Captain 90975
Wallace 121599

CAPTAIN—foaled May 1, 1912, color black, is a large, powerful horse, known as a sure foal getter.
WALLACE—foaled April 10, 1915, color dark dapple gray. Winner of First Prize for 1 year old at Oakland, Nebr., in 1916. Wallace is a very promising colt, stands 16 hands high, weighs 1625 lbs at 23 months old.
These horses are both inspected and guaranteed sound and in perfect breeding condition by the Live Stock Sanitary Board of Nebraska.
Terms—$15 to insure mare in foal, $20 for colt 9 days old. Due care will be taken to prevent accidents, but at mare owner's risk.
Both these horses will stand at my barn in Hubbard, Nebr., during the season of 1917.

Attractive Summer Tours
Through the East

An extensive scheme of diverse-route eastern tours has been announced,—circuit tours to New York and Boston, going one way, returning another; eastern trunklines and steamer lines cooperate in these tours that may be planned to include Canadian, New England and Atlantic Seaboard resorts, Sound Steamers, Coast Lines, the Virginias, Boston, New York and Washington. The general limits of these low fares are for sixty-day tickets.
The Burlington's eastern tourist-rate leaflet is now on the press. Describe to me the general tour you have in mind. Let me help you make it and furnish you with descriptive literature covering the proposed journey.

PATRIOTIC LEAGUE OF NEBRASKA

TO SUPPORT PRESIDENT WILSON IN ALL WAR MEASURES

Omaha, May 3.—Following up the action taken at the meeting held in Omaha last Thursday, attended by 60 representative citizens from all parts of Nebraska, steps are being taken to complete the organization of the Patriotic League of Nebraska. The purpose of this League, as announced in its preamble, is:

"To promote the spirit of true patriotism in our state, to support the declared policies of our president in the present war with the imperial government of Germany, and to evoke a sound sentiment in aid of needed measures to place and keep our country in position to protect and defend at all times American rights, American ideals and American honor."

Hon. Wm. D. McHugh, ex-United States Judge, was elected president, Dr. Fred Morrow Fling, of the State University, vice-president, and Francis A. Brogan of Omaha, secretary-treasurer, and these officers, together with L. D. Richards of Fremont, Frank M. Hall of Lincoln, C. C. George of Omaha, Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Omaha Commercial Club, Dr. E. C. Henry, of Omaha, President of the Rotary Club, and Gould Dietz, prominent official of the Omaha Aik-Sar-Ben, will constitute the executive committee.

State-wide Organization.
A board of thirty directors was chosen at this meeting, to serve for the first year. They are as follows:
First District—F. M. Fling, Lincoln; Paul Jessen, Nebraska City; Chester A. Aldrich, Lincoln; W. C. Wilson, Lincoln.

Second District—Dr. E. C. Henry, Gould Dietz, S. F. Neble, C. J. Ernst, T. C. Byrne, C. C. George, John T. Yates, R. L. Metcalfe and W. G. Ure, Omaha.

Third District—L. D. Richards, Fremont; H. M. Hopewell, Tekamah; George A. Eberly, Stanton; C. E. Burnham, Norfolk.

Fourth District—E. E. Placek, Wahoo; Matt Miller, David City; L. W. Colby, Beatrice; Clark Perkins, Aurora; J. H. Grosvenor, Avoca.

Fifth District—Charles G. Ryan, Grand Island; Fred W. Ashton, Grand Island.

Sixth District—T. C. Patterson, North Platte; Patrick Miles, Sidney; John N. Dryden, Kearney; M. S. Eddy, Broken Bow.

Steps are now being taken to appoint an organizing secretary who will have under him an auxiliary council of 50 active young men, and there will be in each congressional district, as well as in each county in the state, an organizing deputy, just as soon as volunteers have come forward to undertake this work. It is expected that 20,000 members will be enrolled within the next sixty days, as offers are coming in from all parts of the state to assist in the organization.

Loyalty From All Americans.
At the meeting at which the organization was begun, enthusiastic speeches, expressing patriotic support of the president, were made by John W. Cutright of Lincoln, T. C. Patterson of North Platte, Dr. Fling of the University, Matt Miller of David City, and Matt Gering of Plattsmouth, who, born in Germany, proclaimed himself in this crisis a whole-hearted American citizen, loyal to the president and pledged to uphold him in this war to overthrow military absolutism on the continent of Europe, and make democracy safe throughout the world.

The chief note in the speeches was that our public servants must lay aside partisan politics and support the president's program, as outlined in his great war message of April 2d. Life-long republicans, who had opposed President Wilson up to the time that message was delivered, were found among his enthusiastic supporters at this time; and democrats who have followed him from the beginning, expressed renewed confidence in his wise leadership.

Declaration of Principles.
The meeting adopted this declaration of principles, and wired it to the president and to the members of congress:

"We express to President Wilson our profound faith in the masterly statesmanship embodied in his great message to congress, in which he voiced the purposes of this people, and its attitude towards the issues of the world war. We pledge him our support, and declare that along the trail which he has blazed, the American people are ready to follow him to the end.

"We believe in the new alignment,—that during the war there shall be, neither in congress nor out, any republicans nor any democrats, but only two new parties,—American patriots on the one hand, supporting the government, and on the other hand, all those who from any motive see fit to oppose it.

"We hold that this war should be carried on by the national government, and all functions controlled by federal agencies, to the end that there shall be efficient co-ordination of the resources of the country, and no divided counsels, to distract or weaken.

"We declare in favor of the administration army bill, and we approve the principle of selective draft, based on universal liability to service, not alone because it is urged by the president and his advisers, but also because it is right.

"We invite the co-operation of all citizens of Nebraska and we urge them to join with us in extending the membership of this league, so that the loyal sentiments of the people of this state may have due expression.

"We call upon the friends of the republic in each state of the Union, to organize patriotic leagues, and to enroll the friends of the president's program in state-wide organizations, that will mobilize public opinion to the support of all needed war measures."
