

DAKOTA COUNTY HERALD

JOHN H. REAM, Publisher. Entered as second class matter in the Postoffice at Dakota City, Nebr. Subscription Price, $1.50 Per Year. Telephone Nos. 43 and 15. Official Paper of Dakota City and Dakota County.

Foreign Advertising Representative THE AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

WASHINGTON NEWS LETTER

It has been decided by the republican leaders that tariff legislation will precede revenue... that an emergency tariff following closely the one vetoed by President Wilson will be presented and passed early in the special session of the Sixty-Seventh Congress; that the Ways and Means committee will be divided into five sub-committees and the head of each sub-committee will be one of the leading republicans members of the committee, it is expected that by following this course the Ways and Means committee will be able to present the new tariff bill at a comparatively early date.

Commercial merchants in France are making an effort to secure agencies for American wool, hides, skins, and all sorts of food commodities. Belgian commercial agents are attempting to secure the agencies for shoes, machinery, hides, leather, automobiles, etc.

President Harding has been forced to abandon the practice of making appointments every day as he is unable to discharge the important duties of President and continue the practice of receiving callers every day. As a consequence the President will make appointments only on Monday, Wednesday and Friday.

O. C. Anderson of West Point, returned to his home after being in Washington last week and the first of this week presenting a case to the supreme court for the Omaha Indians.

Hans M. Kohler, of Clarks, Nebr., was in Washington last week and called upon the members of the Nebraska delegation that were in their offices.

OBITUARY.

Michael Quinn, a pioneer resident of Dakota county, died at his home in Jackson last Thursday morning, March 31, 1921. His death was entirely unexpected, and a shock to his many friends in the vicinity, who saw him about town the day before.

Deceased was born in County Mayo, Ireland 74 years ago. Remaining in the land of his birth till young manhood, he emigrated to America in the early seventies. For a few years he remained in the east, coming to Jackson, Neb., in 1877, where he resided continuously until his death.

Besides his wife, he is survived by six daughters, Mrs. R. W. McHale, of Fairbury, Neb.; Sister M. Gertrude, of the Dominican Order of Sisters, Bloomington, Ill.; Mrs. Frank Moran, of Spalding, Neb.; Mrs. A. N. Tolan, of Langdon, N. D.; Mrs. W. A. Hays, of Hubbard, Neb.; and Miss Margaret Quinn, of Jackson; and three sons, Joseph P. Quinn, of Omaha, Neb.; Rev. M. A. Quinn, of Bancroft, Neb.; and Ray F. Quinn, of Jackson, Neb., all of whom were present at the funeral.

His life was simple, yet great. Simple in so far as he shunned the praise of men and the notice of the public; great in what he accomplished during his days on earth. The thorough christian education of his children was one of the greatest ambitions of his life, and at a sacrifice known to few. He lived to see this accomplished.

A son a priest of God; a daughter a Dominican Sister, were his returns for the bounteous blessings of his maker, returns made not unwillingly, but thankfully, grateful that God saw fit to will two of his children to his services.

His days on earth were well spent. His life is worthy of imitation. His death reflects the peaceful nature of his life. After receiving the last rites of the Catholic church his days of trials and sacrifices came to a calm and peaceful close Thursday morning, March 31st. His wife and family have lost a kind and good father, and the community an exemplary christian.

Solemn requiem mass was celebrated in St. Patrick's church Saturday morning with his son, Rev. M. A. Quinn, assisted by Rev. E. Gleason of Vista as deacon; Rev. Roger Hayes of Pender, subdeacon, and Very Rev. Felix McCarthy, of Jackson, master of ceremonies.

Besides those mentioned above the following clergy were present in the sanctuary: Rev. J. Burke, of Pender; Rev. J. Moore, of Ponder; Rev. Dr. Zeph, of Hubbard, and Father Towanek, of South Sioux City.

Ford Motors Overhauled. Labor, $18.00; parts at Ford prices. Best of service. Homer Motor Co. The Herald for News when it is 21:21

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE

ELK VALLEY

Harry Reniger has been suffering from blood poisoning in one of his fingers for several days past. While picking corn last fall a sand burr embedded itself in one of his fingers, not giving any trouble until recently. Mr. and Mrs. Henry Knudsen and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Mogensen were called to Sioux City Sunday afternoon to see their brother, who was at the point of death with blood poisoning. He was not expected to live through the night.

Dr. and Mrs. Legg and daughter Clara, of Waterbury, attended services at Elk Valley Sunday.

Amos Linafelter and family visited relatives in Sioux City last Sunday. Harvey Linafelter and mother, Mrs. Aaron Linafelter, and sister Cora attended both morning and evening services at Elk Valley last Sunday.

