

SONORA THROWS OFF MEXICAN YOKE

OFFICIALS PROCLAIM AN "INDEPENDENT REPUBLIC."

FEDERAL PROPERTY SEIZED

Customs Houses Taken Over in the Name of the "Insurgent Government."

Nogales, Sonora.—Customs houses and all property of the federal government of Mexico were formally seized in the name of the "republic of Sonora".

Sonora state officers headed by Gov. Adolfo de la Huerta, governor of Sonora, who has been proclaimed "supreme power of the republic of Sonora" by the state congress, declared while the state had seceded it would return to the Mexican republic upon guarantees from the national administration that there would be no infringement of the state's rights by the federal government.

The secession, according to the officials, was brought about by Carranza ordering federal troops into the state. They said the next move was up to Carranza. Unless he acts, political leaders of Sonora said, the new republic would defy the Mexican federal government and resist with armed forces any attempt of Carranza to take back the state by force.

Gen. P. Elias Calles, former governor of Sonora, and who recently resigned from the Carranza cabinet, has been made supreme military commander of the state's military forces. Calles has issued a proclamation calling for volunteers and calling on all soldiers in the state to rally against any threatened invasion by Carranza forces.

Spread of the secession movement to other states unless the Mexican government acts quickly was forecast here. The Sinaloa state congress, according to information received here, has endorsed the action of the Sonora congress in demanding constitutional rights, and Lower California, according to these reports, is expected to do the same. Sinaloa politics are closely interwoven with Sonora's and both states are largely controlled by Gen. Alvaro Obregon.

Gov. de la Huerta's seizure of the Southern Pacific of Mexico railroad, according to reports here, has won supporters in Sinaloa, where vast quantities of agricultural products are awaiting shipment. In an interview the governor said the state would hold the road within the state until the railroad arbitrated or otherwise settled the strike. The governor declared neither the strikers nor the officials have a right to tie up the road and cause perishable crops to rot. Crops now are moving freely over the road, which is being operated by strikers paid by the state, the governor said.

Officials of the Southern Pacific have appealed to the Mexican federal government for assistance, but Sonora state officials said any attempt by Carranza to force return of the property would be met by bloodshed.

A proposal to send a delegation of Sonora citizens to Washington in an effort to have the United States settle the difficulty will depend upon Carranza's answer to Sonora's secession, it was said.

SALVADOR PLANNING TO SHUT OUT THE AMERICANS

Proposed Plan Abolishes Pan-American Union in Washington and Other U. S. Organizations.

Washington, D. C.—After studying the state department's interpretation of the Monroe doctrine, sent several weeks ago, the congress of Salvador adopted a decree proposing the creation of a Latin-American court of arbitration with the United States excluded.

Should the proposed court so decide the Pan-American union with headquarters here, the Central American court of justice of Cartago and the international bureau of Guatemala, in the formation of which the United States was instrumental, would be abolished.

It was learned that copies of the decree had been communicated to the Central and South American republics.

As received here through other official channels the decree follows:

"The executive is hereby authorized to address the chancelleries of the Latin American countries through whatever instrumentality he may deem most suitable with a view to bringing to their knowledge and consideration establishment of a court of arbitration to settle international difficulties of any nature arising among the signatory powers, subject to the following conditions:

"1. Each of the signatory powers shall name through its respective legislative branch a judicial representative who shall serve for a period fixed by its constitution. The seat of the court shall be chosen by the governments.

"2. The signatory powers shall submit to the court all questions that might give rise to international complications wherever they cannot be settled by the members involved. In the event of a conflict arising between the signatory powers and another nation not signatory to the court, and no agreement having been reached, the signatory powers shall place all the documents in the case at the disposal of the court which shall proceed as it deems best toward the settlement of the difficulty. If, unfortunately, this friendly settlement should fail, notice thereof shall be given to the signatory powers so that they may make common cause and order the closing of their ports to the trade of the offending country; and should this not prove adequate they shall be bound to render assistance with their land and sea forces. The country benefited shall be obliged to bear the expenses, according to its resources and in the discretion of the court.

"3. The court shall aid in the construction of ships among the signatory which do not now possess them. These shall be devoted in times of peace to trade purposes and during the war to coastwise defense.

"4. Should civil war break out in a signatory power, the court may intervene to bring about a cessation of the horrors whenever it shall deem it necessary, and the other powers shall lend their aid as may be determined.

"5. The court shall devote special attention to the enactment of adequate, uniform legislation among the signatory powers and to stimulating the friendliest possible relations.

"6. The executive is hereby authorized to offer the capital of the republic to the other nations in the event that no other be chosen for the first meeting, and to pay the necessary expenses.

"7. Immediately after the installation of the Latin-American court, the Central American court of justice of Cartago, the international bureau of Guatemala and the international bureau of American republics (the Pan-American union) with its seat in Washington, shall cease to function.

Hoover Leads Edwards by 6,000

JAPANESE FORCES NOW OCCUPY VLADIVOSTOK

Russian Troops Escape to Surrounding Hills—100 Koreans Are Said to Have Been Arrested.

Washington, D. C.—Official dispatches telling of the occupation of Vladivostok by Japanese were received by the state department from the American consulate.

