

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE

JACKSON

Hans Knudson and son attended the Mrs. Knudson funeral at Homer last Thursday. Mrs. T. H. Sullivan came home last Wednesday from St. Vincent's hospital where she had been the past month. Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Miller departed last Thursday for a ten days' outing, which they expect to spend at Omaha and Kansas City. Mrs. John McGovern of Denison, Iowa, is visiting her daughter Genevieve, at Willis, Neb. Tom Crosby motored up from Sioux City last Friday to his farm near Goodwin. Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Nelson and baby went to Laurel, Neb., last Friday to visit in the Steenback home. At Waterbury they were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Martin Beacom and Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Marron. Mr. Nelson returned home Saturday, but Mrs. Nelson and baby remained until Monday. R. E. McNulty, of Watertown, S. D., arrived here last week for a visit with his parents, Mr and Mrs. McNulty. The Joe Bolton home is under quarantine, Mr. Bolton being down with the smallpox. Mrs. J. C. Nichols and children returned Monday from a week's visit in the P. Nichols home near Ponca. Mrs. Mary Carpenter and family are moving to Mrs. Catherine Jones' house at Willis, and the Smith boys expect to move onto the Carpenter farm. Mr. and Mrs. John Ryan visited on Monday night with relatives in Sioux City. Mrs. Hubbard spent over Sunday with her sister at Emerson. Mrs. Joe Johnson returned to her home at Royal, Neb., last week after a visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Kennedy. The young folks enjoyed a free wedding dance given by M. R. Boler last Friday evening. J. C. Perucker is expecting to move to the Jackson hotel, recently vacated by M. Minnaugh. A number of the young folks of town enjoyed a bobbed ride to the Frank Budke home Sunday evening, where the evening was spent in cards and music. At the close of which refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee were served. Mildred Boyle visited over last Wednesday night in the James P. Twogh home in Sioux City. John Flannery was called to Sioux City the last of the week by the illness of his mother. The Misses Mildred Ryan and Madeline Sheehan attended a dancing party at Luton, Iowa, last Friday evening. Mary Sheehan, who teaches there, accompanied them home. Vera Boler has gone to Anthon, Ia., to teach school. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. William Hartnett, Jr., at St. Vincent's hospital, January 31st, a son. The pupils of the Jackson high school will present the play, "A Pair of Sixes," at St. Catherine Academy Sunday evening, February 20th. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Ithos. Cormally, Jr., February 1st, a son. Will Dineen of Ponca, is doing some inside painting on the parochial residence here this week.

RYAN-TRACY NUPTIALS.

A very pretty but simple wedding took place Thursday morning, at 8 o'clock, in St. Boniface Catholic church, Sioux City, when Miss Margaret Ryan became the bride of James W. Tracy. To the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding march, played by Mr. Pierce Wall, the bride, party accompanied by Miss Lu J. O'Keefe, a friend of the bride, and Mr. Francis Tracy, brother of the groom, took their places before the altar, where they were united in the holy bonds of matrimony, by Rev. Father Alfonso Bergmer. After the ceremony, a nuptial high mass was celebrated, during which Mrs. Dow rendered two beautiful solos. The bride was very becomingly attired in a navy blue tricotine suit and wore a hat of corresponding color trimmed with spring foliage. She also wore a corsage bouquet of sweet peas. The bridesmaid was dressed in a dark blue suit with hat to match. The groom and groomsmen wore dark blue tailored suits. Immediately after the mass the bridal party repaired to the Martin hotel, where a sumptuous five-course breakfast was served to the immediate relatives, during which time Mrs. Dow delightfully rendered some vocal selections, accompanied by Mr. Pierce Wall. The bride is the only daughter of Mr. J. W. Ryan, of Jackson, Neb., and is one of Jackson's most estimable young ladies. She received her education at St. Catherine's Academy, at Jackson, and Mt. St. Mary's, Omaha. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Tracy, of Westfield, Iowa, and is a progressive farmer, possessing many admirable traits of character. The happy couple departed at noon on a wedding journey. Their hosts of friends extend to them their heartiest good wishes for a happy future. On returning Mr. and Mrs. Tracy will make their home on his farm near Westfield, Iowa. Contributed.

