

Items of Interest Gleaned from Our Exchanges

Osmond Republican: E. J. Huey and family are Omaha visitors this week at the home of Frank Thomas.

Lyons Mirror: Our old friend John Clayton, of Homer, was here Sunday, enroute to Omaha with stock.

Tekamah Herald: Jeff Taylor, editor of the Winnebago Chieftain, made the Herald a nice visit Memorial Day. He came down to see his father and sisters. Editor Taylor began setting type in the Herald office 30 years ago.

Sioux City Journal, 1st: Hiking parties and swimming parties will be held on Thursday and Saturday afternoons for the school girls of the city under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. Saturday will be given over to swimming classes at Crystal lake and McCook lake, and Thursday has been set aside for a hike.

Newcastle Times: Prof. Jacobson and wife left the first of the week for Dakota City, where they will visit relatives. From there they will go to Wayne, where Mr. Jacobson will teach in the Wayne Normal School this summer. This speaks well for our professor, and we are glad that we have such a competent instructor at the head of our Newcastle high school.

Wakefield Republican: Miss Fannie Wilbur, of South Sioux City, has been visiting friends in Wakefield the past week. Mrs. LaValley left Sunday morning for an extended visit with friends at Dakota City. Chas. Heikes, of Wayne, while working for his uncle, Chas. Heikes, near here, caught his hand in a lister a few days ago and smashed it quite badly. He will soon be able to use it again, however.

Wynot Tribune: Mrs. W. A. Morgan, of South Sioux City, visited over Sunday with her daughter, Miss Lucile Morgan, principal of the Wynot schools. The teachers of the public schools left for their various homes Tuesday morning. Miss Morgan went to South Sioux City, Miss Woodruff to Sioux City, Miss Cassidy to Oberlin, and Miss Head to Randolph. All of them except Miss Head have signed contracts to return to the Wynot schools next year.

Oakland Independent: R. J. Taylor, editor and publisher of the Winnebago Chieftain, and two sons, and H. W. Hopewell, of Tekamah, stopped off here Wednesday and made this office a pleasant call. Mr. Taylor was on his way to Tekamah for memorial day exercises. An automobile with iron wheels to fit the rails passed through here Monday from Omaha to Sioux City. In it were the general manager of this branch of the Burlington, the master carpenter, and on the return Superintendent Peter Peterson. The car runs on orders the same as passenger trains and on about the same time.

Sioux City Tribune, 31st: Hundreds of residents of Dakota county Nebraska, gathered at the Knowlton and Manning hall, South Sioux City, yesterday in fitting observance of Memorial day. William Warner, of Dakota City, was the speaker of the day. Banner post No 308, G. A. R., conducted the ceremonies at the cemetery. Headed by six veterans of the civil war, men, women and children marched to the cemetery to strew flowers on the graves of the fallen soldiers.

Emerson Enterprise: Mrs. W. B. Menner and children returned to Norfolk Sunday after a week's visit with her mother, Mrs. P. Merwin. Mr. and Mrs. A. Ira Davis went to Iowa Falls, Ia., last Saturday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Davis' brother. They returned home Saturday. Senator F. F. Haase went down to Lincoln to attend the medicine-making pow-wow of republican leaders last Tuesday. The senator has his ear to the ground for propitious sounds and will be heard from in due time.

Walthill Citizen: Mrs. B. J. Lamson and daughter, Miss Sylvia, were Lyons callers yesterday. Ralph Mason went to South Sioux City last Thursday night to attend an alumni banquet. The Mason family were Wakefield visitors on Sunday evening, the rain detaining them at Bancroft overnight. Meadames J. M. Snyder, C. S. Jones and C. C. Larson returned to their homes in South Sioux City, Friday, after attending the funeral of Robert Jones. Robert, the 12-year-old son of L. O. Jones, was accidentally drowned while in bathing at Crystal lake Tuesday evening of last week. The body was not recovered until late Wednesday evening. The burial took place in the Walthill cemetery Friday afternoon, the remains being accompanied by relatives and friends. Rev. W. A. McKibben, of Morning-side, conducted the services both at South Sioux City and at the cemetery here. The bereaved father and brothers have the sympathy of all in their time of sorrow.

Sioux City Journal, 2nd: Joseph Mullen and Albert Mullen, twin brothers, living near Jackson, Neb., became of age yesterday and have enlisted in the machine gun division of the regular army. The boys have been under the guardianship of Ed T. Kearney. Miss Mabel G. Riley, daughter of William Riley, of Jackson, Neb., has been called to France with her unit of Red Cross nurses from Camp Grant, Rockford, Ill. Miss Riley is a graduate registered nurse and has been in active practice in Chicago for the past seven years. At the entrance of our country into the world war she at once offered her services to the government and joined the Red Cross nurses then story. And it will run something like this, may be:

"When you were down at Salem and Emmanuel how did you observe the day I set aside for myself that you may have a day to rest and opportunity to worship in my house as I ordained that you should?"

Some of you will begin, with confidence to answer:

"Lord we set aside the day to the purposes you intended. We got up early enough in the morning to get to the sanctuary on time, or nearly so, only when the clock was set an hour ahead in 1918. And then we rejoiced in the preaching of the Word, the singing of the songs. We read the Bible on that day and other good books and devotional. We did not do any more work than was necessary because we planned the work to have it done. We had an honest and good reason when we were not in our place."

