Big Crowds Attend Farmers' Meetings

Tuesday evening marked the closing of the most successful session of the Dakota County Farmers' Institute that has yet been held in the county. From the opening session on Monday until the curtain rang down at the close the attendance never faltered, and at some of the meetings standing room was all taken.

The program as published was carried out almost to the letter, with many additional features thrown in.

The exhibits this year were of a better class than usual and a much larger variety was shown.

The demonstration given by J W Hough, of Sioux City, in treating hogs for cholera, was highly spoken of by the officers and instructors of the institute. Mr Hough vaccinated half a dozen hogs to show his method of treating the disease. He has furnished much of the serum used in treating hogs in this locality from his plant in Sioux City.

Messrs C O Beerman and T F McGlashan, the president and secretary of the association, are entitled to much credit for the success of the meeting just closed.

At the business meeting of the association C O Beerman was re-elected president; Ed Metz, vice-president, and Walter Miller, secretary-treasurer, and the following executive committee chosen: Geo I Miller, Horace Culbertson, Bernard Hols, Geo O Orr and Elmer Blessing.

A farm management organization was launched with the following officers: President, Jacob Leamer; vice-president, Joe F Hall; secretary, T F McGlashan; treasurer, H H Adair.
