Lyons Mirror: Our old friend Judge R. E. Evans, republican candidate for congress, was a pleasant caller at this office yesterday.

Sioux City Journal, 31: Albe G. Cowrie, a son of A. B. Cowrie of South Sioux City, has been appointed a corporal. He is stationed at Camp Devins, Mass.

Newcastle Times: Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Jacobson returned home from Dakota City Wednesday. Mrs. Jacobson has been helping in her sister's store there. Professor says he picked some real corn while he was away.

Sioux City Journal, 1st: The Midwest State bank has received from the treasury department a certificate of distinguished financial service for having subscribed for 100 per cent of its quota of certificates of indebtedness for the fourth Liberty loan.

Walthill Citizen: Mrs. Chas. VanCleave of Homer, came today for a visit with her relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Jackson... Mrs. W. E. Clooney and baby returned home to Sioux City last Friday night after a visit at the George H. Lamson home.

Fonda, Iowa, Times: Chas. Westcott, representing the Curtis West and Door company, was a caller on Henry Dorton at the Dixon Lumber yard Wednesday. Mr. Westcott lives at South Sioux City and is one of the live Dires of that town. He called at the Times office while here and renewed acquaintance.

Ponca Advocate: The Spanish flu continues to claim its toll—Mr. Free Pounds dying Sunday. Mr. Pounds was an excellent man and is highly spoken of by all his neighbors. This is a particular sad case. About two years ago Mrs. Pounds died leaving her husband and three small children, ranging from two weeks to five years, who are now orphans. The children will undoubtedly be cared for by their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Leedom.

Pender Times: The hearts of the people of this community go out to the family of the late Free Pounds in their bereavement. He was well known and esteemed in Pender, where he grew to manhood. Among those who attended the funeral from a distance were, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Pounds and M. C. Pounds of Scotts Bluff, W. E. Pounds of Pipestone, Minn., Jesse Graves and daughter of Hubbard, and Joe Leedom and wife of Hubbard—the latter being the father-in-law and mother-in-law of the deceased.

Sioux City Journal, 3rd: Miss Veronica Prager was a recent visitor in the home of Miss Marie Bourdelaie, at Hubbard, Neb.... The body of a man believed to be Fred Knecht was found in the Missouri river near the Floyd monument by two boys, L. J. Lambert and Otis Ballard, yesterday. Knecht committed suicide on the night of October 18. He drove his car out to the middle of the combination bridge, and leaving it standing, walked to the railing and jumped into the river. Efforts to recover the body failed. Knecht was 24 years old and made his home with his parents, six miles from Winnebago, Neb. Officers who have a description of the suicide say there is no doubt but what it is Knecht. Knecht's parents offered a reward of $100 for the recovery of the body.

ONEONTA FIELD NAMED IN HONOR OF LATE MAJ. REAM

Request for Change Made to War Department and This Has Been Granted.

San Diego, Cal., Union, Oct. 15: Oneonta, rated as one of the finest and most efficient aerial gunnery schools in the world, has been officially named Ream field in memory of the late Maj. William Ream of San Diego.

Lieut. Col. Harvey Burwell, commander of Rockwell field, requested the war department to name Oneonta in honor of the popular flight surgeon. The war department promptly granted Colonel Burwell's request and in a special order, a copy of which was received here yesterday, the crack aerial gunnery school's name was changed to Ream field.

Major Ream had the distinction of being the first surgeon in the American air service to qualify as a military aviator. He was killed in August while flying with Lieut. Col. C. K. Rhinehart's flying circus. This flying circus consisted of a number of American, French and British airmen, touring middle western states with the object of giving people of those states an opportunity of viewing Allied warplanes.

Major Ream was one of the pioneer surgeons in the air service. He came to North Island shortly after the first squadron of army aviators arrived from Texas in 1913. In aeronautical circles he is credited with many innovations relating to the medical treatment and care of men engaged in flight duty. Major Ream was killed near Effingham, Ill., Aug. 24, while flying as a passenger in a military airplane enroute from Indianapolis to St. Louis.

Major Ream was born at Homer, Neb. He was 42 years of age and a 32nd degree Mason.

Demonstration Farm Flocks

The Extension Service of the University of Nebraska College of Agriculture has established or will soon establish demonstration farm poultry flocks in six counties. Flocks have been selected in Saunders and Gage counties and one will soon be designated in Lancaster, Clay, Saline and Cass counties. The purpose of these farms is to demonstrate the possibilities of profitable poultry keeping as a side line on the general farm, to establish centers from which standard bred poultry can be distributed throughout the community, and to secure data on the cost of poultry production on the farm. The work is carried on co-operatively by the poultry owner, the county agent, and the Extension poultryman of the University. The Extension worker visits the farms about four times a year, at which time all interested in poultry keeping in the community are invited to a demonstration.

