Hartington News: Dakota county, too, is building its bridges of concrete. We passed over one just completed last week a little way out from Jackson on this side. It is a beauty and will be a joy forever. And it cost less than a steel bridge or corrugated culverts would have cost in Cedar county.

We are glad to welcome this family here and trust they will find congenial friends who will make their first days of their residence in Ponca pleasant ones.

Sioux City Journal, 6th. It would be a punishable violation of the Mann "white slave" law for a Sioux City man to convey a girl from this state to Crystal Lake or any other point in another state or a wine supper, if it could be shown the surroundings were such as would tend to encourage debauchery, according to A Van Wageningen, United States district attorney, who has been investigating the scope of the Mann law in preparation for trials that are to come up in the federal court this fall. It is not necessary to prove sexual relations or that any were contemplated as a direct result of the interstate trip in question, District Attorney Van Wageningen holds. He bases this view on the decision of the United States supreme court in His case was found to be smallpox, and he was sent to the detention hospital. When he was released, he began again to abuse his wife, she said. So she refused to live with him longer.

Sioux City Journal, 4: Miss Rose W Martin, of South Sioux City, is spending her vacation by visiting her father's relatives at Albany and White Plains, N.Y. The South Sioux City authorities are investigating a series of thefts which have been perpetrated the past week at Crystal Lake, Neb. The clothing of bathers have been rifled and sums of money taken. A man who gave his name as Wilson has been taken into custody and is incarcerated in the jail at South Sioux City until further investigation of his whereabouts the past week has been made. Attention of Grant G Martin, attorney general of Nebraska, will be called by H L Houghton, secretary of the Associated Charities, to the "laz policy" of County Judge D C Heffernan, of Dakota county, in issuing marriage licenses, particularly in the case of minors. The ire of Secretary Houghton was aroused by a story that Judge Heffernan had granted a license to marry to Walter Barnes, 16 years old, 1712 East Seventh street, and Eva Shapiro, 15 years old, formerly of 1714 East Seventh street at Dakota City Monday afternoon, and had performed the ceremony. Mr Houghton asserted that he would present the facts in the Barnes-Shapiro marriage to Attorney General Martin and would let that official act accordingly. If Attorney General Martin desired, Mr Houghton asserted that he would present statistics to show that in the last year Judge Heffernan had issued many licenses and married young Sioux City people who had not reached their legal age. "I will not ask an investigation of Judge Heffernan's laz policy in issuing marriage licenses to minors," said Secretary Houghton, "but will call his attention to not only the Barnes-Shapiro case, but to others, and will let Attorney General Martin handle the situation. An inspection of the records of the Dakota county court has shown that of 200 marriage licenses recently issued by Judge Heffernan, less than 13 percent were residents of Dakota county. Over 50 percent were residents of Sioux City and a large number were to children who have not attained their legal age. Usually these marriages of children have turned out to be failures. We have investigated many cases and were called to take care of young girls who had been deserted by their husbands. Several of the young wives have been committed to the Good Shepherd's home. It means a big burden of expense to the taxpayers of Woodbury county. I believe Judge Heffernan should exercise more care in the issuing of licenses to children. If he thinks they are under age he should demand a verbal permit from their parents. In the case of Walter Barnes and Eva Shapiro, the boy does not appear to be more than 14 years old, while the Shapiro girl, who is only 15 years old, does not look a day older. Investigation of the Barnes-Shapiro case by Secretary Houghton and his assistant, Mr Warburton, showed that three members of the Barnes family have obtained license to marry from Judge Heffernan while under age. Helen Barnes, the 14-year-old sister of Walter Barnes, was granted a license to marry. After a few weeks of married life, the attention of the Associated Charities was called to her case and the girl was placed in the Good Shepherd's home. Recently she was released to her mother, Frank Barnes, her brother, a minor, was granted a license and was married to Edith Cook, 16 years old, by Judge Heffernan. After an unsuccessful wedded life, according to Mr Houghton, the girl was placed in the Good Shepherd's home. Love of the Shapiro girl for Barnes, her few hours' old husband, triumphed over her love for her parents, and she deserted them at the Northwestern station Monday evening, when they with other members of the family were about ready to depart for their new home on a ranch near Glasgow, Mont, and joined her husband. A few minutes before the train pulled in, the Shapiro girl hurried from the station and joined her husband, whom she had married only a few hours before in Dakota City. The husband took his wife to his home, 1712 East Seventh street, secure from policemen who had been sent out to hunt for the girl by her distracted parents. It is thought that the little girl, upon learning of the plans of her parents to move away from Sioux City, was forced to hurry the arrangements for her own wedding. While the girl's parents were making preparations for the trip Monday, accompanied by Barnes, she went to Dakota City, where they were married by Judge Heffernan. The girl, although only 15 years old, swore to Judge Heffernan that she was 18 years old December 12, of last year. Barnes said he was 21 years old. Fearing that the police plan to take his wife away from him, Barnes has carefully guarded her since Monday night. While officers searched the city all day Tuesday the young wife for many hours was hidden in the home of her husband's parents. When he learned that the police were coming to the house he took her to another place. Chief of Police O'Shannon, when informed that the girl was married to Barnes, asserted that Dan Cupid had scored a victory over the police department. The father had instructed Ed Baron, secretary of the United Jewish Charities, to find the daughter and return her to his home.

