up, without half trying. But then W E kept sweet through it all, and declared that when he has to go as far as that for a wife, we'll all know about it ahead of time.
