Announcement.

Lincoln, Nebraska, March 22, 1918. To the voters of the State of Nebraska:

Subject to the action of the voters who may sign the necessary petitions required by law, and to the further action of the voters la casting the necessary ballots to secure my nomination at the nonpartisan primary election to be held in August; 1918, I hereby announce my expectation to become a candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court of the state of Nebraska at the November election. seek a second term, am in excellent health and will see many of you during the summer and fall. When I came to the state I stopped a short time in Omaha, later settling in Lincoln and subsequently removing to Kearney where I was twice elected district judge and served a little more than eight years, and where I lived at the time of my election as Judge of the Supreme Court. Francis G. Hamer.

M. E. Church Notes.

F. J. AUCOCK, Pastor.

Next Sunday at 11 a. m. there will. be a special patriotic sermon. The days the past week in Sioux City, subject will be "Loyalty." Everybody is invited to be present. This is in connection with the launching of the Liberty Loan campaign.

The quarterly conference will also be held on Tuesday of next week at an hour to be announced later Members of the conference are earnestly asked to attend. The new superintendent has as yet scarcely me any of the official members of the Before very long you will be expecting him to send you a new minister. If you wish him to be really interested in your case at least take the trouble to get acquainted with him.

The collection on Easter Sunday morning amounted to $26. This was a slight increase over last year.

One thing has particularly pleased the pastor during his ministery here and so far he had made no allusion to it. The sight of the Easter Illies around the pulpit reminded him of the constant thoughtfulness and service of Mrs. R. E. Evans in this respect. It is a very rare thing her floral tribute to beautify God's line just added. George Timlin. house. Occasionally others do it but in this case it is a year in year out constancy. Such thoughtfulness speaks of a deep love for the church As I sat by those lilies Sunday afternoon I turned to that fine hymn: love thy kingdom, Lord," and thought how the donor of those flowers must enjoy singing such words as these;

"I love thy church O God! Her walls before thee stand.

Dear as the apple of thine eye, and graven on thy hand. For her my tears shall fall; for her my prayers ascend; To her my cares and toils be given;

Till cares and tolls shall end.

Beyond my highest joy I prize her heavenly ways. Her sweet communion, solemn yows her hymns of love and praise. After all it is a simple thing to give flowers of a Sunday but who can estimate the remuneration that comes to a life from such thoughtful, loving service. Some members of the church get little from its worship-indeed they seem lightly to esteem it. Why? Because they put nothing into it! If you show me a church where every member is putting something into its worship and activities I will show you a real. live church that is justifying its existence. Can we get such a church as that here?

THE THIRD LOAN.

By WALT MASON.

Now once again you'll have a chance to buy yourself a bond, and help the allies out in France, in Belgium and beyond. In April now our Uncle Sam will start another loan, and are you ready, as I am, to put up plunk and bone? It's little we old gents can do to help our armies win, but we can certainly ome through with packages of tin. When everything is said and done, 'tis wealth will win the scrap, and there should be a flow of "mon" from every loyal chap. You are not asked to give away or sacrifice your dust; you lend to Uncle Sam—and, say, he's surely safe to trust! You are not asked to lend for fun; good interest you receive; if you've no bonds, when war is done, you'll rend your robe and grieve. Ah, then you'll hang your head in shame and sound a doleful note; you did not help to win the game and get the Prustian goat. But there is none with soul so dead he will not buy a bond, e'en though he has to cut out bread, and see his cookstove pawned. Let's march up cheerful, blithe and quick, and buy, and buy, and buy; for thus we'll make he Teuton sick, and soak him in the eye.

THE WORLD AND YOU!

The tlerman Autocracy has said: "What else matters but victory for us?" Humanity says: "What else matters but the safety of the world for Freelom, for Democracy, for Women, for Children, for You?"

CAPTURED FARMERS.

The farmers of captured France, Belgium, Italy and Montenegro are bearing the Kaiser's burdens. The Prussian military boot trampled under foot the rural homes, making the captured farmers slave for the armies that over-ran hem and wrecked their homes. America is but across the sea from the spirit of a soulless monarch. It is not that 'far, for the emissaries of the German army are planted in this country and the spies of Autocracy are about us.

To the farmer of America who has prospered there is but one salvationthe lending of his surplus to the Government that must assure safety for the American homestead.

Rev. L. Frank Goes to New Location

Rev. L. Frank, the former pastor in Salem, was in Camp Dodge, Ia., last Sunday, to visit his son Theodore, who is in the signal corps there.

On Sunday morning father and son were in the Lutheran church of Rev. Dr. Leamer, in Des Moines, the brother of Mr. Leamer of Salem. The service in the church was great. A good Lutheran liturgy and sermon. The minister, Rev. Dr. Leamer, wore the usual church gown at his altar and chancel.

Just now all good, loyal Americans are not eating what we once did because of a life and liberty matter. How much higher is the matter of our eternal life! And that is where Easter comes in as the assurance of an eternity, as surance of our own state, for if we are Christ's we shall be raised unto life even as He was raised. That is where the gladness comes in for us If another man makes a fortune that will not profit me, for it is not mine but if he should place it to my credit then would I be profited. If Christ rose from the dead and there was no benefit to me it would be nothing, but since it is for my salvation i means everything to me. Therein i my rejoicing and the reason for it A mark of the season is a good thing, we rejoice in the coming of the spring time, but much more in the freedom from the penalty of sin and the assurance of salvation. After all, a man's acceptance with God is the greatest thing in a man's life. We are emphasizing our being "fit" as a country to take our place in the war, but what are we doing as a country to make ourselves "fit for God? We have a lot of waking up to do in our country before we are where we ought to be; we have a lot of waking up to do before we are where we ought to be in religious Board adjourned to meet Monday, April matters. It is W. S. S. and Liberty Bonds and "less" days to win the war; it is also self denial and sacrifice and righteousness in the working out of our salvation. If we don't win the war you coudn't paint enlamity in large enough letters, set back of the people in liberty for years; but if a man loses his eternal life what shall be said? Make your calling and election sure.