There will be others who will say: "Lord I was so busy I couldn't do all I had to do in six days, so I had to use a good deal of your day to take care of the stuff you gave me. Of course I wanted all I could get, but when you gave it to me I had to take care of it and I wasn't to blame. And then, Lord, Sunday was the only day I had to rest and when I worked so hard all the time you really didn't mean to rob me of a little extra sleep on Sunday morning just for the sake of the public worship; and any way I was tired and not well and so many things happened all the time when I did want to go to church that I just couldn't make it."

You will find the world over that some people make opportunity wait on them and some who wait on opportunity. In religious things as well as in business the man who makes the opportunity is the one who forges ahead.

We will celebrate the communion service at Hubbard next Sunday.

County Agent's Monthly Report

No business meeting of the board being held in April, reports for the two months were carried over to May.

During the two months a large amount of time was spent in testing and demonstrating methods of testing seed corn. Demonstrations were conducted at twenty schools having 460 scholars. These were urged to test ten ears of father's seed corn and show him the test. Reports from teachers show splendid co-operation. A few of the older children continued and tested most of the corn for home planting. The result of some of the tests proved a real revelation to a number of the fathers.

The Homer and Jackson testing stations run steadily until about May 10, at which time they were closed, having tested over 800 bushels. Several hundred bushels of seed corn were located for farmers. The dry method of treating oats for smut was demonstrated at five places with a total attendance of 69 persons.

Two meetings were held with W. R. Wells, government specialist, on insects effecting domestic animals. Fifty-three people were present.

Ten persons attended two orchard pruning demonstrations and twenty-three were present at four spraying demonstrations.

During the two months, Dakota, Covington and Hubbard precincts were organized for pocket gopher eradication. The precincts were divided into districts of four or five sections each with a captain for each district.

Two sheep meetings were held, one to demonstrate methods of docking and castration and one to demonstrate the use of the power shears.

Methods of poultry selection was shown on one farm.

Seven boys and girls, winners of the junior clubs, received their free trips to the Club Congress, at the State University, during May. Some club organization work was also accomplished.

Hog cholera was found on four farms having a total of 308 hogs which were promptly vaccinated. Two other herds of pigs numbering 199 head were given the serum.

Blackleg was found on one farm. Immunization against the disease was conducted on ten farms having 152 calves.

Ever hear of a pastor doing pastoral work by the piece? We have under consideration a catechism class at Homer at so much a person, provided a class can be organized.

Cooper to Prove Famous Theories

His Remarkable Medicine Accomplishing Wonderful Results in Leading Cities.

Referring to the visit to Omaha and other western cities of Mr. L. T. Cooper, the millionaire philanthropist and lecturer, who has commanded such wide-spread interest in the east with his health theories and celebrated medicine, Tanlac, E. C. Harris, his representative, recently said in Omaha:

"Thousands of the most prominent people in Cincinnati, Cleveland, Denver, Salt Lake City, Detroit, Louisville, Dallas, Atlanta, Memphis and other cities, where his celebrated medicine has accomplished such remarkable results, are even more enthusiastic over Tanlac than Mr. Cooper himself.

"As previously stated, Mr. Cooper contends that nine-tenths of the diseases and ill-health of the average person is due to a catarrhal condition, which produces faulty digestion and improper assimilation of the food.

"In a recent interview, Mr. Cooper was asked if Tanlac would relieve kidney trouble, liver complaint, rheumatism and a dozen other ailments, and in this connection said:

"As I have repeatedly said; my medicine acts directly on the mucous membrane, stomach and blood, expelling from them the impurities and toxic poisons, and rendering to them a strong, healthy condition. I am convinced that the stomach regulates the condition of the blood, and is the fountain head of health or disease, as the case may be. My medicine is intended primarily for the regulation of the stomach and catarrhal inflammation, but it is no uncommon thing for persons who have used it to come to me and explain that it has relieved them of rheumatism and many other ailments, not generally recognized as having their origin in stomach trouble."

"The ingredients or medicinal elements which make Tanlac, come from remote sections of the earth—the Alps, the Pyrenees, Russian Asia, West Indies, mountain states near the Rocky mountains, Mexico and Peru are among the points from which the principal parts of the preparation are obtained. In the principal laboratory of the Cooper Medicine Co., Inc., under the efficient direction of a chemist of note, those medicinal herbs, roots and barks are assembled in the rough and painstakingly developed so as to attain that high standard of efficiency shown by the uniform preparation—Tanlac.

preparing for service across the sea. Trolley car connection between Sioux City and Dakota City, Neb., will be severed tonight. Announcement was made at Dakota City yesterday that after midnight Sunday the service of the Crystal Lake and Dakota City Street Car company would be discontinued. Already two blocks of rails have been torn up from the streets of Dakota City. The company has sold the rails between Crystal lake and Dakota City. It is the plan to run street cars between South Sioux City and Crystal lake during the summer months. The present car system between Sioux City and Dakota City was built about twelve years ago. At that time it was planned to run the line to Homer. The company built as far as Dakota City, but never pushed the line to Homer. Originally gasoline engines were used to pull the cars. The company station was located near Water street in West Third. The tracks of the Sioux City Service company were used as far as South Sioux City. Later the gasoline engines were dispensed with, electric current being obtained from the Sioux City Service company. The line has been a losing proposition since its organization. It has been in bankruptcy court several times, and recently was ordered junked. The result of this order is the tearing up of the Dakota City division of the line.
