WILSON TO TURN DOWN IRISH PLEA

"DE VALERA REPUBLIC" WILL NOT BE RECOGNIZED.

NEXT STEP U. S. DOUBTFUL

Petition Presented to State Depart ment Some Time Ago May Not Even Get a Reply.

Washington-President Wilson it was learned, has no intention of recorganizing ireland as an independent nation, as a result of the appeal submitted to him by Eamonn De Valera, "president" of the "Irish republic."

The attitude of the administration will be based on the view that the tests of recognition have not been satisfied by the actual establishment of the independent government.

De Valera sent his appeal to the president following the official assertion that it would not be entertained by the state department. Mr. Wilson transmitted it to the state department, where it awaits his instructions as to its disposition.

Whether the appeal will be replied to, remains to be seen. The communications of Martens, the soviet envoy, never have been honored with a raply. The expectation at the state will be either a reply to De Valera or an official statement setting forth the reasons that recognition cannot be extended.

Tumpity Offered Judicial Position. Washington, D. C., Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to the President, has been offered by Mr. Wilson an appointment to the customs court of appeals, but has reached no decision with regard to its acceptance. This was disclosed in a statement issued by Mr. Tumulty prompted by various published reports as to what his future plans were. The statement also took notice of reports that Mr. Tumulty planned to enter a law partnership. 'I have made no definite plans for the future," Mr. Tumulty said. "It is true that the president has generously offered to me a judicial post made vacant by the death of Chief Justice Montgomery, of the customs court of appeals. I have this matter now under consideration, but have reached no decision regarding it."

MURDERS AND REPRISALS

"Black and Tans" Scour Town in a Hunt for the Assassins-15,000 Persons Fired On.

Dublin.-Dublin became the scene of far spread murder and reprisal. Not since the first outbreak of the vicious civil warfare that has been shedding blood in Ireland have the assassinations been so concerted or the retaliation so swift and pronounced.

Not less than fourteen men are dead in the attacks arranged simultaneously all over the city. The method was the same in each case and all the men assassinated were officers, or former officers, or otherwise in the service of the government.

Small bodies of men, numbering generally from six to eight, presented themselves at various houses, called their victims out or entered and shot their victims in bed, while dressing or at breakfast. The districts in which the murders were committed were in some instances close together; others were separated by miles, but all the assassinations took place about the same hour, 9 o'clock in the morning.

While a football match was in progress at Croke park sixteen lorries filled with auxiliary police moved swiftly up and surrounded the place,

Accounts differ as to what happened, when, after mounting machine guns on the heights above, the police broke through the gates. The auxilfaries were hooted, and according to eye witnesses first fired in the air and then into the crowd. It is declared from another source that the Sinn Fein pickets first fired on the government forces when they were seen approaching and that the fire was returned.

Within the park the great assembly of 15,000 became panic stricken. How many were killed is not known as yet, but the estimates range from ten to thirty or more. Several are reported to have been trampled to death.
