

PALMER'S CONDUCT TO UNDERGO QUIZ

SENATE COMMITTEE CALLS ON ATTORNEY GENERAL

HEARING WILL OPEN TUESDAY

Alleged High Handed Methods Practiced by Head of Justice Department to Be Aired

Washington, D. C.—Attorney General Palmer will be called upon to defend himself before the judiciary committee of the senate on charges of ignoring and violating the law in his administration of the department of justice.

The attorney general has been the subject of bitter complaints almost from the moment he assumed office, and has appeared a number of times before congressional committees and has issued a number of statements, all explaining that his conduct in every instance was based upon what he regarded as his duty to the public.

It is rather significant that the investigation should have been asked by Senator Walsh, of Montana, a democrat, and a strong supporter heretofore of President Wilson.

Senator Walsh presented a report to the senate made by a number of lawyers calling attention to illegal practices by the department of justice. He suggested that it be referred to the judiciary committee and that the committee should take whatever action seemed proper and desirable.
