

Dakota City Grocery

- 3 Cans Corn 25c
2 pkgs Post Toasties 25c
3 Cans of Peas 25c
2 pkgs Corn Flakes 25c
2 large cans Tomatoes 25c
3 qts Cranberries 25c
2 pkge Pettijohns 25c

We have a large assortment of Heavy Men's Underwear, Duck Coats, Wool Blankets, Comforts, and Sweaters that we are closing out at about cost price.

W. L. ROSS

Dakota City, Nebraska

The Farm Survey.

Some time ago a meeting was held in Dakota City, at which Mr. H. F. Williams explained a new line of work known as the farm survey.

The object of the farm survey is to study the systems of farming in order to find the systems best adapted to this country. It finds the systems of farming that are paying best, and also tells why one system is better than another.

Why go hungry when you can get a good lunch between meals at Van de Zedde's, in the Schriever store.

HUGH RAYMOND, County Demonstrator and Agent U. S. Dept. Agriculture.

Plumbing, Heating and Gas Fitting

Estimates Cheerfully Furnished. All work guaranteed.

L. J. O'BRIEN Dakota City, Neb. with Schriever Bros. Hardware

SEED OATS AND SEED CORN

SEED OATS: Haskin's New Alberta, Canada Crown, Bigest, Heaviest, Yielding Oats Known or Grown. Adapted to any soil in the Union.

PATENTS

Anyone sending a sketch and description may quickly ascertain our opinion. Free of charge. We also handle all other leading best varieties.

Local Items

Regular meeting of the Masonic lodge Saturday evening, March 27th.

Barney Gribble is out again, after a week's tussle with the grip.

Jay Robertson is plying the carpenter trade at Spirit Lake, Iowa.

Mound City Paints and Varnishes preserve and beautify—Dakota City Pharmacy.

The Dakota City Commercial club will hold its annual meeting Thursday evening, April 1st.

W. C. Sund has moved with his family to Lyons, Nebr., where he will work on the railroad.

The Salem Missionary Aid will meet Thursday afternoon of this week with Mrs. Adolf Bartels.

Guy Stinson went to St. Paul, Minn., Monday to take a position on the road for a wholesale house.

Why go hungry when you can get a good lunch between meals at Van de Zedde's, in the Schriever store.

Mrs. Mell A. Schmidt was summoned to Lincoln Saturday by the illness of her daughter, Mrs. D. D. Dryden.

Mrs. Ada Petty, of Sioux City, was over Monday and made a trip to her farm south of this place to look after some business matters.

Dakota City Pharmacy has added a full line of magazines and periodicals. Will take subscriptions for anything in this line. Deliveries made promptly.

Mrs. Margaret Barnes came over from Lawton, Ia., Thursday for a short visit at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Sarah C. Hileman, returning Friday evening.

Chas. Borowsky, jr., of Homer, was brought to this place last Wednesday to serve a 10-days' sentence in the county jail for assaulting John Rookwell with a tobacco cutter in a pool hall scarp.

Whatever your views may be on the "wet" or "dry" question, don't fail to vote at the village election.

Lorenzo Partridge, age 40, and Cora L. Rynor, age 40, both of Sioux City, were granted a license to wed on the 18th, and Elias Welch and Jennie Rice, both age 24 and both of Sioux City, secured a license to wed Wednesday.

C. C. Frum, of Winnebago, was an over night visitor here at the home of his son, Sidney T. Frum, last Friday, being enroute home from Pender where he had attended a meeting of the board of county commissioners of Thurston county.

Judge McKinley tied the nuptial knot for the following couples: C. E. Adams, 40, and Bertha A. Hamblin, 32, both of Sioux City, on the 11th; Alexander F. Reid, 28, and May Sullivan, 27, both of Sioux City, on the 18th; Albert L. Muller, 34, and Edith Spencer, 38, and A. L. Hegerheide, 20, and Glee Spencer, 20, on the 20th. The two last named couples hailed from Sioux City, and made a double wedding of the event.

Mrs. Mary Alderman, who made her home here a few years ago with her son-in-law, J. A. VanCamp, a druggist in the Dakota City Pharmacy, died suddenly at the home of her granddaughters, Misses Odus and Vida VanCamp, in Omaha February 17, 1915. She had made her home with her grandchildren since their mother's death in 1905, and took up the double duty of mother and grandmother to the bereaved children with a true christian spirit.

