DAKOTA COUNTY HERALD.

VOL. 25.

DAKOTA CITY, NEBRASKA, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1917.

NO. 24.

Items of Interest Gleaned from Our Exchanges

Dixon Journal: Mrs. M. Foote visited at the home of her son, Le Rue, at Hubbard last Monday.

Lyons Mirror: Mrs. W. E. Sne-then and children visited from Thursday till Saturday of last week at Mrs. Snethen's parental home.

day.....S. D. Joyce and wife of Dakota City, Neb., came up Tuesday noon for a visit with their daughter, Mrs. W. C. Heikes.

Emerson Enterprise: State Senator F. F. Haase spent Sunday in Emerson. He is the author of a bill recently introduced in the state senate which provides for the non partisan election of state and county superintendents of public instruc-

Wakefield Republican: Station Agent G. H. Pranger and wife left Friday for an extended trip to Florida and other places in the south. They will be gone a month, perhaps considerably longer. Ray Larson has charge of the station during Pranger's absence. W. E. Davis, another operator, is here assisting.

Monday to her home at Sacred innocence of the murder and insists call was put in for aid from the form cow testing associations of the Heart, Minn., and her son Vergil rethat he was not the traveling com-Sioux City department, which was usual size (26 members owing at Heart, Minn., and her son Vergil re- that he was not the traveling comturned to the parental home yester- panion of Armour on the overland answered by the hose truck from least 400 cows) smaller test associa-

Sioux City Journal, 1st: It re-mained for Charles Voss & Son of Homer, Neb., to but a new top on the beef cattle market, not only for the year to date, but in the history of the local market. These feeders the St. Paul, Minneapolis and Oma-marketed a load of choice Hereford ha railroad at South Sioux City, Mewcastle Times: Ed Ro: beers weighing close to 1,500 pounds that cashed at $11.40. There were that cashed at $11.40. There were that cashed at $11.40. There were the cash dim of $25, which was in the cash dim raised and fed by Mr. Voss and his son. This is the eleventh time Mr. crossed the Missouri river on the ice and robbed of $17 by a youthful Voss has topped the beef cattle mar- a short distance above the railroad bandit. The robber was not masked ket in eleven years.

Ponca Journal: Mrs. Harry Sny-Obert items in Wynot Tribune:
W. C. Heikes and C. W. Butler
marketed hogs in Vermillion Tuesmarketed hogs in Vermillion Tueswho died at his home in South Sioux City, Tuesday afternoon....E. Rasmussen, auctioneer, and R. C. Hall, foreman of this office, made a business trip to Jackson, Hubbard, and other Dakota county points the first of the week. The former secured dates for two sales and the latter secured several nice orders for printing, including sale bills, a catalogue and stationery.

with the murder of Clyde D. Ar- only recently on advice of physi- and departed a few minutes later, mour, of Sioux City, Ia., was arraigned before the district judge.
The accused man's attorneys waived only recently on advice of physical properties of the Company of the examination and the prisoner was on November 12, 1816. She had seven weeks ago. Entrance was efbound over to the grand jury which lived in Nebraska many years and fected while no employes were on Pender Republic: Mrs. L. L.

Pender Republic: Mrs. L. L.

Ream and son returned to their provement recently, but he was unphased and son returned to their provement recently, but he was unphased and son returned to their provement recently, but he was unphased and son returned to their provement recently, but he was unphased and son returned to their provement recently, but he was unphased and son returned to their provement recently, but he was unphased and son returned to their provement recently, but he was unphased and son returned to their provement recently, but he was unphased and son returned to their provement recently, but he was unphased and son returned to their provement recently, but he was unphased and son returned to their provement recently. home at Homer on Monday able to be moved from the peniten-Mrs. Blanch Miller was here Sunday tiary for the arraignment. It was and lived with her son ever since.

motor journey. It was on the advice of his attorneys that the preliminary hearing was waived.