UNITED WAR FUND HONOR EMBLEM

UNITED WAR-WORK CAMPAIGN

Here is a small picture of the colored emblem that soon will flash forth from every loyal American home and from the millions of offices throughout the land. Pasted on your window or your desk, it will show that you have contributed to the support of the seven organizations who are looking after the comfort of the boys "over there" and at the various camps at home.

The seven war work organizations united in this drive are the Young Men's Christian Association, Young Women's Christian Association, National Catholic War Council (Knights of Columbus), Jewish Welfare Board, War Camp Community Service, Salvation Army and American Library Association. In the border of this poster are the official seals of these societies.

The American people are asked to give approximately $260,000,000 in this drive. The drive begins November 11 and continues for one week. An army of volunteers has been mobilized to solicit the money. Your subscription will entitle you to one of these badges of honor.

TWO DAYS' PAY IS YOUR SHARE FOR WAR WORK FUND

Comforts for "Our Boys" in the Military Service Furnished by Allied Organizations.

"Seven Big Drives in One" During the Week of November 11-18.

You are asked to give two days' pay to the United War Work fund during the week of November 11-18.

Heretofore, each of the seven independent war work organizations represented in this campaign put on its particular drive whenever additional money was necessary. Your contribution, no doubt, to each.

President Wilson has now asked that these organizations unite to raise their funds and pro rate the total according to the needs of each.

"This united drive," a national officer explained, "means that you, and every other loyal American, must give more this time than you have ever given before. But in doing this you will have given no more in the end than if you should contribute a smaller sum to each of the seven different drives which otherwise would be made. And you will save the enormous work and heavy expense of conducting seven drives."

"To raise the quota under the united plan, it has been found that two days' pay for all of us will suffice. Two days' pay—wages, salary, total income or whatever it may be in your case—will mean that the boys fighting your battle, offering their lives for you, will have the little comforts that keep up their fighting spirit. It will mean more than that; it will mean that the war will be brought more quickly to the only end that can come—a victorious peace.

"Do your little bit here and the boys will do the rest over there."

New Extension Specialists

C. E. Gunnels, director of the Extension Service of the University of Nebraska College of Agriculture, announces the addition of two new specialists. They are H. O. Werner, horticulturist, who will give special attention to potatoes and truck gardening; and C. T. Coraman, poultry specialist of the United States department of agriculture, who will be located at Lincoln and work in conjunction with the State poultry specialists.

NEBRASKA GIRLS PAINT BUILDING FOR WAR WORK FUND.

Miss Bernice Branson of Riverside Farm, near Lincoln, who contributed scores of her interesting sketches to the Nebraska University "Cornhusker," has reproduced a most attractive poster on the Women's Building, United War Work Campaign, which is on the Douglas county court house grounds.

The young Nebraska artist developed a splendid portrayal of the great work being done by women to win the war and make it possible for men to do their great part. Her poster is three by five feet.

Miss Helen Eastman, a young Omaha artist, reproduced her beautiful War Work Campaign poster on the other side of the building while Miss Branson was painting hers.

How War Work Money is Divided.

The financial harvest to be garnered in behalf of United States soldiers by the United War Work campaign November 11-18 will be divided as follows: The Young Men's Christian Association will receive 58.05%, Young Women's Christian Association 8.80%, National Catholic War Council (Knights of Columbus) 17.60%, Jewish Welfare Board 2.05%, War Camp Community Service 8.80%, American Library Association, 2.05%, Salvation Army 2.05%. This is the quota each has asked for.

The seven great organizations amalgamating for the United War Work campaign are working splendidly together, racial, religious and sectional feeling being practically obliterated. In Omaha, for example, it is reported that a Catholic priest secured a contribution of a dollar from a Chinaman for the benefit of the Jewish Welfare Board.

All the organizations of the United War Work campaign, ever since the war started, have extended practical help to soldiers, at home and overseas, without thought of race, nation or creed.

Beacom's Big Durocs at Auction.

FRIDAY, NOV. 15, 1918

I will offer 35 Big Type Boars for sale that are big and growthy. Many of them are sired by that great big type Boar, "Grand Model 16th," that I won third on at Sioux City. He weighed over 800 pounds at 24 months. Others are sired by Orion King E., Cherry Orion A., and Long Critic. This will be one of the good offerings of the year, so don't fail to attend.
