

CORRESPONDENCE

HUBBARD

Mrs. Joe Maurice of Woonsocket, S. D., is here visiting relatives. J. Jessen, wife and daughter, Sunday with friends in the country. The Farmers' Union met at the Chris Miller home Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Schroeder and son Leo were in Sioux City the past week. Mike Green, W. Duggan, Rose Stevens, Mrs. James Howard and son James and daughter Mary, Mr. and Mrs. Len Harris, Mrs. Varvais, Mrs. Dan Hartnett, Mrs. Hood and little son were city goers last week. Quite a number from here attended the funeral of D. Hogan at Jackson last week. Mrs. John Jessen visited friends in Nacora last week. Mrs. John Green visited a couple of days the past week with friends in Sioux City. Mrs. John Hayes and little daughter left Friday for their home in Chicago after a three weeks' visit here with relatives. The J. Ryan family of Jackson visited last week in the Tom Cullen home. A new barn is being built on the Mullen farm now occupied by John Dawkins. Mrs. August Andersen returned to her home at Wood Lake last week. She visited a couple of weeks with relatives here. Mr. and Mrs. Storey and little daughter motored to Sioux City one day last week. Miss Baumgardner of South Sioux City, was a guest in the Darrow home Sunday. Mrs. Emil Young and children visited relatives in South Sioux City the past week. The Fred Bartels family visited in the George Bartels home out on the bottom the past week. Mrs. Minnie Francisco and children motored to the city the past week. Mrs. Emil Young enjoyed a visit from her sister, of Kilgore, Neb., the past week. Florence Graves was in Sioux City the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Waters entertained several relatives and friends from Sioux City the past week. James and Theresa Green attended a party in Jackson last week. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Hagan and daughter Mary were visitors last week in the M. Green home. Mr. and Mrs. R. Johnson entertained friends at dinner last Thursday. Mrs. John Hartnett and daughters Bonnie and Mary, Mrs. Tom Long and daughter, Mrs. F. Welsh, Mrs. Dan Hartnett and Mr. Jones were city shoppers Saturday. George Reiss was in the city one day last week having dental work done. M. C. Thorn visited friends in town last week. Mrs. Jesse Graves, Mrs. G. Deroin, Mrs. Emil Young and Mr. and Mrs. Len Harris were passengers to the city last Friday. Rose Stevens spent a day in the city last week. Mrs. Joe Leedom and grandson spent a day of the past week in the Sam Thorn home. Mrs. Saxon and children, of Minneapolis, Minn., are here visiting relatives and friends. Mrs. Pete Shearer and children visited in the home of her parents Sunday. Margaret Hartnett visited the past week with relatives in Sioux City. The Larsen family visited last Friday in the A. Andersen home. Mr. and Mrs. F. Nelsen, Mrs. Rasmussen and Mrs. Christensen motored to the city last Saturday. Miss McCaully was a city passenger last Saturday. Tom Long went to Omaha on business Monday. Alice Beacom was down from the city and spent Saturday and Sunday. George Portis was an over night visitor in Sioux City Monday. Guy Anderson and wife motored to the city Sunday. Augusta Larsen spent a couple of days the past week with friends in Sioux City. Chas. Varvais and wife were city shoppers Wednesday of last week. Rev. Andersen of Sioux City, conducted services in the Lutheran church here Sunday. The new dwelling of Louis Pedersen will be completed this week. A number from here attended the funeral of Grandma Nelsen in Sioux City Friday.