Farm Land Sale

An Opportunity of a Lifetime to Buy a Farm.

The above Farm Home, together with 200 acres of the finest farm land in the Corn Belt

Will Be Offered at Public Auction Wednesday, Sept. 24, 1913

This land consists of a black, sandy loam, equal in quality to the best land on earth. Located as it is, only 6 miles from Sioux City, Iowa, and adjoining Dakota City, the county seat of Dakota County, Neb., on the west farm, an ideal location to a home and stock farm. Two railroads, the C. & N. W., passing through the farm on an air line east and west and the other the C. B. & Q., only a block away, make shipping facilities unexcelled. A good high school and churches are within easy walking distance, and there is a direct street car line to Sioux City. A telephone service to Sioux City, free of toll charges, puts the stock feeder in easy touch with the market so that he may take advantage of market or weather conditions. The main traveled automobile highway between Sioux City and Omaha passes by this farm, and the roads in general are excellent.

There is no better general or special farming proposition anywhere in the corn belt that is offered by this farm. Yields of 90 bushels of corn per acre, 30 bushels of wheat and 50 bushels of oats have been made, while, with a proper rotation of alfalfa—which does remarkably well, yielding 5 tons per acre—and with live stock the above yields can be surpassed. Hogs do remarkably well on this farm, disease of no kind having been on the place in twenty years.

The improvements on this farm are of the best to be found anywhere, as the above photograph will show. A cordial invitation is extended to anyone who wishes to inspect this farm at any time previous to the sale, and they will be shown every courtesy while here.

The sale will be held at the farm on Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 24, 1913. Col. Z. M. Baird of Hartington, Neb., will make the sale, and sealed bids may be sent to him at Hartington or at Dakota City, Neb., in care of Walter Cheney, owner, and they will receive careful attention on the morning of the sale. Any bank, business man or farmer in Dakota County is given for reference.

TERMS: The Terms of Sale will be, 10% cash; 40% within thirty days, when a warranty deed and abstract of title will be delivered; all deferred payments to bear interest at the rate of 5%.

Walter Cheney, Owner Dakota City, Nebr.

JAP ATHLETES AT THE INTERSTATE FAIR

Striking open air vaudeville acts are to be presented at the Sioux City Interstate Live Stock Fair, September 15 to 19, inclusive, as between race features. Seven entertainment headliners have been retained by the fair management to offer a fourteen-number program each day. Performances will be free and will be staged on big stands erected in front of the grandstands.

One of the notable acts will be that offered by the Ishikawa brothers, hand balancers, tumblers and equilibrists. This act has been featured in many of the big circus shows.

Side-splitting comedy will alternate with daring trapeze and horizontal bar feats when the Marlo-Duffy trio is given their fair spotlight. This act has been given premier honors in many of the best vaudeville theaters of the country.

"Bob," the boxing kangaroo, who has been tagged the "almost human fighting machine," has a reputation as widespread as that of the former American, Jack Johnson. He is rated the best trained animal actor of the stage.

A company of ten Arabian athletes, under the leadership of Bobter, a whirling shiek of the far east, will present a program of hazardous gyrations, will build human pyramids and display their agility in other ways. This company was imported to cover the big fair circuits, and later may be seen in vaudeville.

Seven members of the American Florence Troupe will offer acrobatic numbers. Gordon Brothers will present a big punching and physical culture feature. The Curzon Sisters, dubbed by eastern dramatic critics the "Flying Butterflies," will offer a dainty and daring air novelty. They have been featured in New York.
