OMAHA MAN HAS GAINED 10 POUNDS

FIREMAN ON UNION PACIFIC SAYS TANLAC HAS RESTORED HIM TO HEALTH.

"It was a lucky day for me when I found Tanlac, for nothing but a real medicine could do what a few bottles of it did for me," said Ira W. Polesley, fireman on the Union Pacific railroad, who lives at 2033 Elm St., Omaha, Neb.

"I had always been a strong and healthy man," he continued, "till about six months previous to the time I began taking Tanlac. Then my health began to fail and I soon got all out of fix. At the time my trouble started I weighed one hundred and forty pounds, but it wasn't long till I lost several pounds and just felt tired and worn out all the time. My appetite was very poor, and the little I did eat failed to nourish me properly and I couldn't work long at a time without feeling exhausted. My liver was sluggish and I had no ambition or energy. I often suffered from awful headaches and was nervous and restless all the time. I don't know just what my trouble was, but I felt miserable and unfit for work.

"I hardly knew what to do until a Union Pacific engineer told me how much Tanlac helped him and advised me to try it. It proved to be just what I needed for the first few doses made a big difference in feelings, my appetite soon came back and I could eat and enjoy anything set before me. On finishing my third bottle I found my health not only fully restored but I had actually gained ten pounds besides. In fact, I am heavier now than I was before my health began to fail. That tired, worn out feeling is gone and I have energy, ambition and strength to do my work with as much ease as I ever could. Tanlac is certainly a wonderful medicine and I am glad to tell everybody about the good it has done me."

Tanlac is sold in Dakota City by Neiswanger Pharmacy, in South Sioux City by Shane's Pharmacy, and in Homer by Wagner's Pharmacy.

Open Trapping Season in Nebraska

United States Department of Agriculture farmers' bulletin 1079, "Laws Relating to Fur-Bearing Animals, 1919," gives the following open seasons for Nebraska: Muskrat, opossum, and otter, November 20 to March 20; skunk and raccoon, September 20 to March 20; mink, December 1 to January 31. It is unlawful to destroy muskrat houses on the premises of another. There is no open season for beaver, but if the animals are damaging property a permit to destroy them may be obtained from the chief deputy, game and fish commission. There is no closed season for other fur animals; any except beaver may be taken at any time on one's own premises. The Nebraska trapping licenses are as follows: Resident, $2; non-resident, or alien, $10. It is unlawful to trap on the premises of another without consent of owner. The bulletin contains a summary of the laws in the United States, Canada and Newfoundland, relating to trapping, open seasons, propagation, and bounties. It may be obtained from the College of Agriculture, Lincoln.

County School Notes

(Bulletin No. 1, 1920)
When will the eighth grade examinations be given this year?

Answer—These examinations will come on April 1 and 2, and on May 6 and 7, 1920.

Are the eighth grade pupils required to take certain subjects on the first examination dates, or may they take the examinations in all of the subjects?

Ans.—They will be required to take an examination in all of the fourteen subjects on April 1 and 2. This may not seem possible for pupils to accomplish, but it is the program set by the state superintendent.

Is there to be a separate set of questions in bookkeeping, or will it be combined with the arithmetic?

Ans.—There will be a separate set of questions in bookkeeping. However, some of the things taught in arithmetic will be asked in the bookkeeping examinations.

Do you know some book that I could get that would give me the names, salaries, and length of the term of the officers that the eighth grade pupils should know? I have reference to the county, state, and national officers.

Ans.—I know of no one book that gives all this information. Accordingly, it will be sent to the schools in pamphlet form.

Do you advise the study for eighth grade examinations from books put out for that purpose?

Ans.—I do to a very limited extent, if you refer to the use of the Eighth Grade Question Book. An extensive use of this book is held by many leading educators to be improper, for then it cuts upon time and attention that should function through the Course of Study and, at the same time, makes a mere drillmaster of the teacher.

In this connection I will say that it is well known by the county superintendents at least that a good question book, sufficient time, and a drillmaster have even brought good seventh grade pupils through an eighth grade examination with the required grades, that would permit being graduated from the eighth grade. This did not give those pupils a grammar grade education however. This kind of work can be stopped now under the law. The State of Nebraska has ceased to be interested in having pupils pass the eighth grade examinations by being maneuvered through the grammar grades by some short-cut process. It is not even concerned materially in the number of years it may take a pupil to complete the course of our common schools. It wants a thorough education in the common branches first, then required grades, diplomas, and admission to a high school.

What is the required average and the minimum grade to pass the eighth grade?

Ans.—The law passed in 1919 sets 75 per cent as the average and 60 per cent as the minimum grade.

County Superintendent.