Marcus Miller is having a fine new house built on his farm. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Goertz and Mrs. Leo Biede motored to Sioux City last Friday. ——— JACKSON Scott Pullen is about to close a deal for the J. A. Hall general store here. Mrs. Catherine Jones has about recovered from her recent illness. She and her daughter Rita, expect to leave about January 1st for California to spend the balance of the winter. W. A. Baker has been appointed temporary rural carrier on route 1. M. E. Kennelly, also a temporary carrier, who has been serving as carrier for some time, has sent in his resignation. Mrs. Chas. Goodfellow and Mrs. John Flannery will be joint hostesses to the ladies of "St. Patrick's Guild" at the Mrs. Chas. Goodfellow home on Thursday, November 6th. All members are earnestly requested to attend. Mrs. Henry Francisco came down from Royal, Neb., last Wednesday to stay while the threshing is being done at her farm here. Her son Freeman, of Lusk, Wyo., also visited here last week. Mrs. Vida Mixer of Sioux City, spent last Wednesday night in the M. Zulauf home. Lee Kearney of Sioux City, was looking after some business matters here last Thursday and Friday. Master Daniel Hartnett fell on the sidewalk last Wednesday afternoon, fracturing his arm. Rev. J. F. McCarthy of Omaha was a guest of Rev. P. J. McCarthy several days last week. The Jackson high school boys defeated the Trinity college team of Sioux City in a game of football here last Friday afternoon by a score of 6 to 0. Mrs. Anderson and her daughter, Mrs. Maas, of Boone, Iowa, were weekend guests in the W. A. Baker home. James P. Goodfellow, who spent the past six months in St. Bernard's hospital, Council Bluffs, Iowa, arrived home the last of the week. Dr. Magirl spent Sunday with relatives in Omaha. Lee Hall, who is working at his trade at Dixon, Neb., spent over Sunday with his family here, being en route from Sioux City where he visited his mother, who is recovering from an operation. Mrs. D. F. Waters returned Tuesday evening from a week's visit with her niece, Miss Mary Clark, at Denver. Joe Twohig, while manipulating some machinery Tuesday, had the misfortune to break his front finger. Dr. Magirl reduced the fracture. Joseph Marsh installed a new piano in his home Tuesday. ——— HOMER Mrs. Will Jastram was a guest in the Chas. Davis home over Sunday. Wellington Smith, of South Sioux City, visited relatives here several days last week. Homer played football at Dakota City Friday and the game finished 6 to 21 in favor of Homer. This is the first time Homer has been scored against this season. Teddy and Claude Thompson of Sioux City, were visitors at home on Sunday. Seth Barnes, who was a Homerite for years, but who now lives in Omaha, had the misfortune to break his arm and mash his ankle. We did not hear how the accident happened. This is quite serious for a man of his age. Fred Kipper and wife were Sioux City visitors Tuesday. Mrs. R. J. Jones and Roberta, and Mrs. Ed Beardshear and two children were Sioux City visitors Monday. Mrs. Tyler of Salem, Ore., who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ed Beardshear, and relatives in Sioux City, returned to her home this week. Miss Helen Bolster spent several days with Mrs. H. A. Monroe in South Sioux and several days in Sioux City with her aunt, Mrs. Pete Andersen and family, and also with Miss Gertrude McKinley. Mr. and Mrs. Pete Andersen of So. Sioux City, were guests at the Pete Sorensen home Sunday. Their nephew, Harry, accompanied them. Mrs. Gertrude Blessing, of Oregon, was a Homer visitor Monday. Frank Kettler and wife and Miss Cora Sorensen and Ed Fox were visitors in Sioux City Sunday evening. Miss Helen Bolster was a guest this week in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Schlute. Raymond Smith has secured a position in an express office in Council Bluffs. Miss Christine Jensen was an incoming passenger from the north on Saturday. Will Crippen and wife, who have been visiting relatives here, departed one day last week for Cherokee, Iowa, to visit other relatives. His brother, Newt Crippen and wife accompanied them. Marvin Garner broke his arm last Thursday. He is the oldest child of Sam Garner. The youngest child is in a Sioux City hospital recovering from an operation for appendicitis. Jim Irby visited Sunday in the Geo. Jensen home. Walt Elliott left Monday to spend the winter months in Texas. He will look after his land interests while in the south. Jimmie Nelsen is on the sick list. Chas. Bristol and family of Keokuk, Iowa, were guests of his parents D. C. Bristol, the week-end. Sam Thorn went to Humboldt, Ia., last week to visit his mother. Mrs. John Blacketer had the misfortune to scald one of her feet a few days ago. The burn is quite painful. George Madsen and wife of Salem, visited in the John Blacketer home Sunday. Miss Lulu Harris, who teaches in the Meridian district, called on her friends in Homer Sunday. Miss Helen Bolster was a passenger to South Sioux Wednesday of last week, to visit in the H. A. Monroe home for a week. Mrs. Rev. Pendell of Morningside, visited last week with friends in Homer. Mr. Pendell was a former M. E. pastor here. Mrs. Wilbur Allen was knocked down Wednesday evening of last week by a boy riding his wheel on the sidewalk. We need a traffic policeman at every corner. Rev. Dally, an evangelist of the American Christian army, was "doing" the town for several days last week for funds to "carry on" the work of his organization. Mrs. Will Purdy and daughter, of Mankato, Minn., visited relatives here last week. She is a sister of Mrs. Harry Rasdal. Miss Leila Rasdal, who is attending high school in Norfolk, spent the week-end at home. Miss Freda Houts of Sioux City, visited friends in Homer the week-end. Little Orval Probst was taken to a Sioux City hospital Friday for the removal of his tonsils and adenoids. Malcom Smith spent the week-end at home. He is a student at the State University. Dr. Stidworthy departed Monday for a two weeks' hunting trip. Mrs. Stidworthy accompanied him part of the way. Mrs. H. A. Monroe of South Sioux came down Saturday and her sister, Miss Marjorie McKinley, who is teaching in Sioux City, accompanied her. Pa McKinley, who is batching, enjoyed their cooking. They returned to South Sioux City Sunday. Miss Margaret Ashford came down from Sioux City Friday to visit her father. Ralph Smith, son of Oliver Smith and wife, has secured a position as mail carrier between the depot and postoffice at Council Bluffs. ——— SALEM Mr. and Mrs. Charley Kate and children spent Sunday at the Vern Heikes home. A party was given Monday evening at the Ray Aughey home. Mr. and Mrs. Will Broyhill and Mr. and Mrs. Will Brady visited Sunday at the Eimer Broyhill home. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Heikes were Sunday visitors with Mrs. Heikes' mother in Morningside. Mr. and Mrs. Will Armbricht, of South Sioux, called one day the past week at the A. M. Armbricht home. S. A. Heikes made a business trip to Wakefield the first of the week.

