Items of Interest Gleaned from Our Exchanges

Fender Republic: Attorney R. E. Evans was here the past week in attendance at the session of the district court.

Maskell Items in Newcastle Times: G. C. Hangman, of Jackson, Neb., called on his old friend, G. W. Dickson, Sunday afternoon.

Osmond Republican: Mrs. B. S. Leedom, Mrs. R. E. Thomas, and Mrs. Fred Fry, of McLean, accompanied Mrs. Earl Kiernan as far as Sioux City today on her return to her home at Aurelia, Ia.

Newcastle Times: Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cornell and children went to South Sioux City Monday noon. Mrs. Cornell and children will visit her parents, while Fred will go to Colome, S. D., to look after his farm.

Sioux City Journal, 29: An x-ray photograph late yesterday was taken of the injured hand of Fred Barrett, of Jackson, Neb., who was injured recently when his hand was caught in a machine while doing some excavating work near Jackson. The hand was badly crushed.

Ponca Journal: Mr. and Mrs.

Mr. Farmer—Mr. Consumer YOU PAY THE FREIGHT

Your interests have been imperilled because you have not been consulted. Congress put through the Adamson railroad law under pressure of the President. That law is not even an 8-hour law—it is simply a law increasing wages of trainmen, who threatened a strike if they didn't get an increase. It merely provides that ten hours' pay shall be given for eight hours' work, thus increasing the pay of engine and trainmen 25 per cent. Under a U. S. statute now in force these engine and trainmen may work 16 hours a day. Thus, an engineer getting $60 an hour will receive under the Adamson law $76.00 for a day of 16 hours, where now he gets but $12.80.

The railroads say this increase in wages will amount to $100,000,000 per year; the railway unions insist that the increase will be but $60,000,000 per year.

But this is not all. The engine and trainmen are but 20 per cent of the railroad employees, and now the other 80 per cent are preparing to demand equal treatment.

President Wilson has said that this increase in wages, if necessary, shall be taken care of by an increase in freight rates, and, of course, an increase in freight rates will be necessary. In fact, the Adamson law not only purports to reimburse the railroads in this manner, but the railroads can be depended upon to get more.

Nebraska is in the middle of the continent and no State has a longer haul to the Atlantic or the Pacific; therefore is it not evident that this bill is of vital importance to every farmer and consumer in Nebraska, as these, and not the railroads, are the ones who are to pay the cost? For years Nebraska farmers fought for lower freight rates, and succeeded. Now we are going back to the old ways, with a prospect that rates will be higher than ever before in the history of the State.

Farmers and consumers of Nebraska, you remember how you have struggled to get the rates you are entitled to. Are you going to submit to this new imposition—this action of the President and Congress to undo your work of years?

pays $400 a year for use of the bridge for placing its wires on the structure, and the service company pays 5 cents for each person carried over the bridge in its trolley cars.

Judge Fawcett the Man

Judge Jacob Fawcett of the supreme court is a candidate for election as its chief justice. Judge Fawcett is regarded by the Nebraska bar as a man of the highest integrity and one of the most able jurists who ever served on the high bench of Nebraska. Judge Fawcett is distinctly a self-made man, having worked his own way to a legal education. His exceptional talents were soon recognized at the bar, resulting in his election as a district judge of the Omaha district, later confirmed by re-election, making a continuous service of eight years. Judge Fawcett was appointed to the supreme bench in December, 1908, was elected to a full term in 1909, which he is just completing, and is a candidate now for election as chief justice on a non-partisan ballot. No higher compliment can be paid Judge Fawcett than to restate a truth universally known to the legal profession of the state: That he is everywhere regarded as fearless, unbiased and capable in the highest degree. His election as chief justice will be both a warrant and a guarantee that the work of the court will be expedited to the fullest degree consistent with careful and scholarly consideration of the issues presented. Judge Fawcett's record on the bench fully bears out this well-earned reputation.

ROY ARMOUR

Of Hubbard, Nebr., republican candidate for county commissioner from the 2nd district. Mr. Armour is a young man, full of vigor, exceptionally well fitted to handle the duties and questions arising in this office. As a matter of integrity, he would rather suffer defeat at your hands than to have you think that he would be partial or biased in any official transaction if elected. His aim will be to stand for the county's interests first, last and all of the time. He solicits your support on that platform.

Edwin Morgan

Republican Candidate for County Commissioner

Dakota County, Nebr.

Mr. Morgan served as County Commissioner for six years, and during that time he never once missed a meeting of the board; in other words, was neither absent nor tardy. He made no enemies, except in standing for the interests of the county, and if elected will give you the same prompt and efficient service as before. He will be a commissioner for the whole county, not for one particular locality.

