Catarrhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure Catarrhal Deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE acts through the blood on the mucous surfaces of the system. Catarrhal Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be reduced and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing may be destroyed forever. Many cases of Deafness are caused by Catarrh, which is an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces. ONE HUNDRED DOLLARS for any case of Catarrhal Deafness that cannot be cured by HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE. All Drugists 75c. Circulars free. F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio.

Lutheran Church Notes

By Rev. C. R. Lowe. We will celebrate the Harvest festival next Sunday. At that time bring a gift for Tabitha Home, canned fruits, potatoes, chickens, meats, clothing. But let the clothing be in wearing condition. Rev. Walter, the superintendent, says they receive hundreds of pounds of clothing that is not worth their fixing. He asks us not to send anything of that sort. Maybe you can send material for a new dress to a little girl, or better send it made up.

On Friday night, December 10, we will have at the church a spelling bee, such as we were used to when we were children. Everybody is to take part. We doubt if there is a "blue back" speller in the county, so we will get our words from some farm paper such as we all read. We will sing some old songs, visit with our neighbors and have a good time generally.

The ladies of our church enjoyed a pleasant afternoon at the home of Mrs. Herman Ebel last Thursday.

We urge you again to lay your plans to attend the catechetical lectures Sunday evenings beginning on next Sunday. Try to interest your neighbor. You have an important part in making it a success.

We have started our young folks on their work for the winter. Between now and New Year's day they are to learn the first chapter of Genesis. It would be a good exercise for us all if we would do this, especially our younger people.

How fine it would be if we were all willing to try to do the things asked of us in the church. Nothing unreasonable will be asked of you. Some things you haven't done might be asked but we can do a lot of things we never have done and find pleasure in them, too.

What is the Date? THURSDAY, DECEMBER 2 WHAT! Methodist Ladies Aid Society Bazaar, Supper, Program. NEW M. E. BASEMENT afternoon and evening.

Stock Feeders Review the Situation Nebraska stock feeders, in their annual fall meeting, decided that it will cost 11 cents a pound to produce beef at present feed prices. Corn was figured at 60 cents a bushel and alfalfa at $10 a ton. A good many men are feeding this year in the hope of obtaining a little more for their corn than they would by selling it for cash. Some are turning cattle and hogs in to the fields to avoid the heavy cost of husking the corn and marketing it in the usual way. The drop in grain prices and the tendency of the fat stock market to weaken are causing feeders to proceed with caution this year. While the feeders did not set any specific price they should have for their fat tosek, because of the varying prices at which the stuff goes into the feed lot, as well as some variations in feed prices, under conditions existing to date the feeder that receives less than 12 cents for his finished product will not be making much money. The meeting brought out that stock men are now carefully figuring the cost of fattening cattle and hogs. The day of hit and miss business is gone among the progressive feeders.

RED CROSS HELPS FORMER SOLDIERS

Many Thousands Are Given Aid Since Leaving Uncle Sam's Service.

When the millions of youths who composed America's war-time army checked in their packs, fingered their discharge fondly and hustled away from camp to return to the joys of civilian pursuit, many of them thought the American Red Cross had ceased to be an important function in their lives. It had furnished them with entertainment and other enjoyment and aid while in camp, but the great majority had never felt the need of the Red Cross before entering the service and they reasoned they would not need its assistance now that they were out of it again.

Since that time many thousands have learned to know otherwise. The Red Cross was their friend in the service and they naturally turned to it when trouble and complications beset them in civilian life.

Nearly a Million Aided. Through the Home Service Section, which has taken up the task of caring for the soldier and sailors after they leave the service and their families and dependents, nearly a million men have been given assistance of various kinds. This consists principally of financial aid, finding jobs, obtaining back pay, allotments and compensation.

The states in the central division are beginning to realize some idea of the volume of information work being carried on by the Civilian Relief, a part of the Home Service department. From 1,500 to 2,000 cases are handled from each state almost every month.

The Red Cross does not confine its activities to service men only. It also takes care of his family. In a little town in Nebraska recently a certain soldier stationed at the Alcatraz barracks for discipline was granted clemency and his term reduced. But he had become so despondent that he threatened to take his life.

Found Family Destitute. The Red Cross investigated the condition of his family and found they were in destitute circumstances and that his mother was ill. Moreover, it was found that he had been absent without leave to go to her. Upon presentation of the facts in the case the sentence was commuted and the Red Cross is helping the family to get on its feet.

The fact that all the returned bodies of dead soldiers are given a military funeral may be partly attributed to the Civilian Relief bureau. While the organization does not attend to the funeral directly, it gives instructions through the American Legion and where the family is financially unable to take care of the matter, the Red Cross comes to the assistance and offers relief.

Public health hospitals are filled with ex-soldiers whom the Civilian Relief service is taking care of. A large percentage of these are suffering with tuberculosis and shell shock.

Helps Get Compensation. Great service has been rendered by the Red Cross in mental cases in identifying those who have appeared in state hospitals for the insane, and helping them secure compensation due from the Bureau of War Risk Insurance.

In the federal board's various offices in the central division, the Red Cross worker, acting with the Home Service section, makes necessary loans to the men, arranges suitable living conditions, helps collect evidence and supply facts to the board, assists in "appealing cases" and settles various personal difficulties for the men. The workers also follow up and aid all men who discontinue training.

PERSHING'S TRIBUTE TO THE RED CROSS

"It gives me real pleasure to pledge my hearty support to the American Red Cross. While the opportunity for its greatest service comes during times of war, and its achievements during the late World war have been unparalleled, yet there is and perhaps there always will be a vital need for the humanitarian work which it renders. "The present and former service men can never forget the Red Cross, not only for what it did for them during the war, but for what it is doing now in the army camps and posts and wherever needed in assisting the ex-service men throughout the country. The value of the American Red Cross as a peace time organization can hardly be over-estimated, and we owe it our loyal support and active cooperation. "JOHN J. PERSHING, "General."