Sioux City Journal, 3: No trace faces.... The reflection of a glowing of the youthful bandit who held up coal stove through the windows of to spend half of his time with one ald for two years. Should have done Lloyd Smith, cashier in the office of bridge, but all trace of the man was The robber, at the point of a revollost. The robber, at the point of a ver, ordered Smith, who was alone on Norfolk avenue and Tenth street tained for several nours. Chief of Friday morning. The remains will be taken to the old home at Ponca, Stoux City, then was notified of the for burial. A son-in-law, J. H. robbery, and made an unsuccessful Logan, lives at Ponca. Mrs. Powers was the mother of former District told Smith he was hungry and need-Judge Isaac Powers, who is now at led the money. He was about 5 feet Santa Fe, N. M., Special in Sioux City Journal, 2: While lying on a cot in the penitentiary hospital here Judge and Mrs. Powers are in poor cap and an overcoat. Smith said the today, Albert W. Blancett, charged health and they went to California robber entered the station at 9:35 passed away she came to Norfolk visiting her mother, Mrs. W. A. the first time such a procedure has When doctors insisted that her son, Muntz, and her brother Emery, south occurred in the New Mexico peni- Judge Powers, go to California for Judge Powers, go to California for to a room in the Kennard home. She was apparantly in her usnal health. Complications, due to old age, however, ended a long life. and the jaunty twirling of a hickory club, Bert Halley claimed money pretty cheaply, he isn't a bit today. Halley is the youngest cop better off than you are. For the on the police force. He started as a agricultural extension service of spotter for the Woodbury County the University of Nebraska, Lincoln, Anti-Saloon league. Then he be has a plan that's just the thing came a special officer detailed by for you if you haven't live stock or Chief Harve H. Hawman as the capital to start a venture of your man to "get the goods" on the booteggers on lower Fourth street, Halley always got the goods. He obtained so many prosecutions of persons charged with the illegal sale men who will loan money to boys of intoxicating liquor and with main- and girls who want to raise chickens taining a nuisance that Commission- or hogs but who haven't money or er Ward decided he was wasting his the necessary stock. Of course it is talents as a spotter, and made Hal- a regular business deal and you have ley a regular bluecoat less than a to sign a note promising to pay the month ago. "Sh-h-h!" hissed Hal-money back in a year, or sooner if ey last night in gumshoe fashion as he approached the New Mondamin comes due. In this way, boys and hotel, Third and Douglas streets, girls can buy a pen of pure-bred with his trusty pals, Jack Priest and chickens, a setting of eggs, or a pure-Clyde Lake, farmers from Homer, bred hog that dad wouldn't be Neb. "I have my suspicions about this place. Let's try to get the goods on 'em. Now, you Priest go information on care and feeding the goods on 'em. Now, you Priest go in and register and get a room: then hog and chickens, slip them the hint a little liquid refreshments would just suit a farmer like you." Priest acted according to orders. He took the room, one on the second floor, and waited far a few mysterious minutes. In the meantime Halley managed to find out where Priest's room was; then he got a painter's ladder and nimbly climbed through the window dence he climbed under the bed. Then Priest called the bellhop. like to get a shot in the arm-here's a dollar," he said. But the bellhop smelled a rat. He happened to squint out the window. the street below, watchfully waiting, was Lake with the tell tale ladder. And the bellhop laughed in Priest's the bed. He was in full police uniform, he had a club and a billy and a revolver; but he clung to his hiding place. He stayed there for more than an hour and a half. was only when a police raiding squad, led by Detective Fred Spencer, alarmed at Halley's absence, rushed down to the New Mondamin hotel, and rescued Halley. "They might have shot me," said Halley, ex-spotter, today.

Sioux City Journal, 2: Fire partly consumed the Knowlton & Manning grocery store, of South Sioux City, at 10:30 o'clock yesterday morning. The loss was estimated at about $800, which is covered by in-An overheated furnace pipe in the basement of the store is thought to have caused the fire. The flames quickly gained headway,

Norfolk Daily News: M. s. Isaac City police of the robbery. A squad project

Farm Notes.

his health, Mrs. Powers was moved Issued by the University of Nebraska

College of Agriculture. *LOANS FOR YOUNG FARMERS

Listen boys and girls! Sioux City Tribune, 3: The life of a Sioux City policeman isn't all glistening brass buttons and a twinkgives grown-ups a chance to borrow > own. And here's the plan. Arrangements have been made with a few farmers, bankers and other business the stock is sold before the note

> If you want to know more about this plan, write the agricultural ex-tension service of the University of Nebraska, Lincoln.

NEBRASKA BIRDS More than 400 different kinds of birds make their homes in the state of Nebraska, according to the entomology department of the state into Priest's room. To get the evidinarily sees in western Nebraska are quite different from those commonly encountered along the Missouri river, and no given locality has as many as 400 birds. Any local Down on bird list will grow slowly after the 200 mark has been passed. Further information may be found in Farmers' Bulletin Nos. 493, 456, 497, 506, face and put him out of the hotel. But Officer Halley was still under arates 416, 504, 554, 590, 601 and 620. arates 416, 504, 554, 590 601 and 620. These may be had upon application to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D. C.