HOMER

Mrs. H. A. Monroe of South Sioux visited at the Mrs. Rachael Kinnear and B. McKinley homes Tuesday. Born to Glen Dunlap and wife on February 8th, a boy. Born, to Lewis Hayes and wife, on February 8th, a son. Miss Mabel Rasmussen was a Sioux City visitor over the week, with friends. Mrs. Celia Mason is visiting her home Saturday of last week, intending to return on Sunday evening, but George was taken quite sick with the grippe, and will not be able to return for a few days. Elmer Stewart moved to the Loren Tilton farm which he has rented for the coming year, Thursday and Friday of this week. Loren Tilton loaded his household goods at Waterbury Thursday and Friday of last week, and shipped out for Central City Friday evening. Jess Rinken accompanied the car to Central City. Bert McClain has rented a farm near Walthill, Neb., and will move there about the first of March. He had the misfortune to get one of his horses' leg broken one day this week. The horse was one of a nice young team which he had just purchased. Rev. McClellan has been suffering with something like mastoiditis the past ten days, and was not able to attend quarterly meeting at Plainview, neither able to preach at Elk Valley on Sunday. The Endeavor society of the Elk Valley church held a business meeting and social at the Evan Way home Friday evening of last week. Thirty-eight were present. A splendid social evening was enjoyed by those present. Ice cream and cake were served by the social committee. Meetings at Elk Valley church next Sunday at the usual hours. Sunday school at 10 a.m. Meetings for worship at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. At the morning service the pastor will preach the second sermon on the "Visitation of Zechariah." A most cordial invitation is extended to one and all to be present and worship with us. Mrs. Loren Tilton and children visited with her mother, Mrs. Anna Linafelter, in Waterbury, over Sunday. They planned to leave for their new home in Central City on Monday of this week.

PARKERVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Priest and Mr. and Mrs. Altee Leedom called on Fred Leedom at their new home in Biyong Wednesday night. Mr. George Penry and son Earl, returned Saturday from an extended visit with her sister at Turin, S. D. OBITUARY. Mrs. Hans Knudson died at her farm home here on February 1, 1921, lacking one day of being 66 years of age. She was born in Denmark on February 2, 1855. She came to this county over thirty years ago, and has resided here ever since. She was sick just one week, and all was done that physicians and trained nurses could do, but to no avail. Mrs. Knudson was one of those quiet, unassuming women whose worth is known from deeds rather than from words. Therefore, take no thought for the morrow. For the Son of man cometh at an hour that ye think not. In the midst of life we are in death. The leaves of the oak and the willow will fade, Be scattered around and together be laid; And the old and the young, the low and the high Shall molder together, and together must die. She leaves to mourn her departure one daughter, Mrs. Frank Sharp; and one son, Peter, and two step-sons, Hans and Louie, all of this place. Her husband preceded her in death four years ago. Funeral services were held on last Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at the home, by the Rev. Kahse of Homer. The remains were laid to rest in the Omaha Valley cemetery. The bereaved family have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad hour of affliction.

HUBBARD

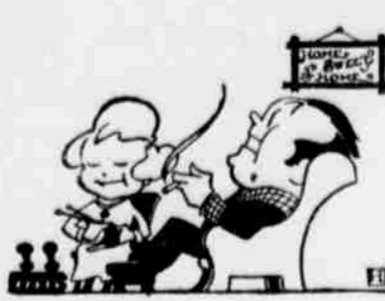

Mrs. James Howard and little daughter visited the past week with relatives in Sioux City. Mr. and Mrs. Young, Mr. Hartnett, and daughters, Benetta Heeny, Wm. Feller, Clara Sorensen, Bertha Francisco, Mrs. Reiss, Mrs. Renze, Katie Evans, Mrs. Walsh and baby, Rose Stephens, Margaret Hartnett, Mrs. D. Hartnett, Margaret Howard, Bonnie Hartnett, John Jensen, Alice Hartnett and Mike Jones were a few of the passengers who went to the city the past week from here. Pat Farrell visited a few days the past week in the home of his sister, Mrs. John Green. Christine Jensen visited the past week in the Geo. Jensen home. The quarantine for smallpox on the Geo. Timlin home was lifted on Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Voss visited the past week in the Frank Lussie home. Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Fred Johnson, Tuesday, February 1st, a little daughter. Christine Johnson visited in her home here the past week. Miss Rosa Pedersen spent Saturday and Sunday in her home here. Mr. and Mrs. Chris Miller entertained relatives at dinner last Wednesday. Neils Andersen and Will Rockwell returned the latter part of last week from their trip to Lincoln. Rasmus Rasmussen, who has been seriously ill with lumbago, and threatened with pneumonia, is recovering. Wayne Buckley and wife of Wayne, visited in Hubbard between trains last Friday. Glen Harris was taken to Rochester, Minn., last week, where he will enter Mayo Bros' hospital for treatment. L. Sorensen spent a few days this week in the Christensen home. Fred Bartels was in Sioux City on business Tuesday. Kingo Jensen came up from Wayne to spend over Sunday in his home here. Rev. Fr. Zeph went to Omaha on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. George Hayes returned Saturday from their honeymoon trip. John Hartly has bought the Louis

