CORRESPONDENCE

HOMER

Ruby Harris of Hubbard, visited relatives in Homer last week.
 Miss Gertrude McKinley of Sioux, visited her parents, B. McKinley and wife, Sunday between trains.
 Roy Crippin and wife and Nelson Smith and son Raymond, were Sioux City visitors Sunday night.
 The Misses Nadine Sheppardson, Olive and Alice Leamer and Edna Ochander went to Rosalia Sunday to fan for the baseball team. Eleven innings were played, ending in a tie of 1 to 1.
 The Misses Pomeroy went to Rosalia Sunday to the ball game.
 Prof. Swett and wife were dinner guests at the Chas. Hinerote home on Sunday.
 Mrs. Alice Walters, of Des Moines, Iowa, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jane Welker.
 Mrs. Green, who visited her daughter, Mrs. Pete Kautz, for a week, returned Monday to her home in Hoskins.
 Mrs. Geo. Skidmore, of Sioux City, was a between train visitor at the Mrs. Rachael Kinnear home Sunday.
 Miss Alveeta Midkiff came home Saturday from Sioux City, where she took treatments in St. Joseph's hospital for a few days.
 Frank Beardshear has returned from Texas for the summer.
 Mrs. Maj. Stidworthy and daughter Margaret returned Saturday from Lincoln, where Miss Margaret has been attending high school. Dr. Stidworthy is the happiest man in town now.
 Raymond Smith arrived Friday from overseas. It was quite a surprise, as they had no word of his having landed in the United States. The Misses Lulu and Ardith Harris were guests at the T. D. Curtis home over Sunday.

 Harry Brown was down from Salem Friday and called on his brother, S. A. Brown.
 Mrs. Clyde Meyers and baby of Emerson, came down for the play.
 Harold Lathrop and Frances Davis motored to Sioux City Friday.
 Albert Probst and wife were Sioux City visitors Saturday.
 Willie Nixon came home Saturday from Atchison, Kan., where he had been attending college, he being one of the graduates.
 Mrs. Leslie Churchill visited her brother, Dick Wilson, and wife in Minneapolis several days last week.
 Mrs. Vic Nelsen of Jackson, visited at the Jimmie Nelsen home Friday and took in the play.
 Born, to Mr. and Mrs. John Blacketer, June 7, a daughter.
 The sidewalk bicycle ordinance here amounts to about as much as a German threat to lick the U. S. A. The boys parade the sidewalk on their wheels two and three thick on the wide streets a block from the marshal's home and keep one eye that way to see if he is coming. They exceed the speed limit, too, and if a child happened in their way I don't know what would happen.
 Mrs. Rasmussen Fredericksen and daughter Stella, of Newall, Iowa, arrived Friday for a several days' visit with relatives.
 Peter Sorensen and wife were Sioux City visitors Saturday.
 Miss Helen Bolster went to Sioux City Saturday to spend Sunday with her friend, Miss Mildred Webb.
 We have had several billion dollar rains—now we need a billion dollar sunshine to even things up.
 Sam Garner had the misfortune to run a rusty nail in his foot last Monday.
 Norman Loomis is of this side of the pond, returning from France, and is expected here soon.
 Hans Olson is another overseas boy home last week.
 The senior play was well rendered and well attended. Everyone did so well that it is hard to say which was best. They showed good training and deserve praise for their efforts.
 E. J. Eames, one time editor of the Homer Echo, but at present register of the land office at North Platte, with his wife and youngest child passed through Homer north bound Sunday, going to Rochester, Minn., for an operation. Those who saw him say he is so thin they hardly knew him. He was familiarly known here as "Fatty Eames."

 Miss Marjorie McKinley spent Saturday and Sunday at the B. McKinley home.
JACKSON
 M. Quinn is having some cement walks laid around his property this week.
 Mrs. H. F. McKeever and son Eugene, left this week for Jefferson, S. D., to spend the summer vacation in the home of Mrs. McKeever's sister, Mrs. Maggie Melvin. Eugene expects to assist his cousin, Will Melvin, in the bank.
 The Misses Pauline Hall and Kathleen Ryan arrived home from Akron, Iowa, the last of the week, where they closed a term of school.
 Minnie Mixer departed Monday for Fremont, Neb., to attend summer school at the Fremont Normal.

 Mrs. Victor Nelsen and little son, Freeman, returned Saturday evening from a week-end visit with relatives at Homer.
 Rose Hartnett spent several days last week with friends in Sioux City.
 Mrs. Fred Schneider arrived here Monday from Sioux Falls, S. D., for a week's visit in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Riley.
 Thos. H. Sullivan has been appointed agent of the Atlas Elevator Co. here, H. Goodfellow, the present agent, having resigned to take charge of the Elevator at Goodwin, which he recently purchased.
 Harry Eckland, of Mandan, N. D., arrived here Monday to visit his sister, Vera Boler, and other relatives. Quite a number of the local Knights of Columbus attended an in-itation and banquet at Emerson on Sunday. On account of the rain several had to leave their cars and return on the train. Among those going in with the class from here were John Heenan, sr., Harold Hall, Harold and Frank Boyle, Wm. O'Neill and Geo. Heffernan.

 A very creditable play was presented by the senior class of Saint Catherine Academy Tuesday evening, June 10th. The title of the play was "The Unknown Martyr." The scene is laid in Rome during the days of the persecutors of the Christians. Each member of the cast did their part exceptionally well and the play was much enjoyed.
 Misses Nell and Mildred Maloney departed for Chicago to attend the graduating exercises of their sister Mayme Maloney and cousin Madeline Davey, from the Chicago School of Physical Education.
 Invitations are out for the graduating exercises of Saint Catherine Academy Thursday morning, June 12, at 9:30. The graduates are: Eileen Margaret Hartnett, Mildred Rosalie Ryan, Madeline Cecelia Hall, Mona Gertrude Nordyke, Mary Celestine Sheahan, Helen Teresa Twohig, Mildred Genevieve Cavanaugh, Josephine Ann Tate, Rosann Catherine Suing, Helen Josephine Beacom, Anna Evangeline Curley, Mary Cecelia Mills, Bernadetta Marion Pexa, Marie Gertrude O'Rourke, Helen Marie Swift.
