

Telephone Traffic in Peace and War

Purchase of army supplies, the mobilization of troops and the gigantic war preparations have necessitated an unusually large number of local and long distance telephone calls.

We are handling 30 per cent more long distance calls than we did before the war began, and heavy demands have been made upon us by the government for telephonic equipment, and for trained men for the army signal corps.

In this time of the nation's greatest need you can "do your bit" by asking only for equipment you must have and by making only such local and long distance calls as are absolutely necessary.

Low Summer Fares Withdrawn September 30th

To Eastern Cities and Resorts: The entire scheme of eastern summer fares will be available during September, with return limits good until October 31st; this is the last opportunity of the year to visit the East at reduced rates.

To the Pacific Coast: The low rates circuit tours are also available prior to September 30th; these are much lower than the winter fares. Our Scenic Colorado California route is especially attractive during the Autumn.

To Western Resorts: You can go to Colorado and Estes Park at very cheap fares during this month. Estes Park in September is an ideal place for a "rapid-health-come-back."

The big National Parks will be open until September 15th. The Black Hills are available throughout the month.

The ranches about Sheridan, Ranchester and Cody will all be open and can take excellent care of you, after the departure of the mid-summer crowds.

Send for publications descriptive of any trip you have in mind and let us help you.

Lutheran Church Notes

DAKOTA CITY-SALEM
REV. C. R. LOWE.

On Friday night at Emmanuel church Miss Joanna Wunderlich will give a Missionary address using her lantern slides. Do not mistake this for a "movie." She writes she has about 70 slides of our Lutheran work at Juntur, India, which she uses. This makes a very good evening's entertainment and is instructive. There will be no admittance charges, but a missionary offering will be made.

On Thursday night Miss Wunderlich will speak at the Salem church and use the stereopticon. All are cordially invited to attend these addresses, and we especially invite our friends of St. John's church.

The lantern used is loaned to us by Mr. Young and belongs to the agricultural department of the state university.

It is the time again for the every member canvass of the Salem church. The first Sunday in October has been set by the council for this canvass. Last year when we began the agitation it was a new thing for us, it took a good deal of explanation and some urging. We had only the experience of other churches. It is different this year. We have seen the budget and every member canvass working in our own hands for a year and know what it has done for us. Ask the men who had the financial affairs of the church in hand and see what they say of it. Don't you appreciate not being asked for money by the officers when you are at church. The old times when there were bills and no money have not had a look-in this year. Conditions are reversed, there is some money and no bills. A blessed condition for a church to be in. That is how it works. You want to be in on such a scheme. It doesn't work a hardship on any. Use the monthly payment plan as some do, or make payments on a certain date. Think the matter over, talk it with your wife, expect to see the canvassers at your house. We know if we have the church—who wouldn't have it—we must support it. It is yours and does not exist for the preacher; he exists because of your church. You not only expect to support it, but you want to support it. Meet the canvassers as if you wanted and expected to meet them. They are the servants of the church and that without pay. You owe it to the church and to them to make this work pleasant for them.

Our church year in the churches closes this month and there are some benevolences in arrears yet. We ask those who are in arrears to pay their apportionment that we may go to Synod with our full quota. We have an excess in some things but ought to pay fully on all. We will do this.

The Sunday school at Salem voted to have a special Christmas service. Mr. Fred Culbertson was elected last Sunday as a delegate to Synod which meets early in October at Grand Island.
