Capt. Wm. Luther, one of the last surviving Missouri rivermen, who operated a ferry boat between Covington and Sioux City, died at his home in South Sioux City Monday night of senility, age 86 years. Mr. Luther, who is said to have served in the confederate army, came to Dakota county from Arkansas at the close of the war and located at Covington, where he soon afterward became interested in the ferry business. He was one of the builders and owners of the big pontoon bridge which was erected between Covington and Sioux City, and which was formally opened on May 18, 1889. E. C. Palmer and John M. Moan were associated with him in the bridge enterprise, which cost $40,000. Capt. Luther was born September 27, 1841, on a farm near Centralia, Ill., moving from there to Arkansas when 8 years old. He was married in 1862, to Mrs. Adaline Jackson, a widow of the nephew of "Stonewall" Jackson, who was killed in his first battle. The funeral will be held today, Thursday, from the Methodist church in South Sioux City. Burial will be in the Floyd cemetery, Sioux City.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and for years it was supposed to be incurable. Doctors prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Catarrh is a local disease, greatly influenced by constitutional conditions and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine, manufactured by P. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is a constitutional remedy, is taken internally and acts thru the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System. One Hundred Dollars reward is offered for any case that Hall's Catarrh Medicine fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

Order of Hearing and Notice of Probate of Will.

In the County Court of Dakota County, Nebraska.

To Emilie Blume, Clara Blume, Beatrice Blume, Winifred Blume, Margaret Blume, Francis Blume, Mildred Blume, Donald Blume, and to all persons interested in the estate of Fred Blume, deceased.

On reading the petition of Emilie Blume praying that the instrument filed in this court on the 11th day of January, 1917, and purporting to be the last will and testament of the said deceased, may be proved and allowed, and recorded as the last will and testament of Fred Blume, deceased;

That said instrument be admitted to probate, and the administration of said estate be granted to Emilie Blume as executrix.

It is hereby ordered that you, and all persons interested in said matter, may and do appear at the county court to be held in and for said county, on the 3rd day of February, A. D. 1917, at 10 o'clock A. M., to show cause, if any there be, why the prayer of the petitioner should not be granted, and that notice of the pendency of said petition and that the hearing thereof be given to all persons interested in said matter by publishing a copy of this order in the Dakota County Herald, a weekly newspaper printed in said county, for three successive weeks prior to said day of hearing.

Witness my hand, and seal of said court, this 12th day of January, A. D. 1917.

W. MCKENZIE, County Judge.

Bethlehem's Bid on Shells for the United States Navy

To the American People:

The Secretary of the Navy has awarded contracts amounting to over $3,000,000 to a British bidder for 14 and 16-inch projectiles for the Navy because of very much lower prices offered by the English bidders.

We know nothing of the basis upon which the British bids were made, but the public is entitled to know the facts upon which we ourselves bid for this work.

Two years ago we took contracts to make 4,200 14-inch shells at a price of $1,515,000. Up to now not a single shell has been accepted by the Government, although we have expended, in wages, materials, etc., on these orders $522,881, and we have not received a SINGLE DOLLAR on these contracts.

In addition, a literal interpretation of the contract might make us liable for penalties amounting to $75,016.

In the light of our experience, and having no other basis, we bid for 16-inch shells approximately the same rate per pound as that which the Navy Department actually awarded a 14-inch shell contract one year ago.