The dispatches summarized the situation as follows:

"The lines of the Japanese troops were gradually extended to cover the hills commanding Vladivostok during the latter of March, the Japanese flag was raised over Tiger hill, from which control of the railway station was possible, on April 1; fortifications were prepared; on April 2, Japanese demands were presented to the provisional government of Vladivostok; and the occupation of the city began at 10 o'clock, Vladivostok time, April 4, when Japanese troops moved in at the railway station amid general exchange of shots between the Japanese and the provisional forces.

"Up to 11 o'clock, April 6, no American had been injured. Most of the Russian troops, who were at Vladivostok escaped into the hills. Approximately 100 Koreans are reported to have been arrested."

The department's information is that the following notice, constituting part of an announcement published in the official Gazette at Tokio on March 31, regarding Japanese troops in Siberia, made public by the state department on April 3, was posted in various parts of the city of Vladivostok:

"The imperial Japanese government takes occasion to declare its intention that when political conditions in the country contiguous to or neighboring on Japan have become stable, and all menace to Manchuria and Korea have been removed, when the life and property of imperial subjects have been secured, when the freedom of traffic and communication has been guaranteed, it will then withdraw its military forces from all parts of Siberia at the earliest moment opportune after the conclusion of the repatriation of the Czechoslovak army."

Gen. Inouye, the Japanese military attaché here, summarized the dispatch from Tokio in the following statement:

"According to the proclamation to the Japanese government under March 31, negotiations between the Japanese army and the Russian authorities at Vladivostok were progressing very favorably with a view to agreeing upon a program of co-operation, whereupon, on April 4 the sudden aggressive action of the Russian army forced a battle with the Japanese troops at Vladivostok, Nikol'sk and Khabarovsk.

"At Vladivostok the Japanese succeeded in disarming both the Russian army and navy on the morning of April 5, but at Nikol'sk and Khabarovsk the fighting is still in progress. The Japanese command proclaimed that the disturbance was provoked by the threatened and aggressive actions of a portion of the Russian army and in disarming the Russians it had no other motive than to maintain order and peace. The Russian authorities are now being negotiated with in an endeavor to arrive at a harmonious future policy."

More Railway Money

Washington.—Additional appropriations of $436,000,000 to wind up federal control of railroads was asked of the house appropriations committee by Swager Sherley, director of finance for the railroad administration. Should this request be granted it would make a grand total of $1,886,000,000 that congress will have voted the railroads out of the federal treasury.

Little Truth in Hospital Complaints

Washington.—Congressmen and Surgeon General Ireland have received complaints from patients of the army and general hospital at Oteen, N. C., that guards of the hospital "struck patients with guns" and that "each meal was a riot," the war department revealed in an announcement that conditions at the hospital have been corrected. Col. C. C. Kinney, who conducted an investigation, found that the charges made by the patients were false. It was announced.

UNION MEN CALLS FOR PICKETING

Future Banner Bearers in Behalf of Irish Republic Will Be Prosecuted.

Washington, D. C.—The federal government moved to end picketing of the British embassy, renewed by women sympathizers with the movement for an Irish republic.

United States District Attorney Laskey informed Matthew O'Brien, counsel for the women, if his clients persisted they would be prosecuted under a federal statute which makes the offering of an insult to a foreign diplomatic representative or to his official residence a felony, punishable by a penitentiary sentence.

Simultaneously, Mr. Laskey communicated his decision to the District of Columbia commissioners, who instructed the police to arrest the women after warning them. Capt. Doyle and two police women were sent to the embassy in a patrol wagon and found Mrs. Mary Walker, Astoria, L. I., and Miss Mollie Carroll, New York city, carrying banners.

Capt. Doyle informed them that unless they left in fifteen minutes they would be arrested under federal statutes, but they refused to depart. After they had been taken to police headquarters and held for half an hour they were released on orders of Mr. Laskey.

The district attorney explained that the police had acted before Mr. O'Brien had had time to notify his clients of the government's decision.

An hour before the police intervened Mrs. Sophie Stanton and Mrs. Hattie Larkin, of this city, attacked two pickets who had preceded Mrs. Walker and Miss Carroll and were arrested on charges of disorderly conduct. They were released on depositing a cash forfeit of $25 each.

Mrs. Walker and Miss Carroll were not replaced at the embassy after the police took them away and leaders of the movement would not talk of their plans for the future.

The women had relieved two others who resumed picketing the embassy just before noon. While the women carrying banners were pacing up and down in front of the embassy a police patrol wagon rolled up and Capt. Doyle and two policemen got out. Walking up to the banner bearers, Capt. Doyle said:

"Ladies, these are the two police women who will place you under arrest."

The pickets offered no resistance and were taken to a nearby police station along with their banners. One banner bore this inscription: "American Abrogate All Treaties with England."

The other read: "American Women, Condemn Your Reign of Terror in the Irish Republic."

Special efforts to relocate coal cars diverted into western territory during the coal strike are still being made, the commission said.

Only 3,500 cattle, 5,000 hogs and 500 sheep reached the stock yards, as compared to receipts of 40,000 hogs alone a year ago.