Philo McAfee shipped cattle to the Sioux City market last week.

The Rev. McClellan family took dinner and spent the afternoon at the Swanson home last Sunday.

Frank Way and family of South Sioux City attended church at Elk Valley and visited at the Egan Way home last Sunday.

Several of the Elk Valley school students will take the state eighth grade examinations Thursday and Friday of this week at Oak Dale and Waterbury.

Miss Gladys Barnhart was tendered an aluminum shower by a large number of her close friends at the Sam Knox home Friday evening of last week. She received a large number of beautiful and useful presents from her many friends. A very delightful evening was spent by all present. A fine program was carried out, and which was greatly enjoyed by those present. Mr. and Mrs. Knox, assisted by Rose Sierk and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Mogensen, proved royal entertainers. Near the midnight hour a splendid lunch was served which was greatly enjoyed by all.

Rev. McClellan was kept quite busy a large part of last week culling chickens. He culled several flocks in the Springbank vicinity numbering several hundred. He found quite a number of hens that were "slackers," hens that would not pay for their feed. A great deal of money is lost every year by the farmers of the United States in keeping non-laying hens. Rev. McClellan has spent several years in this line of work.

Several boys and girls will become members of the Elk Valley Boys and Girls Poultry club in this community. Geo. J. McClellan and Mrs. Cecil McAfee are the directors of the club. All those wishing to enter the club will see the directors.

A large attendance and splendid interest at both morning and evening services at the Elk Valley church last Sunday. We are planning for a Mother's Day program in May. A most cordial invitation is extended to one and all to come and worship with us next Sunday. The pastor preached two sermons last Sunday on "The Cities of Refuge."

The Elk Valley Friends Christian Endeavor society will hold an Endeavor social and business meeting at the Amos Linafelter home Friday evening of this week. Fruit salad, cake and coffee will be served. A most enjoyable time is anticipated. Everyone is invited to attend. Games and different kinds of stunts will be one of the features of the evening.

Harvey Linafelter, mother and sister, of Waterbury, took dinner and spent the afternoon at the Bart Barnes home last Sunday.

Mrs. Bertha Benton, who recently returned from the hospital in Sioux City, is getting along nicely. Her many friends will be glad to see her out at the church services again. We miss her efficient leadership in the church and Sunday school.

HOMER

Mrs. Andy Weander of Sioux City, was a Homer visitor Saturday.

Mrs. Rook of Sioux City, is visiting at the George Whaley home.

Mrs. Ed Hoover received a set of cups and saucers from Italy a few days ago. Mr. Hoover's brother, Ray Hoover, sent them to her.

H. C. Rasmussen had a fine bunch of fat cattle on the market Monday.

T. F. Mann and family of Winnebago, and Miss Bessie Mann visited their niece and sister in Homer Sunday afternoon at the Frank Kettler home.

J. E. Rogers and family have moved to the Buckwalter & Stidworthy property just south of town.

Little Carol Churchill is quite ill with pneumonia.

Thos. O'Shea of Sioux City was a business visitor in Homer Tuesday.

Lula Harris was taken to St. Joseph's hospital Tuesday for treatment. Her sister, Miss Ardath, is substituting for her at the Meridian school.

G. A. Mounce and wife of South Sioux City, were Homer visitors Monday.

Lewis Pilgrim visited friends in Sioux City Sunday.

Mrs. E. N. Swett returned from Wayne Saturday where she attended a teachers meeting.

Miss Margaret Smith of So. Sioux City visited Homer relatives Friday. On Sunday she departed for Ocean Park, Cal., to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith.

The mother of Will Aulerich, who made her home with him this winter, is quite ill at her son's home.

John Williams and wife, of Springdale, Ark., arrived Tuesday to make Homer their future home.

Miss Lisle Smith was taken to a Sioux City hospital Friday morning to be operated on for appendicitis, which she has been troubled with for some time. She is doing nicely. Miss Fessie Holsworth of the Samaritan hospital, came home Friday to see her sister, Miss Mayme Holsworth, who is on the sick list.

Dr. C. H. Maxwell and wife were Homer visitors from Dakota City on Friday.

Oliver Smith was an incoming passenger from Sioux City Saturday.

Peter Sorenson and daughters, Mrs. Ed Fox and Miss Mabel Sorenson, were Sioux City shoppers Thursday.

Miss, Wm. H. Ryan and Miss Babe Ashford were Sioux City visitors on Thursday.

Miss Gertrude McKinley of Sioux City visited at the B. McKinley and Rachael Kinnear homes Saturday.

