Some excellent work was done last Friday afternoon—clean-up day—by the Commercial club and the city schools. While the majority of the residents of the town had already cleaned up their premises, there was still enough left to keep the force busy all the afternoon, and then they did not get around to all the places that needed attention. This annual spring clean-up—like an annual bath—is a mighty good thing in a way, yet it would be much better if the people would tidy up a little oftener and not make a wholesale job of it.

SPRINGTIME.

There will be joy and beauty everywhere When the hills and valleys and woodlands bare Change to verdure green from the barren gray.

When nature awakens in joyful May, The forest and plain, the glen and the glade Will be clothed in green of many a shade. There'll be flowers of every color and hue, Their petals jeweled with pearliest dew—

The fragrant air then by soft breezes fanned, The birds will return to the green woodland In leafy bowers to gather a throng To praise their creator with joyful song.

The placid lakes, bordered by woodlands green, Reflecting blue skies and clouds silvery sheen, The babbling brook and the eddying streams, Sparkling crystal like to greet the sunbeams Transfixed in their course, from leafy boughs free, Gleefully hurrying on to the sea, E'er to aid in the perpetuation, Eternal harmony of creation. Such wonders of nature ever revealed, The mountains and plains, streams, forest and field, Created in this terrestrial space Either for usefulness, beauty and grace!

Butterflies, birds, the exemplified bees, The flowers and plants, the towering trees, The green turf beneath, the blue sky above, Each and all proclaim the Creator's love.

Awakening of nature that dormant lay, Comes forth in beauty in playful May, When the hills and valleys and woodlands bare Are transformed to scenes so wondrous fair —Mary W. Voss.

THIRTY THOUSAND INFANTS SAVED

Let the Good Work Continue! Says Pastor Russell. Presbyterians Lead in Theological Progress—Will Not Other Denominations Co-operate?—What Can Be Done For the Non-elect and Non-regenerate Infants of the Past? Pastor Russell Not Able to Agree, Although Sympathetic—His View of the Matter as Outlined in the Bible.

London, August 3.—A Bible Students Convention has been in progress here for several days in the London Tabernacle, Lancaster Gate, W. Pastor Russell delivered two addresses today. We report one of them, from the text, "Else were your children unholy, but now are they holy."—1 Corinthians 7:14.

The Pastor declared his text was probably the basis of much of the prevailing confusion on the subject of infant salvation and infant damnation. Before discussing his text, he wished to call attention to a very advanced theological step recently taken by the Presbyterian General Assembly in the United States. According to telegraphic dispatches, it had altered the Confession of Faith so as to save non-elect infants as well as elect ones.

The thought that God had arranged a plan whereby some infants would go to Heaven at death, and other infants to eternal torture, has for centuries troubled the minds of all Christians—Catholic and Protestant. Some said that elect infants would be saved, and non-elect infants tortured. Others held that baptised infants would be saved, and other infants not baptised, or sprinkled, would go to eternal torture. Others held that none could be saved without regeneration; and these, being perplexed as to how infants could be regenerated, could hardly have any hope of infant salvation. For centuries good people have suffered terribly because of these confused ideas.

The Pastor then showed how foolish all these theories seem when contrasted with the simple and beautiful teaching of Scripture that the salvation of all—young and old, of heathen lands as well as Christian—is through the resurrection power of Messiah's Kingdom. He then said, Why should we trouble longer with the errors of the Dark Ages, when God's Word is now shining so brightly?

Unable to Agree. Pastor Russell declared that he felt great sympathy for the move of the Presbyterian brethren; but nevertheless, he could not agree with their conclusions, believing that the Bible teaches otherwise. He realized that the Presbyterian view of Election made it difficult for them to deal with the non-elect, both adults and infants. He found Scriptures declaring that God is selecting the Church from amongst the world. He conceded that those not elect would properly be called non-elect. But he found nothing in the Bible to indicate that non-election to joint-heirship in Messiah's Kingdom means predestination to an eternity of torture.

Many have been consigning adults and infants to the number of 90,000 every day (30,000 infants daily), or 32,000,000 every year, to eternal torture, because non-elect, unregenerate or unbaptised. Surely all intelligent people are out of accord with such a proposition. Surely some great mistake has been made during the Dark Ages, and God has been slandered.

The Pastor then demonstrated that God is the very personification of Wisdom, Justice, Love and Power; whereas as a God who would forfeit 32,000,000 beings per year to pass to an eternity of torture would be, not a God, but the most terrible devil imaginable. Bible students are realizing that the Bible teaches nothing of the kind we understand open, they appreciate the Divine character as never before.

All Condemned Need Redemption. After reminding his hearers that according to Scripture we are saved by faith, not by being infants, the Pastor showed conclusively from the Bible that although infants share in Adam's death sentence and have provision in Jesus' redemptive work, nevertheless they can be saved only by coming to a knowledge of God and Jesus, and then exercising faith and obedience to the extent of ability. His position seems undebatable.

The speaker then reviewed the Bible teaching that all mankind sinned in Adam, and came under the Divine curse, or sentence of death—no eternal torment. "In due time Christ died for the ungodly"—those who lived before His crucifixion and those born since. Because of this general redemption, co-extensive with the curse, there is to be a resurrection out of sin and death conditions back to perfection of life. Only those who intelligently reject this grace of God will die the Second Death.

Meantime, all—infants and adults—at death go to Sheol, Hades, the tomb, there to await the resurrection Morning—Messiah's Kingdom. Then the dead shall come forth from the tomb—"every man in his own order."

Where Are You Going This Summer?

Not everybody can go to California; the summer will bring thousands from the East to the ranch resorts and hotels of scenic Colorado, the Black Hills, the Big Horn Mountains, the Abasoka Mountain ranges beyond Cody. THE NATIONAL PARKS—This is going to be a big season for Glacier and Yellowstone National Parks, and for Estes Park, Colo., just north of Denver, adjoining the new Rocky Mountain National Park. The increased number of Eastern visitors to these western summer localities during the summer of 1914 showed the "grip" that the glorious summer life of the mountains was taking with Eastern people.