Len Priest spent Sunday at the Don Kinkead home. . . . Guy Anderson and sister, Millie, of Hubbard, Neb., are visiting their brother, Art, here. . . . Mrs. Henry Snyder is spending today at the home of her parents in South Sioux City. She will return home this evening.

Lyons Miaror: William Sears and wife, of Walthill, came down to attend the funeral of Louis Anderson. Mr. Sears has been promoted to house mover and helped to move one of the Dakota county landmarks on the Carl Larsen farm southwest of Homer, on Battle creek. The house he moved was built by Tony Larson's grandfather many years ago. Tony, it will be remembered, was one of Lyons' graduates.

Ponca Advocate: Mrs. M. N. Lattin, of Dakota City, visited her daughter, Mrs. Ben Hall, over last Sunday. . . . Rev. Chas. F. Lusher, of South Sioux City, will conduct a union service at the Presbyterian church Sunday evening, October 29, 7:30 p. m., in behalf of the dry interests. There will be no evening service at the English Lutheran and

M. E. church because of this. Everyone is urged to be present.

Tekamah Herald: At the Methodist parsonage Tuesday afternoon Rev. D. W. McGregor officiated at the marriage of Robert C. Mundy, of Hubbard, Neb., and Miss Elizabeth Geigax, of Sioux City, Ia. The young people will reside at Hubbard where Mr. Mundy is employed by the government. . . . The pastor and official board of the First M. E. church of Dakota City, have invited Rev. McGregor to preach at the "Home Coming Services" there next Sunday. Rev. McGregor was pastor at Dakota City for three years and the request is unanimous from his old friends and the pastor.

Sioux City Journal, 28: Mrs. Jacob Leamer returned to her home in Dakota City, Neb., yesterday, after spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. Phillip Gregory. . . . Miss Katherine Kline departed last evening for Dakota City, Neb., where she will visit over the weekend with her sister, Mrs. S. H. Bridenbaugh. . . . Miss Inez Jones and Raymond Jones, sister and brother, were principles in a double elopement to Dakota City, Neb., Thursday afternoon in which Miss Jones became the wife of Neil Dickson and Mr. Jones took as a bride Miss Hilred Harnett, of South Sioux City. The double ceremony was performed by County Judge S. W. McKinley. The young people, all former students of the high school, attempted to keep their marriage a secret. They confirmed the marriage when friends confronted them. The trip to Dakota City was made by motor car. Mrs. Dickson and Mr. Jones are the daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Jones,

1506 Isabella street. Mr. Dickson is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dickson, 1520 Rebecca street. The ages of the young couples as given to Judge McKinley were: Mr. Dickson 22; Miss Jones 19; Mr. Jones, 23; Miss Harnett 19. . . . Bondholders of the Combination Bridge company have received a dividend of 57.6 cents on the dollar, according to the final report made yesterday by F. L. Eaton, receiver of the bridge, to Federal Judge Henry T. Reed. With the acceptance of the report Mr. Eaton was discharged as receiver and the affairs of the bridge company were closed in the federal court. Mr. Eaton will receive $1,500 for acting as receiver for the bridge, and for serving as special master in chancery in the sale of the structure. Mr. Eaton's attorney, E. A. Burgess, will receive $450 for his services. Attorney Burgess was ordered by Judge Reed to prepare the order allowing his claim and that of the receiver. Mr. Eaton's report shows that there still is $68,957.28 in his hands which is to go to bondholders who have not surrendered their bonds and applied for the dividend. The sum of $288,000, received from W. L. Selby, of Omaha, for the bridge, was divided among the bondholders, Mr. Eaton's report showed. After distributing the dividend of 57.6 cents on a dollar to bondholders, who surrendered their bonds, $16,905.60 was left to apply to the dividends of others. Added to this sum is $51,151.68, which was in the treasury of the bridge company when the sale was made. Mr. Eaton, under the prepared order to be filed, is given authority to transfer the insurance on the property and contracts held by the Nebraska Telephone company and the Sioux City Service company to the new owner, Mr. Selby. JUSTIN S. BACON

South Sioux City, Nebraska
County Treasurer of Dakota County
Candidate for Re-election

You have been kind enough to elect me to one term, and as the custom in the past has been to accord a treasurer a second term, I am asking you for re-election.

The ticket will be a big one this year, and we will all have to be very carefull to avoid mistakes.

When you go to the polls on election day, don't forget to make a CROSS in the SQUARE to the left of my name, like this:

Vote for ONE.

For County Treasurer.

JUSTIN S. BACON.....Republican

If you do, there will be no mistake about it counting for Bacon, and there will be no doubt that Bacon will appreciate it very much. Respectfully,

JUSTIN S. BACON
