A small bottle of "Danderine" makes hair thick, glossy and wavy.

Removes all dandruff, stops itching scalp and falling hair.

To be possessed of a head of heavy, beautiful hair; soft, lustrous, fluffy, wavy and free from dandruff is merely a matter of using a little Danderine.

It is easy and inexpensive to have nice, soft hair and lots of it. Just get a small bottle of Knowlton's Danderine now—it costs but a few cents—all drug stores recommend it—apply a little as directed and within ten minutes there will be an appearance of abundance, freshness, softness and an incomparable gloss and lustre, and try as you will you cannot find a trace of dandruff or falling hair; but your real surprise will be after about two weeks' use, when you will see new hair—fine and downy at first—yes—but really new hair—sprouting out all over your scalp—Danderine, we believe, the only sure hair grower, destroyer of dandruff and cure for itchy scalp, and it never fails to stop falling hair at once.

If you want to prove how pretty and soft your hair really is, moisten a cloth with a little Danderine and carefully draw it through your hair—taking one small strand at a time. Your hair will be soft, glossy and beautiful in just a few moments—a delightful surprise awaits everyone who tries this. Adv.

"What you want ain't what you need!" retorted Claudine, the waitress. "You need a book on etiquette. If manners had been raining down from Heaven forty days and nights you'd still be a rube. Try that on your canny!"—Kansas City Star.

WILSON IS AT WORK

PRESIDENT RETURNS TO HIS TASK IN FRENCH CAPITAL.

WELCOMED BY PARIS PRESS

The Journal Convinced that It Means Early and Positive Results from the Peace Conference—Studying Opinion in United States.

Paris.—President Wilson has conferred with Premier Lloyd George, Premier Clemenceau and Col. Edward M. House in the latter's office. When the president arrived, accompanied by his wife, he was cheered by the crowds around the Hotel de Crillon and he acknowledged the greeting with a salute.

Paris.—President Wilson, returning to the peace conference after his trip to the United States, arrived in Paris shortly after noon Friday. The president's train, which had been delayed on the way from Brest, reached the Invalides station at 12:07 o'clock.

The return of President Wilson is welcomed by the morning newspapers in editorials.

The Journal says that it means early and positive results from the peace conference, adding: "There is no doubt the president comes back with the full resolve to wind up the war promptly."

The editorial writers also are occupied with the present state of public opinion in America. The Figaro said that the United States by sharing the war and by the prominent role it has played at the peace conference, has become one of the principal actors in European and world policies, but added:

"But will the United States desire to be of the same mind once the treaty of peace is signed? Will it not rather yield and go home for good, leaving old Europe to work out its salvation by itself? The sudden withdrawal of the United States would have regrettable consequences because there are several problems which we, the British, Italians and French, would settle in quite a different way than if America was a factor. As far as can be judged, however, it does not seem that such an eventuality is to be feared."

Comment of Press.

In commenting on the return of President Wilson to Paris the Matin said:

"The alliance with the United States is necessary to the peace of the world and to the existence of France. It means forever a precious help against possible aggressions. France looks upon Mr. Wilson as the powerful friend who splendidly helped her to win, and will now stand by her when she is to make her legitimate demands heard."

The Petit Parisien, said:

"The decisive days are near at hand for the peace conference. The president of the United States will join in the supreme debates. He will exercise his personal influence on behalf of the whole of humanity. He returns from the new world after fighting his opponents and the skeptics with new prestige arising from his splendid speech at the Metropolitan opera house."

"Mr. Wilson," says L'Homme Libre, "will bring to the peace conference an accurate idea of the real wishes of his country and of the political necessities, which in the present condition of the American political situation must be conciliated with the pursuit of the ideal of international co-operation. It will now be all the more easy to make this adjustment as the labors of the conference have progressed greatly. A few sittings will, no doubt, be sufficient for the realization of unanimous accord between the heads of the great democracies with regard to the principal questions, territorial arrangements and military, naval, aerial, economic, financial and social conventions. In short, the covenant of an association of free nations."

"Everything is ready for a final and brief consideration. The people expect it and hope that peace will soon give them cause to be fully satisfied with their envoys."

Czechs Hang On.

Trozky was returning to Petrograd from a visit to the red army on the Riga front. When the train stopped at a small station three members of the red guard fired several shots at him as he was leaving a sleeping car.

BERLIN REVOLT ENDS

SPARTACANS YIELD TO EBERT TI. OOPS UNCONDITIONALLY.

German "Reds" Surpass Russian Bolsheviks in Murder and Robbery.

Berlin, March 14.—The Spartacists have surrendered unconditionally to the government. They are giving up all arms and ammunition.

These terms, imposed on the reds by War Minister Noske, after the Spartacists had asked for a truce, virtually mark the end of the red terror in Berlin. Spartacism is spreading in the provinces, however.

In Dusseldorf (a big industrial city on the Rhine), an incipient revolution has been suppressed by machine guns and artillery.

The Spartacists visited Herr Noske, secretary of military affairs, to inquire into peace conditions, the newspapers say. It is rumored that after protracted negotiations Herr Noske demanded unconditional surrender of the Spartacists, and also possession of all their arms.

RIOTS have occurred in various German towns outside Berlin and a Spartacan revolt has broken out in Hamburg.

The behavior of the Spartacists in Lichtenberg, a suburb of Berlin, during the past three days' fighting, was worse than the bolshevik cruelties in Russia.

All well-dressed citizens appearing on the streets were robbed and many were killed. Several persons were decapitated and the heads were carried through the streets by female Spartacists.

The government troops, it is added, continue to kill every prisoner they take. The street fighting in Berlin had largely been transferred to the traction subways. The muffled roar of artillery and machine guns was heard coming from the tubes.

The steamship Ohioan arrived from Bordeaux with 1,627 troops, a majority of them of the 34th Infantry of the Eighty-seventh division (national army men of Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi) machine gun company, companies C, G, H, K, L and M, a sanitary detachment, and the headquarters of the Second battalion.

STRIKE DELAYS BIG LINERS

Vessels Are Tied Up by Walkout of Longshoremen at New York.

New York, March 12.—With many of the great transatlantic steamship lines here tied up by the strike of longshoremen, which was called in support of the striking harbor workers, threats were made by the Marine Workers affiliation to renew the strike against the railroad administration based on the alleged violation of some of the terms of the recent settlement. The independent boat owners again have rejected the terms under which settlement between railroads and their harbor employees was reached.

SMOKING TOBACCO FACTS FROM THE ENCYCLOPAEDIA

The Use of Flavorings Determines Difference in Brands

The Encyclopedia Britannica says about the manufacture of smoking tobacco: "...on the Continent and in America, certain 'sauces' are employed ...the use of the 'sauces' is to improve the flavour and burning qualities of the leaves." Which indicates that a smoker's enjoyment depends as much upon the flavoring used as upon the tobacco.

Your nose is a sure guide in the matter of flavorings. Try this simple test with several tobacco brands: pour some tobacco into your palm, rub briskly, and smell. You will notice a distinct difference in the fragrance of every brand. The tobacco that smells best to you will smoke best in your pipe, you can rest assured.

Carefully aged, old Burley tobacco, plus a dash of pure chocolate, gives TUXEDO Tobacco a pure fragrance your nose can quickly distinguish from any other tobacco. Try it and see.