Two petitions have been filed with the village clerk, bearing names of candidates for the office of village trustees. In the matter of the liquor question the lines have been drawn, and the contest will be fought out on this issue.

There are many other matters concerning the welfare of the city that should be considered as well as the liquor question, and a board composed of competent business men, with the interests of the town at heart, should be chosen. The "wets" have named the following candidates: S. W. Foltz, Louis Larson, D. VandeZedde and Carl Schriever. The "drys" have named F. A. Wood, W. L. Ross, Harry H. Adair and S. T. Frum.

Real estate loans. Geo Wilkens.

Frank F. Haase was down from Emerson between trains Sunday.

James King, of Homer, was a business visitor here last Friday.

George Carter, of Omaha, visited here Sunday at the M. O. Ayres home.

Fred Duensing was a visitor in Homer Sunday at the Tom Alloway home.

Painting and paperhanging. Let Brasfield do your housecleaning. Phone 20.

Miss Nellie Leedom has succeeded Miss Ruby VandeZedde as assistant in the telephone office.

Prof C L Culler has been reelected to the position of Superintendent of the Hartington schools.

New cottage in South Sioux City for sale at a bargain. D S Marker, 405 Fourth street, Sioux City.

Chas. H. Ream has been summoned to serve as a juror in the federal court at Omaha April 5th.

A. F. Reed and Miss Mary Sullivan, of Sioux City, were married by Judge S. W. McKinley last Thursday.

A card from George Wilkins, now at Excelsior Springs, Mo., tells us that he is coming along nicely, and is "feeling fine" once more.

Sheriff George Cain was called to Ponca Tuesday as a witness in the case of Dave Marshall, charged with disposing of mortgaged property.

LOST—A white female greyhound, with yellow spots, wore leather collar. Suitable reward by returning to D. M. Neiswanger, Dakota City.

J. A. Patridge and wife departed last week for their home at Twin Falls, Ida., after spending their honeymoon with relatives hereabouts.

The rural carriers are taking a census of their routes, and it is urgently requested that each patron fill the blank slip left in the box for that purpose.

Warren Wilcox of Winnebago, is serving a 90 days' sentence in the county jail for wife desertion, imposed upon him by Judge McKinley last Thursday.

Philo McAfee, of Pigeon creek precinct, was here on business Friday. He had been to Sioux City for a few days' visit with the Dr. S. A. Stinson family, and was enroute home.

D. G. Evans has accepted a position in the C. J. O'Connor store at Winnebago, and began work there Monday. He will move his family there from South Sioux City after school closes.

Frank Sides came home from Lincoln Tuesday, the rooming house where was staying being quarantined with both smallpox and diphtheria. He expects to return to his school work Monday.

Mrs. S. A. Combs and Mrs. Sadie Abbott, of Homer, were guests at the John H. Ream home Saturday night. They went to South Sioux City Sunday for a visit at the Frank Combs home before returning to Homer.

WANTED—A good steady gentlemanly salesman to handle a Ward's wagon in Dakota County. No experience needed. For full particulars write promptly to Dr. Ward's Medical Company, Winona, Minn. Established 1856.

Miss Margaret Murphy has accepted a position in the Dakota City schools, and is teaching the third and fourth grades, succeeding Miss Mary Robertson. The school board is to be congratulated in getting so competent a teacher to fill the vacancy.

George C. Orr goes to Oakland today, Thursday, to attend the sale of fancy cattle held in that place by William Ernst & Sons, of Tecumseh, Neb., whose advertisement appeared in the Herald last week. Mr. Orr has a liking for good cattle and may invest in some of the offerings.

Henry Francisco, who moved with his family from near Jackson to near Royal, Neb., the past week, writes: "We arrived in Royal all safe and like it fine. The three girls started to school this morning, and Frank has started to work in the printing office of the Royal Post, so you know what he is up against. Find enclosed money order for sale advertisement and for the Herald. Will write more next time."

Fire destroyed the C. R. Perry house in the east part of town Wednesday forenoon at about 9 o'clock. A heating stove had been taken down that morning and set in a storeroom, and it is supposed that there was enough fire left in it to start a blaze. The room was a mass of flames when first the fire was discovered, and in minutes the house was gone. Practically everything was saved by those first on the ground. The house was insured for $400, yet it is a severe blow to Mr. Perry.

Boy Scout Notes

Hike next Saturday at 10 a. m. Full uniform.