> EARMERS AVERAGE $1121 A YEAR In a farm management survey just completed by the farm management department of the university college of agriculture on 63 farms covering 13,608 acres in Seward county, it was found that the average farmer there is getting $1121 a year for his

The 15 farms that paid best re turned an average of $2,377 for the farmer's labor and the 15 farms that paid the lowest $112, interest and depreciation charges being deducted in compiling these figures. The average number of crop-acres handled per man was 91, and the average crop acreage per horse was 25,

NEW PLAN FOR TEST ASSOCIATIONS

Mrs. Mutz returned tentiary. Blancett still protests his the store would be destroyed. A there are not yet enough cows to $ No. 1 station. The Sioux City fires tions which employ a tester coopermen got the fire under control, atively are sometimes organized. When the truck reached the station For example, two associations each on the return trip it was learned of which consists of 12 to 14 mem-that all the crew had frozen their bers owning 200 cows employ a testthe Albert B. Erickson grocery association and half with the other, this sooner but just neglected it store, 2118 Court street, caused an The number of members in each as-

APPLE CANKER Correspondence with apple growers and inspection of orchards indirevolver, ordered Smith, who was in the place, to produce the "jack" cate that blister canker is still wide- us celebrate. Everything here is alone in the place, to produce the from the till. Smith opened the spread and a most important apple lovely and the goose hangs high— 'jack' from the till. Smith opened money drawer and handed over its enemy, according to the department just a little too high-just out of contents. Smith followed the rob- of agricultural botany of the Uniber to the station platform. He ran versity of Nebraska. Apple scab to a store and notified the Sioux and blotch are readily controlled by feds. Wish everyone of our old acpraying. Canker however Powers, sr., believed to be the oldest of policemen and detectives hurried to be a ld in control. Owners of inpassed the century mark a short tomobile and waited for the robber fected orchards should write to the time ago, died in the Kennard home to appear. The votch was main- Experiment Station for further in-

> Exhiberating Burlesque; Vaudoville THE STATE MANUEL EVERY WESKINY

The Herald's * Letter Box

* Chambers, Neb , Jan. 29, 1917. Mr. John H. Ream and Friends:

Am enclosing you check for $2 to while I was trying to sell an acre or fee and have a feast. Would like to have a lot of our old Dakota county neighbors to fill their grips with good things and come out and help reach. We are all real well aud in just as good order as anyone's hay quaintances in Dakota county the best of everything and extend to one and all of them an invitation to make us a visit any time that they feel like they are living too high and should give their stomachs a complete rest. Please don't forget to give me credit for the $2, for, by jinks, its hard to see 'em go for something a fellow can't eat.

Your old neighbor, Wm. W. Reninger.

Preserve and beautify your home with Mound City Paint and Varnish. For saie at Neiswanger Pharmacy.

EIGHTH ANNUAL SIOUX CITY

AUTO SHOW

And Accessory Exhibit 20,000 square feet of space Feb. 13th to 17th Inclusive Auditorium

Here is a motor education. A solid special train direct from Eastern Shows. This is by far the most complete exposition ever held in Northwest motordom. Band concerts twice daily.

$795.00 OVERLAND CAR "COUNTRY CLUB MODEL" will be given away Saturday night OPEN DAY AND EVENING ADMISSION 25c.

Dakota City Grocery

Specials for Saturday

13 lbs Sugar	$1.00
1 Can of Peas	10c
1 Can of Hominy	10c
2 Cans of Kraut	35c
1 large Can of Peaches	15c
2 pkgs Raisins,,	. 25c
Oranges, per doz:	30c

$100 each Overalls and Jackets.....

All our new American Dved

Highest Price Paid for

COUNTRY PRODUCE

W. L. ROSS

Dakota City,

Nebraska

RID-A-WORM

Great Worm Destroyer and Hog Conditioner

Price $2.50 per Jug, or Three Jugs for $6.00 Manufactured by C. A. Wheelock, Beresford, S. Dak.

Pleasant View Farm, Home of the Famous Silver Lake Herd of Duroc-Jerseys

R. F. D. No. 6. Phone 138

Guy G. Sides, Local Agent

Phone 111-L8

Route 2

Dakota City, Nebr.

G. F. Hughes & Co.

Lumber, Building Material, Hardware, Coal

To The People of Dakota City @ Vicinity

M/E have succeeded Mr. Fred Lynch in the Hardware and Lumber business in Dakota City, and are here to stay. Cur aim will be to treat everyone right, and alike, and will guarantee satisfaction on all sales and work done at our place of business. We will carry a full line of Lumber, Building Material, Hardware, Coal, Paints, Plumbing Material, Greases and Oils. We have a well equipped shop where we will do all kinds of Plumbing, Tin Work, Furnace and Stove Repairs. Also Concrete Work of all Kinds.

Come in and see us Let's Get Acquainted

H. R. GREER, Mgr.

Dakota City, Nebr.