fifth anniversary of his elevation to the cardinalate, his eminence, out of all the tributes paid him, expressed fixed by the house when it passed himself as most affected by that from William Howard Taft, his intimate friend, and then President, who said : "Through his long and useful life Cardinal Gibbons has spared no effort in the cause of good citlzenship and the uplifting of his fellowmen."

"You have portraged your subject, not, I fear, as he is, but as he should be," responded the cardinal. "One merit only can I claim, and that is an ardent love for my native country and her political institutions, 1 consider the republic of the United States one of the most precious heirlooms ever bestowed on mankind down the ages, It is the duty and should be the delight of every citizen to strengthen and perpetuate our government."

Wielded Large Influence.

Cardinal Gibbons, as senior bishop of the church, wielded a strong influence outside as well as within the United States. The confidant of three popes, he made several important tours to Rome, the last in August. 1914, a few days after the opening of the war, to elect the successor to Pius X. He arrived too late, however, to participate in the ceremony that elevated Benedict to the pontificate.

Upon returning to the United States he visited President Wilson, Informed the latter of affairs in Europe and discussed means to bring about peace. Cardinal Gibbons was active in his work for the allies in the war, and ina letter written to the Catholics of the archibiocese of New York in 1917. when the United States entered the conflict, urged the fullest support of the government. A few months previously he sent $10,000 to the American committee in London for the relief of the Belglaus, one of the many notable instances of his benevolence. In a sersion at Baltimore, in 1918, he praised the speech by Lloyd George and said that Germany's war alms should fail. Born in Baltimore.
