Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by the insertion of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflated with a rubber bulb, the air is forced into the ear, and the hearing is restored. Deafness is the result of catarrh, which is a disease of the mucous membrane of the middle ear. It is caused by colds, influenza, and other diseases of the head. It is a disease that cannot be cured by any of the "cures" sold by druggists. It can only be cured by the use of the "Cure" sold by Dr. H. E. Gordon, 1111 Broadway, New York City. M. B. A. Insurgents Gain Point in Lodge War

The following dispatch in Monday's dailies may be of interest to members of the Modern Brotherhood of America in this place, where one of the largest lodges in the state for the size of the town, exists, or did exist before the present trouble began. Cedar Rapids, Ia., Jan. 10.—Special: Insurgents of the Modern Brotherhood of America have scored again on their "bated rivals," the regulars. They have just been permitted by an order of Judge Milo P. Smith, of the Linn county district court, to examine, without any restriction, all books, accounts and vouchers at the supreme offices of the order at Mason City, Ia. Judge Smith in handing down the decision, took occasion to rap Attorney General Conson and his assistant, Henry Sampson, of Des Moines, for "interfering," as he called it, in the case which was tried here in the district court. He made it plain that he thought the courts here could take care of such matters without outside assistance. For over two years the insurgents have been endeavoring to obtain access to the records of the supreme officers, who, according to the insurgents, have been grossly extravagant in their expenditures. It is declared the regulars have spent about $30,000 in trying to prevent the insurgents from examining the books. James H. Hughes, national president of the insurgents, lives here and so does Louis Carlin, national secretary. Several romping insurgent conventions already have been held here, many of the delegates coming from Minnesota, the Dakotas, Wisconsin and Missouri.

Looking Backward.

Items reproduced in the Sioux City Journal from its files of twenty and forty years ago: January 9, 1895: D. H. Sullivan will be located at Dakota City, where he will be the Nebraska end of the law firm of Linn, Sullivan & Foley. He will be in Sioux City whenever the cases of the firm demand his presence. January 12, 1895: A number of Sioux City people went to Jackson, Neb., to attend the funeral, Thursday, of Mrs. J. M. Brantley, who was formerly a resident of this city.

Your Daily Paper.

Every family wants a daily paper and wants the best one it can get. The State Journal is making a cut price offer of the daily and Sunday paper to be mailed from now until January 1, 1916 for only $4, or without Sunday for $3, providing the order is sent in during December. The awful war makes the newspaper a necessity in many families that never read a daily before. The coming legislature will be of local interest to every Nebraskan, and the general telegraph and news features of The Journal make it the paper you want. Its the kind you can read out loud before all of your family. The advertising is also clean. You save a dollar by sending in this month, besides getting the paper free for the balance of the year. The Journal is constantly making an effort for economy in all public affairs. The Journal stands for the things designed to bestow the greatest good to the greatest number, not as a talking point to secure new readers, but it is daily practicing what it preaches. The Journal is printed early in the morning and reaches nearly all the state towns and rural routes with much later news than papers printed the night before. Send to the State Journal, Lincoln, Neb., and you will receive the paper the remainder of the year free.

Dakota City Boy Scouts.

One feature about Scout work is the daily "Good Turn." During the Christmas vacation a number of good turns were reported. We give a few from the long list. Replaced a blanket that had fallen from a horse; carried a baby for a lady from the street car to her buggy; shared dinner with another boy; gave a poor boy an overcoat; carried suit cases for nothing; ran errand for nothing. These few samples show that our boys are getting the true Scout spirit. Indoor meeting this week at S. A. Stinson's Friday at 7:30. Semaphores signals and Frat Aid. Hike, Saturday morning at 10.

Both the bride and groom were of tender years—17 and 18, respectively—but their parents deemed it advisable not to interfere with their plans. Henry Francisco of near Jackson, was in town Tuesday and left an announcement for a public sale at his place, Tuesday February 9th. Henry has lived at his present location nearly thirty years, and his sale will be one of the largest ever held in the county. Nearly a hundred head of horses and cattle are listed, besides a complete line of machinery and equipment for a first class farm. The Cedar County News, published at Hartington, Nebr, has been sold by Geo W Kelley to E B Hirschman, the retiring county treasurer of that county. The News is one of the best county papers in this section of the state. It is equipped with linotype and all modern equipment. W D Sheardson, who started his newspaper career in this county, will have charge of the mechanical department of the paper. A Chicago dispatch in last week's dailies stated that Mrs Laura T Jay was authority for the statement that Homer A Rodeheaver, choir leader for the great evangelist, Billy Sunday, had agreed to compromise the breach of promise suit recently won by her daughter, Georgia Jay, against the singer, in which Miss Jay was awarded $50,000 heart balm. It was stated that Rodeheaver had offered to settle the affair for $10,000. The fifteenth annual meeting of the Interstate Farmers and Breeders Association will be held in Sioux City at the Martin hotel, Wednesday and Thursday, January 20 and 21. Some of the best speakers on farm topics obtainable will appear on the program. Chas Beerman, Jr of this county is president of the association and will preside over the meeting. International Industrialists will be presented in pictures at the Auditorium each evening, representing the Dawn of Plenty, the Dawn of Power, and the Dawn of Commerce. A banquet at the Martin hotel for the members of the association will be another big feature of the affair. Guy Hileman, son of Mrs S C Hileman of this place, was seriously wounded at his home near Maxbass, ND last Friday by two men who attempted to kill him and take his money. A letter giving the particulars of the shooting was received here Wednesday morning. It stated that he was sitting in his home reading in the evening when a shot was fired through the window, striking him in the head and knocking him down. He recovered sufficiently to put the light out. Another shot was fired through the door which grazed his side. The robbers seeing they had failed in their attempt to kill him fed. Hileman then bound up his wounds with a towel and made his way to a neighbor's house about a mile away. From there a doctor was summoned and he was taken to a hospital at Westhope. The doctors say he will recover if inflammation does not set in. Hileman was single and lived alone on his claim. The men who committed the crime were recognized by him when making the attack, as neighbor boys, bearing tough reputations. They were captured by officers the next morning and are in jail awaiting the result of their victim's injuries.

Brevity may or may not be the "soul of wit," but there is no question in regard to brevity being the soul of conversation nowadays. The aim of the up-to-the-second conversationalist is to cut all corners and get there in the shortest possible time. In days of yore a man was polite under circumstances, no matter how much time it consumed. Then he would say "My dear sir, I desire that you understand thoroughly that I comprehend fully and in all detail the information you are endeavoring to impart to me." Now he says "Gutchal!"