Mrs. Peter Kautz and daughter Genevieve went to Hoskins, Neb., on Friday for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Green.

Mrs. T. D. Curtis and daughter, Marion, were dinner guests at the Ern Harris home Sunday.

Dr. Daily motored to Lincoln Saturday to visit relatives. Raymond Winch accompanied him.

Talk about California climate—T. D. Curtis was raking under an apple tree on his place the other day and found a perfectly good apple which had been there all winter. Next!

JACKSON

Miss Emma Kennedy, of Delhi, Ia., who has been visiting in the Mrs. Mary McGonigle home, departed on Monday for Hartington, Neb., to spend a few days in the C. P. Garvey home before returning home.

Peter Carney arrived here Monday from Sioux City, to begin his annual assessing.

Charles Brooks and family of Allen have moved into the C. K. Hefner, Old Homestead.

Celia Fullen spent a few days last week visiting in the home of her aunt, Mrs. J. J. Ripp, at Waterbury. Saint Catherine academy re-opens for classes last Friday, after the Easter vacation.

John Flannery spent a few days last week in Omaha.

Vic and Bart McGonigle now drive a Mitchell car which they find quite handy to come home for the week end from their school work at New castle.

Thos. Callerton arrived here last week from Gary, Ind., for a few months vacation, which he is spending in the C. J. Goodfellow home assisting in the Jackson State bank.

Misses Blanche and Annie Water spent the week-end at home. The former teaches at Crete and the latter at Plainville, Neb.

Mrs. G. J. Ryan has been quite sick the past week. A trained nurse was called in to help care for her.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Nelsen and baby spent over Sunday with relatives at Waterbury.

Eleanor Hall invited a number of her young friends to her home Sunday evening. The time was spent in music and cards. Refreshment of cake and coffee were served during the evening.

Pat Sullivan departed for Newcastle, Neb., Tuesday, where he expects to spend the summer.

Word was received here Monday of the death of Olof Mogensen in a hospital in Sioux City Sunday night following a few days' illness with blood poisoning. Quite a number from here attended the funeral at Sioux City Tuesday afternoon. The remains were interred in Graceland cemetery.

M. R. Boler, who underwent an operation for appendicitis at St. Vincent's hospital last Tuesday, is improving nicely.

Among those from Sioux City who attended the funeral of Michne Quinn last Saturday were, Mr. and Mrs. John Ryan, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Barry, Mrs. Ed T. Kearney, Mrs. C. A. Barrett, Frank Davenport, John W. Ryan, and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Myer and daughter.

Mrs. C. Casey of Cleveland, Ohio who was called here by the death of her brother, Miles Riley, last week is visiting in the home of her brother, Wm. Riley, and also with relatives in Sioux City.

Margaret O'Neill departed last week for Minneapolis, Minn.

Dr. Thomas Boler was up from Omaha last Wednesday to see his brother, M. R. Boler, who is a patient in the hospital.

Mrs. Alice Dorgan and daughter Loretta, of Sioux City, visited relatives and friends here Sunday.

Margaret Twobig and the Joe Davey children motored down from Ponca Sunday and spent the day in the John Boler home.

John McGonigle underwent an operation for the removal of his tonsils at St. Vincent's hospital Tuesday.

W. C. Amick returned Tuesday from an over Sunday visit with relatives at Newcastle.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wintertinger who spent the past year with Tom Sullivan, moved on Tuesday to South Sioux City.

HUBBARD

Ray Bresnan spent Easter in the Mrs. Shanahan home.

Mrs. Young and children spent Easter in Norfolk with relatives.

Miss Margaret Kelleher, of Minneapolis, Minn., is visiting in the Patrick Jones home.

Fred Bartels shipped a double decked car of sheep and one car of cattle Tuesday.

Anna Beck spent Sunday in Hubbard.

Mary Christensen was a visitor in the Christensen home Saturday. She attended the Sisterhood dance, also. Will Blacketer visited in the John Jensen home Sunday.

Mrs. Anna Farrell visited relatives here the past week.

Word was received here Monday that Olof Mogensen had died in Sioux

City. He was a nephew of Carl Andersen.

Thorvald Reiss finished papering in the Christensen home last week.

Herman Renze was in Sioux City last week.

George Johnson shipped a car of stock to Sioux City the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Broezk were city passengers last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Goertz motored to Sioux City last Friday.

Little Joseph Pounds is quite sick and under the care of a doctor.

Mr. Evans had a telephone installed in his residence last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Rooney motored to Sioux City last week.

