Edwin Morgan

Republican Candidate for County Commissioner
 Dakota County, Nebr.
 Mr. Morgan served as County Commissioner for six years, and during that time he never once missed a meeting of the board; in other words, was neither absent nor tardy. He made no enemies, except in standing for the interests of the county, and if elected will give you the same prompt and efficient service as before. He will be a commissioner for the whole county, not for one particular locality.

SIDNEY T. FRUM

Republican candidate for re-election to the office of County Attorney. I solicit your vote and support on my past record as an officer.

Chief Justice
 Andrew M. Morrissey
 Non-Partisan Candidate to Succeed Himself.

The Judiciary has been taken out of politics. Judges are not nominated by political parties, but are voted for on a separate non-partisan ballot.
 Judge Morrissey's work as Chief Justice has been heartily commended by those having business before the Supreme Court. In the April primaries the voters showed their appreciation of his efforts by giving him a splendid majority. Out of 93 counties he received a majority of 80; and in the whole state he received 9,993 more votes than were cast for any other candidate for Chief Justice. He is in vigorous health, in the prime of life; has demonstrated his fitness for the position, and for these reasons you are asked to help elect him to succeed himself.

For the first time in a good many years the administration has called upon the postmasters throughout the land to "divvy up" part of their salary to help re-elect a president.
 This act places them in the degenerate pie-counter brigade, and makes a worse farce than ever of the civil service, which was inaugurated to remove the postoffice from politics.
 But no—they need the money, and must surely need it badly.

A fellow giving the name of Reed was arrested at Homer last Friday by Constable Louis Goodsell, on a charge of horse stealing. It is alleged that Reed had stolen three teams of horses from Indians on the reservation, and had disposed of two of them to parties near Remsen, Ia.
 He was left here over Sunday in charge of Sheriff Geo. Cain by the sheriff of Thurston county, while he went to Remsen to look up evidence in the case.

G. F. Broyhill left Sunday evening for Scottsville, Kas., where, on Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock he was united in marriage to Miss Effie May Moats. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's Joe Stecher, Nebraska's famous wrestler, is the latest convert to the prohibition cause and at Dodge, Neb., the other day, he said these words: "I am for a dry Nebraska.

 I have never touched intoxicating liquor. Any man who uses it is foolish. The younger generation of Bohemians see the evil of the saloon and they are going to vote against it." Joe Stecher's words will carry more weight with certain classes of young Nebraskans, who have placed him on a pedestal, than anything that could be said. Stecher's progress on the mat is due to abstemious living, and that living does not include the use of liquor. His adherence to the dry side of the question is worth banking on—Nebraska City

SCHOOL NOTES.
 By Clarence Linton.

The first primary children are studying Hiawatha in their language work. The hand work correlates with this work. On the sand table the children have a representation of Hiawatha's home.

The first primary department will celebrate Halloween Tuesday afternoon after recess by a short program.

The fifth and sixth grades have organized two literary societies known as the "Stars" and "Crescents." It is the purpose of these clubs to give two programs each month.

Mrs. Ed Frederick and son, Edgar, visited the fifth and sixth grades Friday.

The sixth grade wrote on "Dry Nebraska," Monday after hearing the talk in the high school by Mrs.
 Rood. The following written by Alfred Bierman is one of the compositions: "R. W. Emerson says, "The first wealth is health," and by this he means that young people can have health, which helps to secure positions when they grow older by not using alcoholic poisons or tobacco. Fruits are not harmful when used in the right way, but they are often used in the wrong way. Apple juices are made into cider, cherry juices into brandy, and grape juices into wine. Grain is a good food if made into bread, as bread makes muscle, strength, development, happiness. But if made into beer it gives fat, weakness, decay and sorrow. The Nebraska penitentiary has many criminals and three-fourths of them are there on account of alcohol and fifty per cent of them under the age of twenty-five years. Drunkenness has caused 10,000 murders in a year. Tuberculosis germs enter the body more easily when a person has been drinking alcoholic drinks. There are three times as many people die from alcohol per year than in a year during the civil war. If tobacco is used among school boys their brain is not as clear and they soon grow dull. That is the reason more girls finish school than boys, as girls do not have that bad habit. Profanity is another evil which is often used when a person drinks. When anyone is hired he is supposed to have clear brains and steady hands. He cannot have either if he uses tobacco. A tobacco heart is very nervous and does not beat steady. We can help others in this great work by going to them kindly and telling them the horrors of drinking and smoking. They will consider it true because they have read it in books and can see what it has done for others. We want Nebraska dry because we want better men, for by having good men we can have a good, clean state, so let us vote Nebraska dry."

All of the school except the primary department gathered together in the high school room Monday morning to hear a temperance talk by Mrs. Rood, organizer and field worker for the W. C. T. U.

Some special plans are being made for a parade of the school on election day. Some good songs and yells are being practised in school.

 mer Penmanship Company, spent a tions were given to our teachers in ned for Friday afternoon, November 3, which will deal with different phases of election.

