

COX'S VARIED ROLES

By SCOTT C. BONE

At "one" with Woodrow Wilson and for Wilsonism and all it implies, without reservation, yet beseeching a weary, tax-burdened country to elect him President. That's Candidate Cox.

An exponent, for campaign purposes, of progressive thought and lofty ideals, yet nominated and backed by Boss Murphy, Boss Brennan, Boss Taggart and Ed Moore! That's Candidate Cox.

Wettest of the wet aspirants for President, save Edwards, by Bryan's appraisal, in a Democratic Convention dominated by the wets, yet now endeavoring to convince an arid country that he is dry and ever has been a dry! That's Candidate Cox.

Charging that a corruption fund of $15,000,000 was being raised to buy up the Presidency, and then, at safe distance from the seat of inquiry, raising the amount to $30,000,000, yet without producing an iota of evidence in support of his wild charges. That's Candidate Cox.

A machine-made politician, vouched for by Tammany, yet pretending to have been given the light in 1912 as a disciple of Theodore Roosevelt and Hiram Johnson! That's Candidate Cox.

Arraigning the press for not taking him seriously by printing his speeches, yet knowing, as a newspaper man, that the cost of print paper under this Administration is too high to give space to mere words! That's Candidate Cox.

Crying out against a mythical "Senate oligarchy," because the precious Wilson covenant failed of ratification, yet with full knowledge that hostility of Democratic Senators rendered ratification impossible! That's Candidate Cox.

A mild, dodging critic of Burlesonism and Palmerism, when confronted by hecklers out West, yet committed unqualifiedly to Burlesonism and Palmerism by the Democratic platform! That's Candidate Cox.

An apologist for the sinking of the Lusitania, a pacifist of the Newton Baker stripe as clouds gathered, and intervening on behalf of a rich slacker when war came on, yet today appealing for the support of American sons who went to the front! That's Candidate Cox.

Dry to the dries, wet to the wets, spirituelle to the spiritual, all things to all crowds, in the face of the G. O. P. landslide clearly impending, yet never daring to deviate in his devotion to Wilsonism or the Wilson League by the dotting of an "i" or the crossing of a "t"! That's Candidate Cox!

And, finally—an acrobatic Ajax defying the lightning of public disapproval! That's Candidate Cox.

Dr. Harding is hale and hearty and has use for neither glasses nor a cane. This was the fifth national encampment he had attended. He was the center of interest among his 60,000 comrades who attended the encampment.

VOTERS ENCOUNTER NO DIFFICULTY CHOOSING BETWEEN CANDIDATES.

Washington.—The American people are carefully making a close comparison right now between Senator Harding and Governor Cox. The choice between these two men and the policies they represent is not a difficult one and the writer honestly believes the American people have their minds made up and are ready to vote.

Senator Harding and Governor Cox are almost diametrically opposed to each other in everything. Senator Harding stands for Americanism and Governor Cox espouses internationalism. "Harding is cautious about what kind of a league he and his party goes into while Cox wants to wade right into the European league as proposed by President Wilson."

Senator Harding is careful, deliberate, dignified, sincere, serious and constructive, while Governor Cox is crafty, quick to seize upon any kind of an artifice; he is bombastic and impulsive.

Senator Harding has been a lifetime accumulating a moderate fortune while Governor Cox jumped into the multimillionaire class in a few years. Harding lives modestly and quietly in an unostentatious manner while Governor Cox lives in luxury on a large estate in a home costing half a million dollars.

Warren G. Harding will be fifty-five years of age on Election Day. He is old enough to know and young enough to do. His rival has not yet reached even the years of discretion.

WIDOW OF ROOSEVELT URGES ELECTION OF WARREN G. HARDING

In Statement Declares Country's Vital Need Is Victory for Republican Candidates.

FIRST BACK OWN COUNTRY.

Says Opportunity Has Come to Women to "Make Her Influence Mighty in Behalf of Nation."

Oyster Bay, N. Y.—Mrs. Edith Kermit Roosevelt, widow of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, is evincing keen interest in the Republican campaign. She recently gave to the press the following statement urging the election of Harding and Coolidge: "The country's vital need is the election of the Republican candidates.

MRS. EDITH KERMIT ROOSEVELT.

Warren G. Harding and Calvin Coolidge. Only will the full measure of Americanism in the next Administration be attained, if the people shall declare for the party which holds true nationalism as its high ideal. It is not necessary to forget our duty to our neighbor in doing our duty at home.

"The time appeals most strongly to the manhood and the womanhood of America. To woman more than ever before because to her has come the perfected opportunity to make her influence weighty in behalf of the nation.

"This year as never before, with world conditions as they are, steadiness and staunchness of American purpose are obligatory if we would first bring back our country to its stable place and then by strong endeavor do all that can be done for peace and the general welfare in all lands."

REPUBLICANS INSURE ECONOMICAL CONDUCT

Washington.—Not one man in ten thousand realizes the enormous expenses run up by the present Government. The disbursements are roughly $15,000,000 a day, more than a year after the war. In 1914 the people expostulated because the daily disbursements by the Treasury had reached $2,000,000. How gladly would the people groaning under the impositions of profiteers and the burden of taxes welcome a return to those halcyon days! Congress and the new Administration will have to deal with the reduction of Government expenditures.

The same party that has swelled them returned to power will never reduce them, because it claims the government is being economically administered. The Republican party will delight in reducing these enlarged expenses for clerk hire, and the insupportable bureaus that have been built up into money spending machines. By holding in their hands all lines of expenditures the new Congress and new Executive working together will cut down excessive items and eliminate others to an aggregate of hundreds of millions of dollars.

NATION DEMANDS THOROUGH CHANGE.

Chicago, Oct. 1.—If one were required to name a single factor which is doing more than any other to work toward Republican success in November, he would probably have to say: "Determination of the public to have a change and to get away from Wilsonism."

Reports from all quarters tell of this feeling, at once a desire for a change and a determination to bring it about at the polls November 2.

Whether it be from the central west, the far west, the east or the south, the reports tell of this seeking for a change. The desire for a change is born of dissatisfaction, dislike and disgust felt by the voters toward the Wilson administration and the things it has done and left undone.

Mr. Cox is looked on as a man who if he were elected would follow the track of Mr. Wilson. In fact, he has declared himself in "complete accord" with Mr. Wilson.

The public, by all accounts, is not looking for a man who will go along with Mr. Wilson or the Wilson policies.

Vote for RE-ELECTION of

CHIEF JUSTICE Andrew M. Morrissey

"The political parties have made no nominations for Chief Justice. The Chief Justice is not elected as a party candidate, but his name will be found with other Judicial Candidates, and school officers on a separate ballot."

"We favor the re-election of Chief Justice Morrissey because we believe in the law designed to take the courts out of politics and to elect Judges because of their qualifications."

"Six years ago when he became Chief Justice the court was about three years behind. Today the court is as nearly up with its work as it is practicable for a supreme court to be. Credit for this is not wholly due to the Chief Justice, but other members of the court who have contributed to this result give full credit to Chief Justice Morrissey for his share in its accomplishment."

"He has executive ability that gets results. He enjoys the friendship and co-operation of his associates. He has the respect and confidence of the lawyers who have business in the Supreme Court. He has helped to clear away many technicalities of the law. Law-breakers have been brought to justice and honest men enjoy the protection of the courts."

"If you are in doubt about how to vote on Chief Justice, ask your District Judge."—Lincoln Tribune.
