The Truth About Cancer.

Dr. O. A. Johnson, Suite 530, 1324 Main street, Kansas City, Missouri, has published a remarkable book which should be in the hands of every cancer sufferer. It tells of the experiences of this specialist in the treatment of thousands of cases in the past twenty years. His treatment is non-surgical—the knife is not used. It will be sent gladly to any cancer sufferer.

Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrhal deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Many cases of deafness are caused by catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. Hall's Catarrh Medicine acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Medicine. Circulars free. All Druggists. J. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, O.

Never your mind, you fellows who are too darned lazy to clean the snow from your walks. You'll go to a place some day where a snow bank and a shovel will look mighty good to you. But alas, alack! There will be no snow there.

The sale of Martin H. H. whose farm adjoins Goodwin, Nebr., is advertised in this issue of the Herald for Wednesday, December 17th; also the sale of M. McTaggart, three miles west of Goodwin, which will be held Thursday, December 18th.

Buy Colorado Land producing 50 bu. corn, 25 bu. wheat, etc., $27.50 to $40 an acre; easy terms; sub-irrigated alfalfa land $50 to $75. Boom just starting; come to Denver before winter sets in and see land by auto. P. E. Hammond, Colorado Bldg., Denver, Colo.

In a letter from B. G. Harden, a former Dakota City boy, in remitting for the Herald, he writes from Fort Worth, Texas, saying, "I have been on the road for some time for a large broom corn concern of Wichita, Kas., traveling in Oklahoma, Arkansas and Texas. I have also been leasing and re-leasing city property in Wichita and Fort Worth. I recently sold out my interests in Wichita and am increasing my business at Fort Worth. On account of the big oil developments within the past two years Ft. Worth, and practically all of the southwest country has gone on the boom. All kinds of real estate is going up in price very fast. The weather is fine down here. I thought sure until this week, that I would get back to Dakota county for Christmas, but I took out a lease on a store building this week and will have to have it fixed up, and I will probably not come now until next spring, and will likely spend most of the summer in the north. Remember me to all the people up there."

OBITUARY.

Mrs. Sarah Jane Wood.

Word was received here the past week of the death at Woodbine, Ia., of Mrs. Sarah J. Wood, widow of the late Henry W. Wood. Both were pioneer residents of Dakota county and resided here until a few years ago. Mrs. Wood passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. L. W. White, on Wednesday morning, December 3, 1919, in her 83rd year. Her death was due to infirmities of age.

Her maiden name was Sarah Jane Abell, and she was born in Franklin, Delaware county, N. Y., on April 7, 1837. On October 23, 1855, she was married to Henry W. Wood, of the same place, and in the spring of 1858 this pioneer couple came to Dakota City, Neb., remaining here until the following year, when they returned to their old home in the east, where they remained until 1868, when they again came to Dakota county, making their home here the major portion of the time thereafter, until the infirmities of age compelled them to take up their residence with their daughter, Mrs. L. W. White, in Woodbine, Iowa, where Mr. Wood died on January 9, 1919, Mrs. Wood following him to that other shore nearly a year later. Both were buried in Ouleout Valley cemetery, at Franklin, N. Y., their childhood home. They had spent a long and happy married life of over sixty-two years at the time of Mr. Wood's death.

There were born to this couple five children, two of whom died in infancy; one, George Franklin Wood, dying in 1893, at the age of 26 years; and Mrs. L. W. White of Woodbine, Iowa, and Fred A. Wood of Sioux City, surviving.

Gertrude Harty.

On last Tuesday morning, December 2, 1919, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Harty, occurred the death of Gertrude Harty, a former Dakota county girl.

Gertrude Harty was born and reared to young womanhood in Jackson, Neb., where she attended school and was graduated from St. Catherine's Academy, later removing with her parents to Sioux City, where she since resided.

She was a girl of exceptional qualities and possessed a most charming personality, which endeared her to every one who knew her.

She had been an active teacher in the schools near the city, and was very popular in the younger social set.

Her death came very unexpectedly, she had been taken seriously ill on

Enabled Him To Stay On the Job

EATS ANYTHING—SLEEPS LIKE A LOG, AND WORKS HARD EVERY DAY, NOW.

"If it had not been for Tanlac, I would have had to quit my job," said Andrew Chachula, R. F. D. 5, Box 42, West Allis, Wis., while in the Central Drug Store, Milwaukee, recently. "My stomach was in horrible shape, and I had no appetite and could hardly eat a thing at all, and what little I did force down caused me awful suffering," continued Mr. Chachula. "I would have the worst sort of cramps in my stomach, and gas would form and cause pains in the region of my heart. I could hardly breathe and had a choking feeling in my throat. I also had severe pains across the small of my back and I could hardly bend over, and when I did I would have trouble straightening up again. I had terrible headaches nearly every day, and when they came on me I would have to quit work and go home. I could sleep, but very little because of the pains in my stomach and head, and lots of nights I would sleep only about an hour, and would get up in the morning feeling all fagged out."

"I became so weak and run down I was on the point of quitting work altogether when I read in the newspapers of the good Tanlac was doing others. I got me a bottle and began taking it right away, and I began at once to get better, and after taking several bottles I am like a new man, I have a fine appetite and eat anything I want without its hurting me the least bit. I never have those awful cramps in my stomach any more, and never suffer from gas or the choking feeling, and the pains around my heart are all gone. My back is all right now, and I never have a sign of headache. I sleep like a log and get up in the mornings feeling fine. I never had to lay off from work a single day since I began taking Tanlac and can do more work in one day now than I could in two or three days before taking this medicine."

Tanlac is sold in Dakota City by Neiswanger Pharmacy, in South Sioux City by Shane's Pharmacy, and in Homer by Wagner's Pharmacy.

Sunday afternoon, her sickness being caused from complications as the result of the influenza, from which she suffered a year ago.

Besides her parents she leaves to mourn her loss four sisters—Mrs. John Collins, of Marcus, Iowa; Mrs. J. W. Parks, of Morningside, and Anna and Charlotte Harty, who reside at home.

Many Farmers Buying Government Bonds

Authorities on farm finance are recommending U. S. Government bonds the best outside investment for the farmer's surplus funds that are not needed for investment in stock, machinery, etc., on the farm. These bonds pay from 4 1/2 to 4 3/4 per cent; they can be used as collateral to secure a temporary loan at the bank at the lowest local rate. Owning government bonds thus enables the farmer practically to finance himself for temporary loans. General holders of these government securities when they purchased liberally in the Liberty Bond drives. Thousands of them are continuing to buy heavily of government bonds and there is evidence that farmers will become one of the largest classes of bond holders. The government securities now available include the 25-cent thrift stamp, $5 war savings stamp, $100 and $1,000 treasury savings certificates (war savings stamps in larger denomination), treasury certificates of indebtedness in $500 denomination up (running a few months), and Liberty bonds in $50 denomination up. Saving stamps can be purchased from rural mail carriers or post offices. All government securities can be purchased thru local banks.
