Two important measures to the residents of Senator H. P. Shumway's senatorial district, have passed both branches of the Nebraska legislature with the emergency clause, and as soon as signed by the governor will become laws on our statute books.

Senate File No. 73, which repeals section 7160 of Cobley's Annotated Statutes of 1911, passed the senate without a dissenting vote and the house with only one dissenting vote. This bill changes the penalty for selling or giving away liquor or intoxicating drinks of any kind to an Indian of whole or mixed blood, from a felony punishable by two years in the penitentiary, to a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine not exceeding $100, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than three months, and in case of imprisonment he shall be compelled to work out his time on the streets and highways of the county wherein convicted.

Senate File No. 74, which passed the Senate by twenty-eight votes for and twenty-two against, and the house without a dissenting vote, legalizes marriages and divorces among Indians, which heretofore have been consummated according to Indian customs, and also legitimizing children of such Indian marriages. After the passage of this act, however, marriages and divorces among Indians or their descendants, according to Indian custom, shall be unlawful, and they shall be subject to all laws relative to marriages and divorces. All county judges in the state are required between June 1, 1913 and August 1, 1913, to make a record of all Indians in his county who are married according to the provisions of this act, first applying to the U. S. Indian agent or superintendent for such information. This bill was sponsored by Senator Shumway by request of a council of Winnebago Indians.

Mrs Mansfield will be greatly missed in Winnebago during her trip for the summer, and a host of friends are trusting her health will be fully recovered in the west.

Wayne Democrat: Hartington, Dakota City, Norfolk, Laurel, Fremont and West Point in this corner of the state voted to continue wet. The dry people appear to be gaining. In a list of towns voting on the license question but two changed from dry to wet, but there were seven which had been wet that voted dry. Next week at Bloomfield the question will come up at a special election. Mrs H J Graves died at her home at Norfolk Saturday, March 20, 1913, from diabetes, after three years of failing health. Mrs Graves was born in Northampton county, Pa, 63 years ago, and later moved to Stevenson county, Ill. Came to Nebraska in 1882, settling at Wisner. Later they came to Wayne county, and for a number of years lived on a farm just north of town, leaving there after selling the place seven years ago, to go to Norfolk, where, with her husband who survives, she made her home until the end came. Besides her husband, she is survived by five sons, William of this city, Oliver of Wayne, Frank of Dakota City, George and Wallace who live in Illinois, and two daughters, Mrs Florence Rifles and Mrs M Briggs. Rev Mr Millard of the Methodist church conducted funeral services at the family home at 9:30 o'clock Sunday morning. The body was taken to Wisner, the old home, at noon Sunday for interment.

Sioux City Tribune, 5th: Following the institution of a suit at Dakota City, Neb, yesterday against the Crystal Lake Distillery, incorporated, the original petition, filed on March 20, was restored to the local court files. This petition was presented for the purpose of securing a temporary injunction and was at once withdrawn by the attorneys representing the plaintiff company, the Crystal Lake Distillery company. Intimations had been made by some of the parties interested that a settlement of the action was anticipated without further court action, but this probability did not materialize and the suit now is under way for cancellation of notes and mortgages to the amount of $30,000 on the property of the distillery company. Sensational charges of "high finance" operations are set forth by the defendant company, a holding corporation, in getting hold of the paper said to have been issued by the Crystal Lake Distillery company for apertic purpose and in pursuance of a trade which was not completed. The individual members of the Crystal Lake Distillery, incorporated, as cited in the petition, are D L Fairbanks, Charles Watson, Charles C Claggett, Fred Bailey, W I Montgomery and the First National bank, of Sioux City. It is stated that the plaintiff company had contracted to trade the distillery property in South Sioux City for 600 acres of land located in Novata county, Oklahoma, to Charles C Claggett, Fred D Bailey and Charles Watson. The persons claiming to own the Oklahoma land were unable to clear the land so as to make the trade; and at this stage, the petition recites, the plaintiff company executed notes and mortgages on its property in the sum of $30,000 to be used in clearing title to the Oklahoma land and for that purpose only. The notes and mortgage were executed October 5, 1912. Following this transaction, so it is alleged, the First National bank, of Sioux City, advanced about $15,000 to Claggett and Bailey and took the notes and mortgages of the distillery company as collateral security for the sum advanced. After getting the money, the petition states, Claggett and Bailey made no attempt to clear title to the land or to complete the proposed trade, but on the other hand commenced action to have the contract for the trade annulled and set aside, appropriating the $15,000, for their own use. The plaintiff company declares that it cannot determine just who got the money, but alleges that it was for the benefit and use of all the defendants, citing that W I Montgomery, Charles Watson and D L Fairbanks are members of the holding company organized to take over the distillery affairs. It is recited that the Crystal Lake Distillery incorporated knowingly and fraudulently negotiated the mortgage and notes in violation of their trust and agreement, which had been made, and that the defendants are attempting to hold the property of the Crystal Lake Distillery company for the money advanced in the process of completing the trade. In addition to securing the $15,000 in cash, claimed to be without consideration, Claggett and Bailey are said to have secured $20,000 worth of stock in the holding company, the Crystal Lake Distillery incorporated, by giving their notes for that amount, secured by turning over the $20,000 mortgage of the Crystal Lake Distillery company, for which it is contended no consideration of any kind ever has been received. The statement is made that one of the Sioux City papers contained an advertisement on March 16, 1913, offering the $30,000 mortgage for sale, and it was this effort which caused the plaintiffs to secure a temporary injunction restraining the sale of the mortgage, pending a determination of the issues. Defendants Claggett, Bailey, Fairbanks and Watson are declared to be without means or assets to make good their alleged breach of trust and demand is made in the pending suit for the satisfaction and cancellation of the $30,000 mortgage and notes.

THE GOLDEN AGE AT HAND.

Scriptural Evidences That Are Astonishing—No One Can Afford to Be Without the Knowledge.
We do our friends a valuable service when we call their attention to the valuable book entitled, "THE TIME IS AT HAND," in which are given many Scriptural evidences to prove where we are on the stream of time.
"Men's hearts are falling them for fear" and many of the leading thinkers are proposing remedies to better conditions. The Scriptures assure us that man's extremity will be God's opportunity, and this book holds out an anchor to those who fear the wave of unrest now spreading over the world.
The honest heart confesses that it is at a loss for an explanation of transpiring events. While we refer to this as the BRAIN AGE and the AGE of ENLIGHTENMENT, nevertheless many realize that we are fast approaching a crisis which is wrapped in darkness owing to the present worldwide social, religious and political unrest.