M. E. Church Notes.

Our "Home-coming Gathering" will be held on Sunday and Monday next. The services on Sunday will be at the usual hour, 11 a. m. and 8 p. m. We are doing our utmost to secure one of the former pastors to preach, but at present we are unable to make any statement. In the event of our failing to secure one of them the pastor will preach. We are very anxious that all who have been associated with us in any way should try to be at one of the services. We are sending out invitations to many of our Lutheran friends in the hope that they will join us at the social gathering Monday.

We would call special attention to the gathering at 7:30 p. m. on Monday. This is to be of a social, get together nature, to talk over old times and think a little of the future.
 A program is arranged to help toward a pleasant evening, and the ladies will serve refreshments.
 Everybody in Dakota City and its neighborhood is invited to be present.

Will the friends who contribute to the support of the church please note our new arrangements. The treasurer is now H. H. Adair, and all checks for pastoral support should be made to him. It will greatly facilitate matters if all money is handled in direct to the bank. The pastor is no longer paid in dribs and drabs, but on the first of the month the amount is placed in his credit at the bank. It can be readily seen how great an improvement this method is upon the old no-method.

F. J. AUCOCK, Pastor.

J. P. ROCKWELL

 County Assessor

Mr. Rockwell was born in Indiana in 1858; came to Nebraska in 1869 and has lived in Dakota county since that date. He was twice elected sheriff of Dakota county. He has also had considerable experience in assessing, having assessed Oradell precinct twice, Pigeon Creek precinct once, and Dakota precinct twice, which gives him the experience necessary to properly conduct the office. The election of Mr. Rockwell will insure the people of Dakota county that the very important office of County Assessor will be well taken care of.

Vote for J. P. Rockwell.

Political Jottings

The Wilson Keynote.
 In his kneeling to the demands of the trainmen, in his sacrifice of the sacred principle of arbitration on the altar of peace-at-any-price, we see, in review, the whole philosophy of the Wilson theory of government and nationality.

"It is better to run than to fight." That theory is at work in American government today for the first time.— Boston Journal.

The Wilson Waltz.
 In view of recent events the following formula overheard on a hotel veranda may be of interest: The Wilson waltz, one step forward, three steps backward, hesitate, then sidestep.

The Administration is depressed by the reflection that under no circumstances can it postpone election day.

Wilson insists that he will never recognize government by assassination, but he hasn't cut off relations with those who have assassinated Americans.

The first President and the first Congress that ever submitted to a hold-up.

And, by the way, nobody will ever be able to claim this was a regular Democratic Administration unless we have a bond issue before March 4, 1917.

Betting on Hughes and Wilson is dangerous both to Democrats and Republicans. In one of the New England states such a bet was made a few days ago. The officers heard of it and they arrested the Republican on a charge of robbery and sent the Democrat to an insane asylum. Be careful.

One thing we must all admit.
 The President is never too proud to sidestep.

A surplus of $5,200,000 from the postal service during the fiscal year ending June 30, is reported by Postmaster-General Burleson. With the department more than paying expenses, it would seem that the executive officials could afford to keep on the payroll members of the National Guard, who responded when the President called out the Organized Militia for duty on the border.

President Wilson seems to have founded his diplomacy on a rock which is off its base most of the time.

The Eastern witsmiths persist in referring to the Secretary of the Navy as Miss Josephine Daniels. No wonder the Woman's Party is camping on the trail of the Administration!

Mr. Wilson forgot to mention the pledges of economy in the 1912 platform.

"In his diplomacy," says Ollie James, "the President has sounded a new note." What, another one?

It begins to appear that that single-track mind will have to be temporarily double-tracked. A few weeks hence, of course, it will be side-tracked.

WILSON FORMERLY ASSAIL-ED THE LABOR UNION.

The President is now a candidate for office and speaks well of labor. Until he became a candidate for office, and as long as he was President of a University, he, with entire safety, ignored or assailed the Labor Unions, indeed, he was then their bitter, ungenerous, and often unjust critic. At the People's Forum on February 25, 1905, he said: "Labor Unions drag the highest man to the level of the lowest." In an address at a dinner in the Waldorf-Astoria on March 18, 1907, in speaking of the capitalists, he said: "There is another equally formidable enemy to equality and betterment of opportunity, and that is the class formed by the labor organizations and leaders of this country." In a letter written January 12, 1909, he said: "I am a fierce partisan of the open shop." In June of the same year, speaking at Princeton, he said: "The usual standard of the employe in our day is to give as little as he may for his wages. Labor is standardized by the trades unions and this is the standard to which it is made to conform. I need not point out how economically disastrous such a regulation of labor is. The labor of America is rapidly becoming unprofitable under this regulation. Our economic supremacy may be lost because the country grows more and more full of unprofitable servants." I have no question that when Mr. Wilson thus spoke he expressed his sincere convictions. Less than two years later he was in public life and immediately his attitude changed. There is no reason to believe that his convictions changed.— From the Speech of Colonel Roosevelt at Battle Creek, Michigan, in Behalf of Mr.
 Hughes.
