Kohlmeier sold his house and lot in the east part of town to Anton Holmberg. The reason for the sale is that it is necessary for Mr. and Mrs. Kohlmeier to move south on account of Mrs. Kohlmeier's health. Mr. Holmberg takes possession January 1.

Ponca Journal: Mrs. O. Flatherty spent a few days visiting at Jackson last week. Leo Lowe attended the Hartnet Hereford sale in Sioux City last Monday. Bernard Rahn went to Coburn Sunday to meet his brother Werner, from Witten, S. D. He visited at the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Rahn until Wednesday, when he returned home accompanied by his wife who has been visiting here the past four weeks. A score of 16 to 3 stood in favor of the South Sioux City girls' basketball team after the close of the Ponca-South Sioux City game. This is a very good showing for Ponca because it was her first year and first game, while South Sioux City has played several years. All the girls need more practice and a little experience.

Mrs. Charles Ostmeier departed yesterday for Allen, Neb., where she will be the guest of Mrs. Floyd Fegley. Marguerite Brown, Alice Brown and Sarah Brown, of Dakota City, Neb., are visiting over the week-end with their uncle, Jacob Leamer, and family. Goodsell T. Pendell, 3617 Vine avenue, is in a serious condition at his home. He is suffering with Hoskins' disease. His recovery is not expected and his parents, Rev. and Mrs. G. M. Pendell, of Ponca, Neb., are at his bedside. After being arrested twice and released each time, Miss Elma Deal, of South Sioux City, was again taken in charge yesterday by H. O. Crane, chief of police, and will be sent to Huron, S. D., today to stand trial on a charge of grand larceny. Chief Crane may permit the woman to go unattended, as the Huron sheriff does not consider it necessary to send an escort. She is accused of stealing $50 from a hotel there.

Allen News: Dick Lennox caught a coyote in an unusual manner Sunday evening. He was driving his car home from Ponca and just this side of town ran into a coyote and crippling it, he stopped the car and shot the animal before it could get away and then brought it on home with him. On Monday morning R. C. Caulk sold to John Benstead two healthy fat porkers that Mr. Benstead said were the largest hogs he had ever bought on the market. With the market price at $16.10, Mr. Caulk's check received for the hogs, was $152.90, which is not so bad for the lowly porker. Mr. and Mrs. George Bomber, Miss Mary Davis, Charles Davis and Lew Koser, all living near Martinsburg, drove to Sioux City last Friday in the latter's car. On their way home, their car was run down by a car driven by a stranger. Luckily none of the occupants of the auto were seriously hurt, although the Ford was smashed up considerably. All of the party except Mr. Koser, continued their journey home in another car. Mr. Koser stayed in Jackson over night to see that the Ford received proper treatment in the local hospital, and then drove the car home Saturday.

Sioux City Journal, 20: The funeral of Geo. W. Smith, of Jackson, Neb., who died in a Sioux City hospital following an operation, will be held at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Margaret McDermott, 3005 Commercialville road. Burial will be in the Calvary cemetery. Action neither favoring nor opposing the petitioned reduction of tolls on the combination bridge was taken at the meeting of eighteen members of the board of directors of the Commercial club last night. A resolution calling upon Secretary of War Newton D. Baker to conduct an investigation and make a decision at the earliest date practicable was adopted after it had been discussed. Arguments in behalf of the position of the Dakota county, Neb., citizens and business men who have signed the petition for toll reduction were presented by Attorney Ward Evans, of South Sioux City, who cited the schedule of tolls enforced at Omaha and Kansas City bridges. The position of the Missouri River Bridge company, the corporation owning the bridge, was announced by E. A. Burgess. The following resolution was adopted: Whereas, A petition has been presented to the secretary of war signed by many citizens of Dakota county, Neb., and of Sioux City, Ia., praying for a reduction of tolls on the combination bridge; and Whereas, The feeling that there should be a reduction is shared by many citizens of Sioux City, the directors of the Sioux City, Ia., Commercial club therefore pray the secretary of war to fully investigate this matter and to render a decision at the earliest possible date. It is only a question of days, it was asserted at the meeting, when the matter of toll reduction will be fully and finally determined by Secretary of War Baker, who under the bridge charter is the sole and only authority as to tolls that may be exacted. Both sides to the controversy are now engaged in the preparation of data as evidence to be submitted to Secretary Baker.

Farm Notes.

Issued by the University of Nebraska College of Agriculture.

SPECIAL TERM OF SCHOOL

Every boy and girl who was unable to attend school this fall and who would find it necessary to leave school early in the spring should write to the School of Agriculture, Lincoln, Neb., for particulars regarding the special term which will open December 3. This term, which will close early in March, will be open to any boy or girl who has finished the eighth grade.

At the same time the university proper will hold a special term closing a month later—early in April—which will be especially for the young men and women who have had a high school education. Practically all general courses will be offered the same as the beginning of the regular school year.

Among the agricultural courses to be offered in both the college and school of agriculture are farm management, dairying, horticulture, poultry husbandry, diseases of farm animals, live stock judging, soils and fertilizers, blacksmithing, and carpentry. Many inquires are being received and those planning to attend should notify the Registrar of the University or the Principal of the School of Agriculture at once.

FATTENING POULTRY FOR MARKET

The season of greatest demand for market poultry is approaching. Most of the market poultry on the Nebraska farms and town lots can be profitably fattened if good rations are fed and the stock is handled in the right way, according to the poultry department of College of Agriculture. A grain ration of 60 percent finely ground corn meal and 40 percent shorts, moistened with buttermilk or skim milk to a mortar-like consistency, makes a very palatable and highly digestible ration. Full feeds should not be given at first but each feed should be increased until on the third day the birds are getting all they can eat in a twenty-minute feeding period, morning, noon and night. Best results are secured when the birds are confined to a crate or a small yard.

WINTER BEES

Preparations should be made now for winter bees, according to the department of entomology of the College of Agriculture. The temperature of the hives should be kept at about 57 degrees. If the temperature is below that the bees will spend their energy keeping warm, while if it is very much above they will fly from the hives. With a temperature of around 57 degrees, the bees remain in almost a dormant condition, thereby saving their energy for spring.

If wintering out of doors is contemplated a good plan is to place each hive within a box about six inches greater in its dimensions than the hive, and fill the intervening space with sawdust or leaves. A small tunnel should be left for an entrance to the hive. The entrance should also be kept free from ice so as not to suffocate the bees.

VACCINATE AGAINST BLACKLEG

Now is the time to vaccinate against blackleg, according to the department of animal pathology of the College of Agriculture. Cattle up to two years of age are susceptible and vaccination should be done twice a year. The government vaccine is supplied free of charge thru the University and there is really no excuse for large losses from the disease.

SORGHUM PLANT IN GAGE COUNTY

A promising industry has been started in Gage county thru the activity of the county agent. Early in the season enough seed was put out to plant 35 acres of cane and a number of people were interested in the establishment of a sorghum plant. A fine quality of molasses is being turned out and it is believed that next year will see the cane acreage doubled.

NAMES OF SOLDIERS WANTED

The University of Nebraska is desirous of obtaining the name of every student, former student, and alumnus who is now serving in the war. Those having information along this line are asked to write, giving names and present addresses of the men, to Prof. G. R. Catbarn, University of Nebraska, Lincoln, in order that a roster may be made.