We are getting along nicely in signaling.

Emil Ansnes, Scout Scribe.

For Sale

Good young team, weight 3,000. Will sell one or both. John B. Evans.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

Will H Orr to Andrew L Peterson, b/k R, Dakota City 100

Edward Crook to Jerry Donous, lot 8, b/k 1, original 80, S. C. 100

W S Gillman and wife, to Andrew Jansson, pt lot 8, 22-29-8. 800

Julia F Kirkwood to A Manning, lots 2 and 3, b/k 1, 1st add to 80, S. C. 1800

Ferdinand J Oehander and wife, to Louis Larson, a lot of ne qe 28 and pt of ne qr of ne qr 28-29-8. 730

Joseph Smith and wife, to Nanette P Alloway, 675 ft lots 1, 2, 3, 4, b/k 2. 250

F A Wood to Wm C Sierk, 68 44, 66 and 66, Dakota City 2500

Theresa Pearl Crowley and Edward N. to James Nelson, nw 1/4 of nw 1/4 11-27-8. 800

Charles L Irons and wife, to Richard P Holst and F J Vollmar, nw 1/4 and 1/2 1/4 11-27-8. 2000

Charles W Biesing and wife, to Henry Clyde, nw 1/4 of sw 1/4 09-29-8. 600

Clyde J Smith to Grover O Davis, lot 4, b/k 1, 1st view. 170

Harry Goodwin and wife, to Fannie Cornish, 1/2 int in lots 1, 2, 3, 10 11 and 12, b/k 18, north add to Emerson. 260

CORRESPONDENCE

HUBBARD.

Mrs. Mundy and daughter, Johanna, were south bound passengers Wednesday morning.

Grandma Hanson visited at the home of her son, C. M. Rasmussen, the first of the week.

Onion sets and all kinds of garden seeds now on hand. C. Anderson Co.

Louis Pedersen has been hauling hay from the swamp the past week.

George and Peter Jensen shipped a car of hogs to Sioux City Wednesday.

Mrs. F. Nelsen visited at the parental home, Monday.

Fish of all kinds for the lenton season at C. Anderson Co's.

Mrs. Henry Wulf, who has been very sick, is getting along very nicely.

Mary Beacom, from near Waterbury, is spending the week visiting at the J. P. Beacom home.

The little son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Sheahan was taken to the hospital to have a growth removed. At present he is getting along nicely.

Dress shirts, ties, and everything you need for the Easter season, at C. Anderson Co's.

J. C. Hartnett was a county seat and Sioux City caller Tuesday.

Dora Smith visited Saturday and Sunday at Dakota City with her sister, Mrs. F. Dierking.

Rubber boots and all kinds of rubber footwear at C. Anderson Co's.

Mrs. Louis Larsen and children returned last week from an extended visit with Mrs. Larsen's parents at Emerson.

Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Johnson have moved onto the Ryan farm west of town.

We carry a splendid line of overalls and work shirts in the best grades. C. Anderson Co.

Agusta Larsen and Gine Andesen, and Mr. and Mrs. Len Harris and son Herbert, were city passengers Tuesday.

C. M. Rasmussen and wife, H. Nelsen and wife, and F. Nelsen and wife spent Sunday in Sioux City.

Bring us your produce, butter and eggs, and get the highest market value. C. Anderson Co.

Word was received here Tuesday that Paddy Farrell had died. Mr. Farrell is an uncle of Mrs. John Green and Mike and Pat Farrell.

Mrs. Joe Hagan was in Sioux City last Thursday and Friday. Her daughter Mary accompanied her home, remaining over Sunday.

Millar's coffee—the best brand of coffee that money can buy—always in stock at C. Anderson Co's.

Peter Larsen and Chris Rasmussen were city callers Monday.

Frank Lussier was a south bound passenger Tuesday evening.

See us for anything in the grocery line, at right prices. C. Anderson Co.

Fred Bartels shipped two cars of sheep Tuesday.

Hubbard was well represented in Jackson on St. Patrick's day.

Mrs. Pat Duggan and Mrs. Bill Rooney were city shoppers one day last week.

See our "Boss" oil cookstove, 3-hole burner, the most economical, clean and satisfactory oil stove in the market. C. Anderson Co.