H. Thompson motored to Sioux City last Friday.

Hubbard was hilarious the first of the week when it was learned that the highway permit through the town had been granted. Who dares to say that Hubbard is not on the map.

Miss Goldie Frederick spent over Sunday at her home in Dakota City.

Margaret Uffing spent Saturday and Sunday in her home here.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Christensen entertained friends at dinner Sunday.

Quite a number from neighboring towns attended the Sisterhood dance here Saturday night.

Patrick Jones was a business visitor in Sioux City and Dakota City on Wednesday.

Ben Long was in Jackson the past week visiting friends.

Fred Bartels was in Sioux City the first of the week on business.

Nels Andersen motored to Jackson Tuesday on business.

The Graves family visited in the F. Hartnett home Sunday.

Ray Cullen motored to Jackson on Tuesday.

Sam Larsen and family, while riding in their Ford Saturday evening near the Bartels school house, upset her car, injuring Mr. Larsen, who suffered a broken collar bone. The other members of the family escaped with slight bruises.

The infant child of Emil Andresen is sick with fever.

Fred Bartels had hogs on the Sioux City market Thursday.

Miss Mary Hartly is quite sick and under the care of a physician.

Dan Hartnett attended the Woodman convention at Homer Tuesday.

SALEM

Mrs. Hannah Beermann has purchased a new Chandler car, and it's a dandy.

Archie Coughtry was operated on Monday at the Samaritan hospital in Sioux City for a gathering in his head, resulting from a cold. He is recovering nicely at this writing.

Capt. Munson entertains at the Salem church this Wednesday and Thursday evenings. Don't miss it.

FOR SALE

Some good Hampshire brood sows. JULIUS LISCHKE, Dakota City, Neb. route No. 1.

FOR SALE

American Silver Laced Wyandotte eggs. I have purchased two fine cockerels from the best breeder in the state to head my pens of pure red, heavy laying strain hens. These cockerels are winners of the first and second prizes in all of the eastern Nebraska Poultry Shows. Won second prize at the State Poultry Show, foldridge. Special price, 15 eggs $1.50. Geo. J. McClellan, Waterbury, Neb.

Advertisement for OilPull tractors. Features four sizes: 12-20, 16-30, 20-40, and 30-60. Text: 'A Size for Every Need. There's an OilPull tractor to fit your requirements, for there are four sizes—from the small 12-20 up to the giant 30-60. Whether your farm is 80 acres or 8,000, or any size between, there is an OilPull of the correct size. The OilPull line includes the 12-20, 16-30, 20-40 and 30-60 H. P.—all standard in design. The features that have come to make the name "OilPull" stand for unequalled quality in tractor manufacture are built into all sizes. Guaranteed kerosene burning, oil cooling, double lubrication, 25% overload capacity—these, and other advantages of which we are anxious to tell you, are to be found in every OilPull. Come in and have us show you the different sizes. Farley Brothers, Distributors 509-12 Frances Bldg., Sioux City, Iowa.'

Advertisement for Kettler & Probst plumbing and heating work. Text: 'PLUMBING AND HEATING — WINDMILL AND PUMP WORK. Kettler & Probst. Telephone No. 2. HOMER, NEBR.'

Advertisement for Abstracts of Title. Text: 'Abstracts of Title. A $10,000 Surety Bond Guarantees the Accuracy of every Abstract I make. J. J. EIMERS, Bonded Abstractor. Successor to the Dakota County Abstract Company.'

Large advertisement for Chesterfield Cigarettes. Text: 'But a good wheeze-I'll leave it to you. I LOVE the ladies. BUT LIKE most men. I OFTEN guess wrong. ON WHAT will win. A SMILE from them. I ALWAYS say. IT'S BETTER to laugh. THAN EVER to worry. SO ONCE, when. THE DAM broke, and. A FLOOD hit town. I THOUGHT I'd just. CHEER UP my wife. AND SO I said. "IF THE worst comes. YOU CAN float down. THE RIVER on. THE FAMILY music-box. AND I'LL accompany you. ON THE piano." WHICH WAS all wrong. POOR HUMOR, she said. WAS OUT of place. IN TIME of danger. SO KIPLING was right. "A WOMAN is only. A WOMAN, but a good cigar. IS A smoke;" only. HE SHOULD have made X. MY CIGARETTES because. YOU'RE BOUND to get. A SMILE from them. THEY ALWAYS "satisfy." TAKE the silky, tender leaves of choicest Turkish; blend them with the best Domestic tobacco that money can buy—blend them in the exclusive, can't-be-copied Chesterfield way and you get a "smoke." Yes, and something more—you get a cigarette that honestly "satisfies."