PRESIDENT IN NOTE TO ENGLAND SAYS KEEP HANDS OFF AMERICAN TRADE.

ACTS ARE CALLED ILLEGAL

Protest Sent From Washington Expected to Reach London This Week—Couched in Most Vigorous Language Yet Used.

Washington, Nov. 2.—Couched in more emphatic language than any yet employed is the American note to be presented to Great Britain this week protesting against violations of American maritime rights and demanding that further interference with our trade shall cease.
The United States declares:
1. That its sovereign rights have been invaded by the limitations, risks and liabilities imposed by Great Britain upon the ships of neutral powers.
2. That the procedure observed by Great Britain under the various orders in council is illegal.
3. That the British blockade, as described in the orders in council and applied thereunder, is not binding because it is not effective.
4. That the blockade is ineffective in that it discriminates between the trade of neutral nations.
5. That the effect of British operations is to blockade neutral countries, which, of course, is in violation of international law.
6. That British practice subjects neutral ships proceeding to neutral ports to the same suspicion of guilt which attaches to neutral ships bound for ports of enemies of Great Britain.
7. That British practice results in the seizure of innocent goods exported by Germany through neutral territory to neutral states and exported by neutral states through neutral territory to Germany.
8. That British practice in interfering with trade between neutral countries is not only illegal but unfairly conducted.
9. That British practice imposes the burden of proof of innocence upon neutral shippers, whereas the burden of proof of guilt should rest upon the captor.
10. That the method observed by British cruisers in taking neutral ships into port for visit and search works hardship upon the neutral owners and shippers and is not in accordance with the requirements of international law.
11. That the contraband list as expanded from time to time by Great Britain is arbitrary and in violation of recognized practice.
12. That British interpretation and application of the doctrine of continuous voyage is not in accordance with the interpretation and application of the doctrine by the North during the Civil war.
It is fully expected the British government will make some concessions as a result of the impending representations, but it is not believed that the underlying features of its policy will be substantially modified.

OPEN ROAD TO TURKEY 27 DIE IN SCHOOL FIRE

TEUTONIC FORCES JOIN BULGARIANS IN SERBIA. CHILDREN BURNED OR CRUSHED IN MAD RUSH.

Peabody, Mass., Oct. 30.—Fire swept through the three-story brick building occupied by the St. John's parochial school, burning or driving to death in the panic that followed the alarm 27 of the 600 boys and girls who a few minutes before had assembled for their daily lessons on Thursday.
Twenty bodies have been recovered from the ruins. Twelve of these bodies were removed from the vestibule, where the jam of terrified little ones had resulted in the greatest loss of life. Many others were injured in their flight down the stairways and a few jumped from the windows of the third floor.
The first alarm brought a hundred distracted mothers to the schoolyard, where soon they were joined by other relatives of the pupils, until the building was surrounded by a great crowd of hysterical men and women, who rushed the police lines in a wild effort to reach their children. The police were powerless to stop the rush, but what they failed to do was accomplished presently by the flames, which shooting from the windows of the building, held back the throng.
The students, who ranged in years from seven to thirteen, were in charge of 16 sisters. When the fire started the sisters marshaled their charges for a fire drill and started them from the building.
Suddenly there was a cry of fear from one of the throng, and panic ensued. The smaller children fell under the feet of those behind them, and soon the vestibule was so jammed with living and dead that the firemen could not force an entrance. The 16 sisters escaped.
The origin of the fire remained in doubt. Michael Dunn, who lives near the school, said he heard a muffled explosion.
A large percentage of the pupils were children of foreign parentage, in the number were many of Irish and Italian descent.
