Rebel Garrison Wiped Out. Columbus, N. M .- Annihilation of the constitutionalist garrison at Patomas, Chihuahua, by federal regulars broke the peace of northern Mexico and revived reports of counter revolutions in the republic. Three hundred guerillas under Gen. Roque Gomez attacked the little border town in view of troops of the United States army patrol. Every man of the Villa garrison was reported killed. Thirty man under Captain Topete fought desperately from adobe houses in the town, but were overpowered.

EDITORS HAVE GREAT TIME Spend a Day as Guests of Omaly and King Samson. Omaha, Neb.-Nebraska and Iowa editors came to Omaha for the second annual Editors' day in summer, alternating with the state editorial association. Over a hundred had their reunion and outing, registerng at the Rome, then going to the Commercial elub for lunch, visiting personal friends later and at 3:30 massing at the Field club. There they saw a dance of five score children, and dined at six with Omaha bankers and governors. The editors from all parts of the state were good naturedly whirled through the mystic maze of Ak-Sar-Ben's initiation at the big Den. It was a fitting climax to a day of entertainment for the editors set aside in Omaha. The classic colliseum was well filled and the total paid membership up-to-date, is 2,365 as compared with 2,280, the biggest total membership of any season, registered in 1912.

Just as the throng was making a rush for the doors of the banquet hall, Chairman Fraser held them long enough to allow Will Maupin, present editor of the Midwest Magazine, Lincoin, to roast E. V. Parrish for promises alleged to have been but illy kept. Just as the audience became excited, it was discovered that it was merely a "plant," for Mr. Shaffer stepped forward and presented Mr. Parrish with a swell silver cup, suitably engraved, a present from 'the newspaper boys of Nebraska." This expression of the executive committee told how the editors liked the day and night, the appreciation being signed by H. A. Brainard, Charles W. Pool, John M. Tanner, George S. Foxworthy, E. R. Purcell, A. V.

J. D. (DAD) WEAVER. Secretary of Ak-Sar-Ben and a live wire. Mr. Weaver made a hit with the newspaper boys with the splendid entertainment at the den.

Shafer, Rorace M. Davis and Henry C. Richmond:

"In behalf of more than 100 newspaper editors and publishers of Nebraska, we acknowledge with deep appreciation its indebtedness to the bureau of Publicity of the Commercial club of Omaha and the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben for a day in the metropolis filled with entertainment, enjoyable, instructive and beneficial. The unanimous verdict of the visiting editors is heartily in keepng with this brief expression of the appreciation they all feel for the courtesies which Omaha through the bureau of publicity has always shown the visiting scribes who, from one end of the state to the other, are now anticipating with much enthusiasm the next regular meeting of the association which will be held in Omaha."

McDermott Resigns His Seat. Washington.-Representative James T. McDermott of Illinois has offered his resignation to take effect immedlately. McDermott is under charges in connection with the lobby investigation. McDermott, democrat, representing a constituency which includes the stock yards district of Chicago, was one of the figures in the exposure of Martin M. Mulhall, star witness in the lobby investigation. A majority report of the investigation committee the house recommended that he be consured.

Vancouver, B. C .- After swearing in 200 special police, the immigration authorities went aboard the Komagata Maru and ordered the captain to remove his ship outside the three-mile territorial limit. Guarded by the police, the captain proceeded to get up steam. The Hindu passengers are in a very menacing mood. The government has supplied them with provisions for the return trip, but has informed them that if they interfere with the captain they will be refused all further supplies and allowed to starve in the harbor.

CRUSADE BRINGS RESULTS. Many Lives Saved and Accidents Prevented on Northwestern, Lincoln, Neb .-- The "safety first" crusade of the Northwestern railroad, started four years ago, has been productive of great good. Figures showing the effect of the movement have been filed with Chairman Clarke of the railway commission by Superintendent Walters.

Comparisons made between the four years ending June 30, 1910, and the four years ending June 30, 1914, show the following:

Fifty-nine less trainmen killed and 6,244 less injured. Twenty-eight less switchmen killed and ninety-six less injured. Twenty-three less stationmen killed and 674 less injured. Thirty-five less trackmen killed and

Two less bridgemen killed and 213 less injured. Two less shopmen killed and 756

1.884 less infured.

less injured. A total of 310 less persons killed and 10,113 less injured.

The board of control may have to go to the courts to get funds to run the penitentiary. The maintenance fund of that institution is exhausted, but there is $25,000 of other funds available for salaries, repairs and other purposes, most of which is not needed for the purposes for which it was appropriated. The board of control will ask leave to transfer these funds of the institution to the maintenance fund or ask the right to draw out of the state treasury $30,000 paid in during the present biennium from the labor fund of the penitentlary. It has been the custom to turn all money derived from convict labor contracts into the state general fund. Under the Gerdes law state institutions are required to turn in all cash funds into the state treasury and then draw out such funds on youchers and warrants as they are needed. The attorney general is of the opinion that this law does not apply to the convict labor fund, because the legis lature appropriated maintenance funds for the penitentiary without regard to the money derived from con vict labor. The penitentiary has a cash fund derived from the sale of products of various kinds that is turned into the state treasury under the Gerdes law and which is drawn upon by the state board. State Treasurer George will not permit the board of control to draw the convict labor fund from the state general fund without an order of court. The board will endeavor to transfer unused funds o the penitentiary or to obtain the use of the convict labor fund which is now in the state treasury.

State Food Commissioner Harman held another meeting with creamery men for the purpose of inducing operators of creameries to buy cream according to grade and not according to weight. Governor Morehead addressed the meeting. The creamery men agreed to try the new method for one month, beginning August 1, without changing the price. This trial will educate operators in methods of grading cream and if it is found satisfactory the method will be continued and different prices will be paid in accordance with quality and grade.

The county commissioners have just allowed claims for the registrars report to the board of health the births and deaths in their respective districts, for each report receiving twenty-five cents. The state board reports the claims to the county each quarter and the county pays. During the three months ending June 30, there were fifty-two deaths and 141 births reported, the total claims amounting to $49.75, of whiche Dr. J. F. Spealman of Lincoln received

Adjutant General Hall has announced that unless a change of date is found necessary, the annual encampment of the Nebraska national guard will be held at Ashland, August 27 to September 4. This date is chosen because it is the only time regular troops can be present. lesat two companies of regulars will camp with the state froops. An additional $18,000 will be allowed by the government on account of the presence of regular army troops.

Secretary Ludi of the state printing bureau will open bids July 30 on twelve different blennial state reports, ranging in number of copies from 300 to 7,500. A small amount of printing for state institutions and state departments will also be awarded on residence. that date.

Drainage district No. 1, Richardson county, has appealed to the supreme court from a judgment for $7,000 given in favor of A. S. Daggett and others who sued for damages caused by the condemnation of and for right of way for ditches, dikes and levees,

Reports from Sheridan, Box Butte and Brown counties indicate that the potato crop in the northwestern part of th estate will be up to the usual standard. The vines are in healthy condition, the yield good and the crop has come through remarkably free from disease. Sheridan and Box Butte counties are close rivals in the matter of production. Brown county does not grow as many potatoes, but manages to turn out an early product. In Scottsbluff county the potato crop is an important factor. Several days ago the reports indicated a good crop,