ELK VALLEY

Philo McAfee's children have been sick the past two weeks with something like the grippe. Little Wendell Schroeder has been sick the past week with what the doctor calls the smallpox. Bert Benton attended the Friends quarterly meeting at Plainview, Neb., Saturday and Sunday. Mrs. Bertha Benton and daughter Ruth have both been on the sick list the past week. Harry Reninger was in Sioux City Saturday of last week on business. Ora Barnhart, Bart Barnes, Geo. J. McClellan and Mr. and Mrs. Anna Linafelter were in Sioux City on business Monday of last week. Mrs. Alfred Mogensen went to So. Sioux City Tuesday of this week to visit her parents. Geo. E. McClellan and Ted Barnhart, who are attending an auto and tractor school in Sioux City, came home Saturday of last week, intending to return on Sunday evening, but George was taken quite sick with the grippe, and will not be able to return for a few days. Elmer Stewart moved to the Loren Tilton farm which he has rented for the coming year, Thursday and Friday of this week. Loren Tilton loaded his household goods at Waterbury Thursday and Friday of last week, and shipped out for Central City Friday evening. Jess Rinken accompanied the car to Central City. Bert McClain has rented a farm near Walthill, Neb., and will move there about the first of March. He had the misfortune to get one of his horses' leg broken one day this week. The horse was one of a nice young team which he had just purchased. Rev. McClellan has been suffering with something like mastoiditis the past ten days, and was not able to attend quarterly meeting at Plainview, neither able to preach at Elk Valley on Sunday. The Endeavor society of the Elk Valley church held a business meeting and social at the Evan Way home Friday evening of last week. Thirty-eight were present. A splendid social evening was enjoyed by those present. Ice cream and cake were served by the social committee. Meetings at Elk Valley church next Sunday at the usual hours. Sunday school at 10 a.m. Meetings for worship at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. At the morning service the pastor will preach the second sermon on the "Visitation of Zechariah." A most cordial invitation is extended to one and all to be present and worship with us. Mrs. Loren Tilton and children visited with her mother, Mrs. Anna Linafelter, in Waterbury, over Sunday. They planned to leave for their new home in Central City on Monday of this week.

"Home, Sweet Home" - that's the music for me

IT WAS a rotten night. RAIN, WIND, mud, slush. AND AFTER a hard day. IT MADE me sore. TO GET all dolled up. JUST TO go calling. ON A pair of fish. I NEVER could see. BUT ORDERS is orders. FROM FRIEND wife. AND "GEE," I said. "THIS IS a bum life." THEN THE phone rang. AND THE party was off. I CLIMBED out quick. FROM THE soup and fish. INTO THE easy clothes. AND SAT by the fire. TOASTING MY toes. AND WATCHING my wife. QUIETLY KNITTING away. IN THE firelight. AND I leard the rain. BEAT AT the windows. AND THE winter wind. HOWL AROUND. AND I stretched out. IN THE old arm chair. TOOK UP a book. LIT ONE of those cigarettes. THAT "SATISFY." AND SAID, "Oh, Man. IT'S A great old life."

20 for 20 cents in air-tight packages. Also obtainable in round tins of 50, vacuum-sealed.

Flynn Commission Company

Advertisement for Flynn Commission Company, featuring a portrait of Wm. (Bill) J. Flynn and text describing live stock commission services in Sioux City, Iowa.

Advertisement for 'For Rent' featuring a 240-acre farm for rent on share rent in Hubbard, Neb., owned by Fred Bartels.

How is YOUR Subscription?

Advertisement for E. F. Rasmussen, an Auctioneer in Ponca, Neb., with a portrait and text promoting his services.

Have YOU Paid YOUR Subscription.....?