Carl Fredrickson, who disappeared from here a year ago while serving as postmaster, and whose accounts were found about $1,000 short, was arrested by the federal authorities in Wakonda, S. D., last week and taken to Omaha for trial. He pleaded guilty and was sentenced to one year and a day in the penitentiary at Leavenworth, Kas., where he was taken this week by U. S. Marshal W. F. Warner, to serve his term.

JACKSON.

Chas. H. O'Neill, of Sioux City, had business here the last of the week.

John Waters returned to Lohrville, Ia., last Friday, after a few days' visit with the home folks.

Mary Moore spent over last Thursday night in the J. J. McCarthy home at Ponca.

Thos D. Jones had a load of hogs on the market one day last week, and Thos Hodgus and A. H. Anderson had a load of cattle.

W. A. Brown and family are moving to a farm Mr. Brown has rented near Hawarden, Ia. He and family had just got settled on J. M. Barry's farm east of town but he was offered better inducements in Iowa, hence the move.

Bennetta Lamb, who teaches near Akron, Ia., is home for the spring vacation.

The members of the Embroidery club were entertained at the home of Mrs. C. J. Goodfellow Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. G. E. Brown, of Goodwin, is here this week helping care for her grandmother, Mrs. Becky Garner, who is recovering from illness.

Dr. Bilou, eye specialist, will be in Jackson next Monday.

Frances McCormick, who teaches at Albion, Neb., arrived here Sunday for the Easter vacation. She has been reappointed for the coming year.

It is rumored another pool hall will open here shortly in the Clark building.

The forty hours devotion began in the Catholic church here Sunday and closed Tuesday evening. The exercises were well attended. Father O'Sullivan was assisted by Rev. Fr. Ralph Broehony, of Sioux City, Rev. Fr. McCarthy, of Vista, and Rev. Fr. O'Tool, of Neweastle.

Mrs. Jas. Nolan and children, of Struble, Ia., are visiting relatives here and at Vista.

James Henderson and family, who moved to Brookings, S. D., a few weeks ago, are nicely settled, so Mr. Henderson said, who returned here last week and intends to stay a few months to look after a car of cattle he has here on feed. Louis Perrault left for Brookings Saturday to look after Mr. Henderson's farm.

HOMER.

Miss Nadine Sheperdson was a week end guest at the Jacob Leamer home near Dakota City.

Word came to relatives here Wednesday that Elias Shook had passed to the great beyond at Hot Springs, S. D. Mr. Shook was a resident of this and Thurston counties for many years. His first wife died some years ago and he married a second time. This wife survives him.

Miss Mary Benz was a guest at the T. D. Curtis home Wednesday and Thursday and took in the masquerade ball.

Chas Borowsky's family have moved in with the Will O'Dell family. Mrs. Mary Harris has moved into the house vacated by Borowsky. The Baker family have the house vacated by Mrs. Harris.

Eph Boswell is fixing up his store building until they say it shines to beat the band. There is where Mr. Ebel expects to make his headquarters with wall paper, paint, etc.

Andy Alloway is getting his store building in first class shape for an office and residence for our new dentist who will move his family here as soon as the building is ready.

Miss Nadine Sheperdson took teachers examination at Dakota City Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Holsworth were called to Sioux City Thursday to be at the bedside of Mrs. Holsworth's step-mother who was dangerously ill.

Mrs. L. J. Herman, of St. Paul, has been visiting her father M. J. Herman, for the past week and fixing up his rooms.

Mrs. S. W. McKinley, of South Sioux City, spent most of last week with relatives in Homer and took in the masquerade.

Mrs. Andy Alloway went to Dakota City Wednesday to visit her mother, Mrs. Nannie Altman, and other relatives, returning Sunday.

The St. Patrick social at the Hi-roto home was a success in numbers and financially.

Mrs. Hogan and Mrs. Keckler were guests at the Marven Armour home a couple of days last week.

Mrs. Chas. Ostmyer and little daughter, of Morningside, were weekend guests at the Henry Ostmyer home.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Madsen were dinner guests at the Henry Ostmyer home Sunday.

Mrs. Thompson was an incoming passenger from the north Sunday.

The Misses Cora and Matilda Larsen were incoming passengers from Sioux City Sunday.

Miss Gertrude Backlund, of Morningside, was a home visitor between trains Sunday.

Miss Mattie McKinley, of Sioux City, was a guest at the B. McKinley home between trains Sunday.

The Danjah Lutheran preacher of Howell, Ia., was in Homer Sunday to hold services.

