ALLIS-CHALMERS FARM TRACTORS

The 6-12

Two Leaders

The Allis-Chalmers 6-12 General Purpose for use with any standard four-horse implement. The Allis-Chalmers 18-30 which pulls four 14-inch bottoms, a 10-foot road grader, or operates a 28-inch separator, each with surplus power to spare.

What are the power requirements in your farm work—settle that in your mind and then make your choice from these two Allis-Chalmers models.

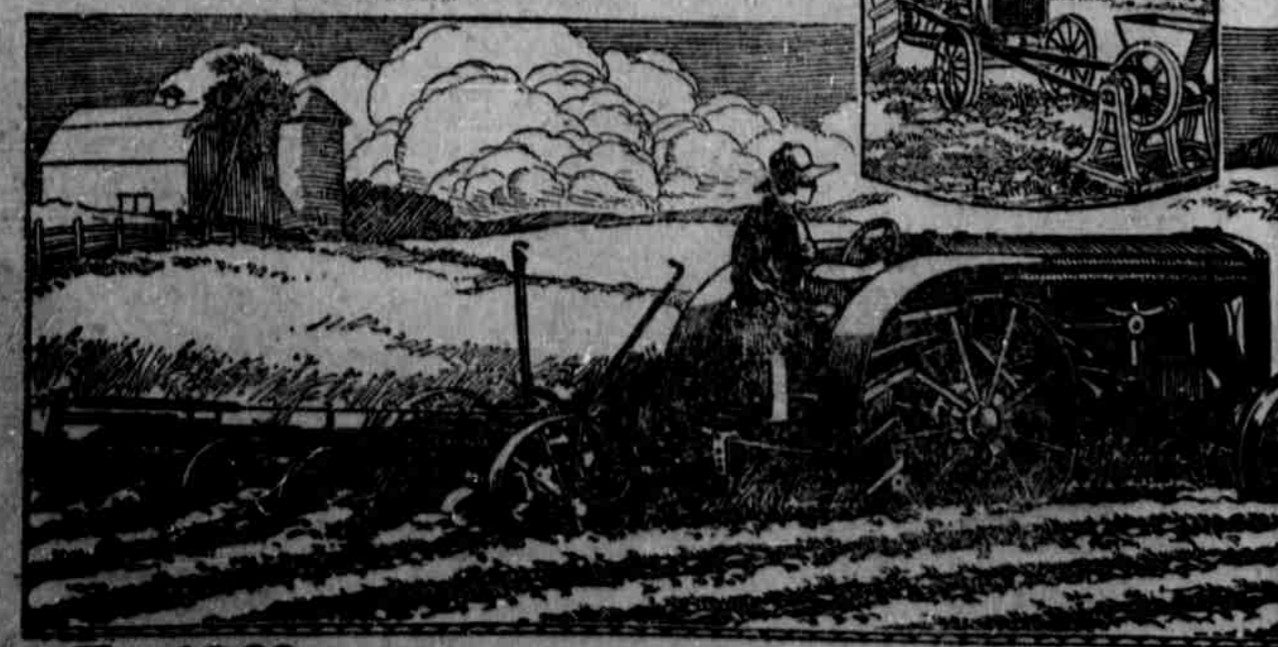

With the 6-12 any farmer using implements of 4-horse-size, can do his work better, faster, cheaper than with any other farm power.

On larger farms the 18-30 does heavy work at low cost and with a dependability which stamps it as the best large tractor built.
