Reed Found In Soviet Russia

Communist Long Sought on Charge of Conspiring Against United States.

MAKES ESCAPE VIA NORWAY

Lenine Welcomes Him as Envoy From United States Communist Party—Lived in Kremlin as Guest of Authorities.

Washington.—John Reed, close friend of Lenine and Trotsky, who is under indictment in Chicago for alleged conspiracy to overthrow the United States government, arrived in soviet Russia by way of Finland last December, it is learned. Since his indictment recently federal and Illinois state agents have been searching for Reed all over the United States.

On being told of Reed's presence in Russia—it is not known yet whether he has left there—the state department was interested to learn the channel through which he obtained a passport. The department is informed that he shipped as a sailor from an American port to Norway. From there he traveled on foot to Stockholm. There he stowed himself away, or was stowed away, on a vessel about to sail for Helsingfors.

The adventurous Mr. Reed narrowly escaped arrest in Helsingfors, but, disguising himself as a Russian peasant, he crossed the frontier into Russia. He was received in Moscow as the official envoy of the American Communist party, and as such attended the meetings of the third internationale, and made a speech at the All-Russian Soviet convention in the middle of December.

Lived at the Kremlin. In Moscow Mr. Reed lived at the Kremlin as the guest of the people's commissars. He was in constant communication with Lenine and Trotsky, it is stated.

Use Stones as Money, Says This U. S. Marine

San Francisco.—Stones, flat smooth ones, with holes drilled in the center, constitute the form of money the Yaps use, according to Marine Corps Sgt. Albert Bressnahan, who just returned from the Orient and who was a visitor recently at the island of Yap, a tropical isle in the Pacific, used as a trans-Pacific cable station.

"A Yap dollar stone weighs two pounds," adds the marine. "When the natives get on top of a mountain and pitch pennies it reminds one of a landslide."

DROPS THREE MILES

Aviator Has Thrilling Experience Trying for Record.

Oxygen Tank Begins to Fall and Flyer Almost Loses Consciousness.

Dayton, O.—Dropping 14,000 feet while six miles in the air and still alive today was an experience through which Maj. R. W. Schroeder, chief test pilot at McCook field and champion altitude flyer of the secret service, passed recently.

Major Schroeder formerly lived on Washington boulevard, Chicago. He made his first flight over the stock yards here ten days ago.

While making a maximum test flight in a Le Pere ship, in which he has been flying for altitudes, Schroeder noticed the thermometer of the ship. It registered 52 degrees below zero.

and visited the Red army at the front.

Mr. Reed was in Moscow until the middle of January. Of that the state department is quite certain. His reception in Russia was the warmer because two years ago Trotsky appointed him bolshevist consul general at New York. Mr. Reed never assumed that office, for, as it turned out, the appointment was made to facilitate his return to the United States.

It would seem that Reed anticipated that he would be indicted and so sought more hospitable shores. In the course of the widespread search for him as a fugitive from justice a man suspected of being Reed was arrested near Poughkeepsie, N. Y. This man proved that he was Harrison B. Ellis, that he had not been in Chicago for 15 years and had never uttered or written unpatriotic opinions.

Eighty-five big and little leaders of the Communist party in America were indicted in Chicago on January 23 last. Among them were Mrs. Rose Pastor Stokes of New York City, a member of the executive committee of the Communist party; Nicholas J. Hourwich of New York city, publisher of Novy Mir, the most prominent Russian newspaper in the United States, who formerly employed Leon Trotsky; Isaac E. Ferguson, chief counsel for the party, and Louis E. C. Fraire, editor in chief of all Communist propaganda in this country, who is in Mexico, it is believed.

The authorities here regard Reed, although he was graduated from Harvard, as one of the most earnest young Communists in America. Before the indictment which hangs over him was found, federal and state courts had indicted Reed for alleged seditious utterances and writings. But the indictments were quashed, or, on being tried, he was acquitted.

Grim End of Perfect Dream

Living Conditions in Russia Paintured in Dismal Colors by Prof. Zeidler.

DISEASE TAKES HEAVY TOLL

Typhus, Cholera and influenza Are Rapidly Depleting the Population—Cold, Hunger and Despair Are Lot of the Living.

Helsingfors.—Reports of serious living conditions at Petrograd have been received by Prof. Hermann Zeidler of Viborg, showing that typhus, cholera and influenza are taking a heavy toll of the depleted population.

Up to January 15 deaths in Petrograd were reaching a total of 3,000 a day. The coffin factories could turn out only 1,000 coffins daily, and most of the bodies were being carried into the country on sleds and left in the snow.

Many bodies were being dropped through the ice in the River Neva. Funerals were prohibited owing to the scarcity of horses and because of the depressing effect of funeral processions.

"Living conditions are intolerable," Professor Zeidler said. "It costs 30,000 Lenine rubles a day for food alone. Petrograd at night is without light and there is very little drinking water. Houses are flooded by the bursting of frozen pipes. The sewers are stopped and sanitary conditions are deplorable.

"A month ago the number of typhus cases was 300 a day and steadily increasing. Hospital conditions are indescribably bad. There is no bed linen, no medicines, no soap and no disinfectants, the last of the supply of substitute having given out January 1, when 35 disinfecting stations were closed.

"The people have given up hope and they do not wish to live. They make grim jokes among themselves as to how much longer they will hold out."

Conditions among the soviet peasantry, cost of living and scenes at Moscow and the other soviet centers are given by the staff correspondent of the Amsterdam Handelsblad, G. Nypels, just back from an extended tour through soviet Russia.

"At the railway station in Smolensk," the correspondent writes, "there is a long row of stalls in which people sit behind little barred windows and sell all sorts of merchandise."

"I noticed the prices. One pound of salted meat was 320 rubles; a pound of black bread, 100 rubles; a little piece of potato cake, 40 rubles. A little water glass full of makhorika (tobacco root) was 100 rubles.

"On the station platform one sees the soldiers lying about amidst the dirt which covers the ground. They roll their cigarettes with bits of paper torn from newspapers, and wait patiently for what will happen next.

"By the side of a big cash register stands a barmaid selling salted meat, cake and pastry to the smartly dressed men gathered about her. The poor devils lying on the ground do not even notice it, for they know very well that in the new state there are rich men and poor men just as before."

WHAT IS YOUR WIFE WORTH?

London Judge Says It's a Question Requiring Much Thought so Reserves Judgment.

London.—What is the cash value of a wife? Is a question which agitated the London divorce court for a time.

Counsel for the husband in a case, arguing on the question of damages, said that "the old theory that a wife was a chattel and that the jury had to award damages to the owner of the property still holds true with some slight modification."

"Then you call her a quasi-chattel," said the judge. The court found the matter too heavy for hasty decision and reserved judgment.