Miss Majorie McKinley made her weekly trip to Sioux City Friday for her music lesson returning Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hogan were week end visitors with friends at Morningside.

Mrs. Sadie Grimstead, the Misses Mayme, Bessie and Julia Holsworth went to Sioux City Monday to attend their grandmother's funeral.

Miss Margaret Smith went to Dakota City Saturday to take teachers examination.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hogan returned from Morningside Monday.

John Bubb was down from South Sioux City Monday.

Alfred Pizay was a Homer visitor from Sioux City Monday.

Mr. Purdy, of Omaha, is here looking after his farm interest.

Thomas Ashford departed Sunday for New York City.

Mrs. Chas. Bristol is enjoying a visit from her brother, one of the Hunter boys.

Mrs. R. J. Smith died Saturday at her home, 457 R. 1st street, Sioux City, aged 53 years, of acute Bright's disease. Funeral services were held from her late residence Monday at 1 o'clock p. m., Rev. R. E. Stevens of the First Baptist church officiating, interment being in Graceland Park cemetery. She leaves besides her husband the following relatives, who were present at the funeral: George and wife and Ward Smith of Paulena, Ia.; Leon Smith and wife of Onawa, Ia.; Chas. Holsworth and wife of Homer, Neb.; Mrs. A. B. Cook of Almond, Wis.; D. C. Wood, Kansas City, Mo.; Miss Homer Wood, Des Moines, Ia.; Miss Adella Wood, Minneapolis, Minn. She is also survived by her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Wood and a sister, Miss Grace Wood of Pasadena, Cal.; Will Wood of Los Angeles, a brother, and Mrs. R. E. Dingman, a sister, of Los Angeles, who were unable to be present. The floral offerings were beautiful, the Armour Packing Co. sending very beautiful pieces and there were many other beautiful pieces from relatives and friends. Her husband will be remembered as a lodge promoter in Homer a few years ago. He is now employed as a book-keeper at Armour's. They were residents of South Sioux City a few years ago.

DOMESTIC

Now $2 A MONTH

We will take your Old Machine if you wish

Domestic Sewing Machine

The perfect sewing machine that has always led all other makes and is today leading them over.

Abstracts of Title

A $10,000 Surety Bond

Dakota County Abstract Co.

Bonded Abstracters

J. J. EIMERS

STINSON'S

Specials for Saturday, Mar. 27

- 1 lb Boneless Cod 12c
1 10 lb pail Lake Shore Herring 85c
1 lb fresh Headless Drawn Pickerel 15c
Shoulder Roasts, per lb 14c
Best Boiling Meat per lb 12 1/2c
1 doz Frosted Cookies 5c
1 pkg Sterilized Wheat Meal 13c
1 Lead Pencil with Holder 5c
2 lbs English soft shelled Walnuts 45c
1 sack Puritan Flour $2.15
1 pk nice Ben Davis Apples 40c
1 stalk nice leaf Lettuce 5c
1 bunch new Radishes 5c
3 pkgs Yeast Foam 10c

Our new shoes, ginghams and percales have arrived. Ladies patent leather shoes $3.50

Stinson's Dakota City, Nebraska

Public Sale!

Scotch and Scotch Topped Dairy Short-Horns and Percheron Stallions and Mares

To be held at OAKLAND, BURT COUNTY NEBR.

Thursday, March 25th Beginning at 1:00 O'clock P. M.

40 head of Choicest Cattle Ever Owned by Wolf Creek Stock Farm. Famous for its Dual Purpose—Shorthorns and Draft Horses.

WM. ERNST & SON, Tecumseh, Nebr. Co's. H. S. Duncan and Ed. Askwig, Auctioneers.

California Expositions

A Travel Opportunity—Two Great Fairs a Trip Through California and the journey full of interesting features

Via Puget Sound Dakota City $74.45

Via Chicago and North Western Line to Omaha or Kansas City and fast through trains to San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego, or El Paso, not through Texas. Go one way, Return another.

Take a Map and Plan These Trips The two Expositions, low fares and routes available, offer travel opportunities of a lifetime

SPECIAL EXPOSITION FOLDER UPON REQUEST B. C. BUCHANNAN, Agent, Dakota City, Neb. G. H. MacRae, Gen. Pass'g. Agt, St. Paul, Minn.

Abstracts of Title Successor to Dakota County Abstract Co. Bonded Abstracters J. J. EIMERS