Buy Here and Save $$$$$

Specials for Saturday

- Apricots—No. 2 1/2 cans—per can.....30c
- Peaches—No. 2 1/2 cans—per can.....30c
- Pears—No. 2 1/2 cans—per can.....30c
- Italian Prunes—No. 2 1/2 cans—per can.....30c
- Pancake Flour, 4-lb. sacks, per sack.....35c
- Oatmeal, large pkg.....30c
- Syrup—maple and cane—per bottle.....45c
- Jelly Powder, 3 pkgs. for.....25c
- Army Beans—No. 3 cans—per can.....20c

We pay Sioux City Market Prices for Butter, Eggs and Poultry
We also carry a full line of Fresh Fruits and Vegetables

Keir Bros. Grocery Co.

Telephone No. 31

Emmett H. Gribble

South Sioux City, Nebr.

Candidate For
Member Constitutional
Convention, 13th Dist.
DAKOTA AND THURSTON COUNTIES.

A Continuous Resident of Dakota County, Nebraska, Since 1867.

Your Vote and Support
Respectfully Solicited.

Election, Tuesday, Nov. 4, 1919

Buy your Boar Early and have the advantage of a Wider Selection.

I am holding no Boar Sale This Fall

This saves you money, for it costs to run a sale. I have a large number of big-boned, stretchy boars of good quality and breeding. They are priced to sell quickly.

Crystal Lake Stock Farm

John B. Evans, Prop. Dakota City, Nebr.

Security Insurance Company

OF NEW HAVEN, CONNECTICUT

JOHN H. REAM, Agent
Dakota City, Nebraska.

E. F. Rasmussen

Auctioneer

Ponca, Neb.

Write or phone me early for dates, as I will sell nearly every day this season. I am selling for the best farmers and stockmen in Northeast Nebraska. I have some good farms and ranches for sale.

Yours for Business.

Chesterfield CIGARETTES

of TURKISH and DOMESTIC tobaccos—Blended

You bet — "they satisfy"

"SATISFY" is an old word in the dictionary but an entirely new thing in cigarette enjoyment.

Know what a drink of cold water does for your thirst? Well, that's what Chesterfields do for your smoke-hunger. They satisfy.

It's all in the blend—fine Turkish and Domestic tobaccos combined by secret formula that cannot be copied.

That's why you want Chesterfields if you want "satisfy."

Moisture-proof package keeps them firm and fresh, whatever the weather.

Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.