Lincoln State Journal, 22: Will S. Jay died Wednesday night at Kansas City. The body will be brought to Lincoln for burial. Mr. Jay had been ailing for a long time and recently his illness took a more serious turn and hope of his recovery was lost. Mr. Jay was for a number of years a member of the editorial staff, a business agent and an employee of the Nebraska State Journal. He left the employ of this paper in 1909 and accepted a position as state oil inspector. W. S. Jay was born in Knoxville, Iowa, in 1854. Later his parents removed to Wapello county near Ottumwa, where in the country school he gained about all the education he ever gathered outside of a printing office. He learned to set type in the office of the Sigourney News, and in 1876, at the age of twenty-two started in company with the late Atlee Hart, the North Nebraska Eagle at Dakota City. In 1878-9 he did local and exchange work on the Sioux City Journal, and then was back on the Eagle for a few years. In 1884 he became connected with the State Journal and first and last with this paper for nearly twenty years as reporter, traveling solicitor and copy reader. He retired from daily newspaper work in 1910. He lived for a long time at 118 Wood street, Lincoln. Mr. Jay was prominent in the bull moose movement in the state and was a candidate for the republican nomination for secretary of state at the 1918 primary election. He later became an assistant in that office, but confinement in an office was irksome, and he left. In recent months he has been looking after oil interests in Oklahoma and property interests in Kansas City. Mr. Jay was twice married. His second wife, one of the state suffrage leaders, died a little over a year ago. Two sons were born of his first marriage.

Lutheran Church Notes By Rev. C. R. Lowe.

The Ladies' Aid will meet at the home of Mrs. Archie Coughty Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. You are cordially welcome to this meeting and invited to come. You will enjoy the afternoon.

The Ladies' Aid will have a food sale on April 30th, Saturday, at the Pelletier store in Sioux City.

The conference at Fremont, which M. G. Leamer and the pastor attended was a very pleasant and helpful affair. It was well attended by our men. It is intended that this conference under the direction of the Western Theological Seminary shall be developed into a strong Lutheran meeting where all the synods on the territory shall come together for mutual profit. To this end it seems that the North Platte and the South Platte conferences have fallen into line. It was determined to have the meeting of the conferences at Fremont again next year. The addresses were helpful and inspiring the good people of Fremont were very kind to the visitors. The meeting of the Nebraska Brotherhood on Thursday afternoon was a most interesting meeting. The papers presented by the two laymen were fine and provocative of a real lively discussion. It would be a fine thing if the laymen of the synod would make it possible for them to be at the Brotherhood meeting.

Prehistoric Graveyard Unearthed.

A prehistoric graveyard believed to be at least 2,000 years old has been unearthed near Stargard West Prussia, by German investigators under the direction of Professor Zakrewski. In one of the graves the excavators found six black urns and one red urn with white stripes filled with clay and ashes. Among the remains were some glittering substances which the investigators believe once had been adornments of prehistoric men and women.

Farm Bureau Field Notes C. R. Young, County Agent

Poultry meetings will be held during the week on the following schedule:

Wednesday, April 27th—Wm. McAfee's, Elk Valley.

Thursday, April 28th—Jes. Brennan's, Jackson.

Friday, April 30th—Fred Nelson's, Hubbard.

Each meeting will begin promptly at 2 p. m. Methods of controlling lice and mites will be shown. Other poultry problems will be discussed.

President C. C. Beermann and the County Agent attended the North-east Nebraska Farm Bureau and County Agents' conference at Norfolk on Thursday of last week. This was the best attended district conference yet held, which, together with splendid interest shown, spoke well of the growth of the work. Secretary H. D. Lute and Director W. H. Brokaw of the State Extension office, together with other Extension workers from the Lincoln office, were present. Eight counties are included in this district. Speaking for the Dakota County Farm Bureau, President Beermann extended an invitation to hold the next conference, which will be June 24 and 25, at Crystal Lake. This was promptly accepted.

The Busy Worker's Sewing club, was organized at the Hale school last Saturday afternoon, with Miss Abbie Rockwell as leader. Members of the club are Flossie Ogburn, Elsie Krumwiede, Margaret Smith, Valda Rockwell, Helen Luesebrink, Mary Krumwiede, Leone Ogburn and Helen Brasfield.

A community meeting will be held at the Hale school house on Thursday evening, April 28th. Besides local entertainment, Dr. Henry Kersten will speak on hog disease, sanitation and control. Dr. Kersten is familiar with his subject as he devotes his entire time to the government in hog disease control work. As many as possible should plan to attend this meeting.

Several states are looking for a faker going by the name of Dr. Nolan, who sells a so-called remedy known as "Noxine," claimed to cure almost every disease common to domestic animals, especially hog diseases. He comes to a state in a hurry, works fast and gets out. This far he has escaped the authorities in several states. Should he appear in your locality, notify the Farm Bureau office at once.

How to Control Garden Insects

"Diseases and Insects of the Home Garden," United States Department of Agriculture circular 35, is a valuable publication which should be of use to every owner of a garden. It deals with the general crop pests, the principal insects and diseases that attack garden crops, how to make fungicides and insecticides, how to spray, miscellaneous control measures, disease damage, etc. There are 32 pages discussing practically every garden insect and disease and their control, with 46 illustrations of the various kinds of common insects and disease damage. The circular may be obtained free through any county agricultural agent or from the College of Agriculture, Lincoln.

Change in Automobile Laws

H. R. 344 and H. R. 345 was signed by the governor April 13, 1921. Both bills carried the emergency clause and are now laws.

The county treasurers instead of sending to the state treasurer 75% of the total collections now remit only 3 1/2% of the total collections, the balance, 96 1/2%, is retained by the treasurers and kept in their own counties for maintenance of the state highway system.

All claims for maintenance work are to be handled as any other county claim. On all dealers' applications after April 12, 1921, a fee of $10 must be paid for extra plates instead of $1.00, as was previously required.

After December 31, 1921, plates will be furnished in pairs, and one must be carried on the front and back of every car.

Dealers of new cars have the right to transport cars (solely for the purpose of delivery) from one place to another with paper number "IN TRANSIT." The dealer may also in case he sells a car, attach a paper number, which will enable the purchaser to drive the car home. These paper numbers are good for ten days only, and the purchaser must apply within that time for a regular plate.

Parties in transferring their license from one car to another may do so for a fee of $1.00, if he presents to the county treasurer his old certificate within ten days, after that time he must pay full fee.

Walter E. Miller, County Treasurer.

DAKOTA CITY SCHOOL NOTES J. Irwin Long, Superintendent

Arbor day was set aside by the board as a holiday, for the purpose of beautifying the campus. In the morning, students, assisted by parents, brought in trees, and all "fell to" and planted them. About 100 trees were planted during the day.

A picnic dinner was served at noon by the students and patrons. In the afternoon the baseball team played Allen high, the latter winning by a score of 12 to 3.

In the evening the fifth and sixth grades gave their annual entertainment. The program was under the direction of Miss Petreshek, and merited the much applause it received. A large crowd attended the program.

The baseball team goes to Ponca Tuesday, April 26 to play the Ponca team. The Ponca club will return the game Friday, May 6. The boys were to go to Ponca Friday, April 15, but the weather man changed the plan.

How People Die in India.

A return of the number of inquests held by the coroner of Bombay during 1919 gives us some very interesting particulars. Among the "suicide" we find that six cut their throats, 28 drowned themselves, four hanged themselves, 15 jumped out of windows, 20 took opium, arsenic or some other poison, four shot themselves and eight burned themselves. Drowning, therefore, took pride of place last year, whereas self-poisoning was the favorite method of quitting life in 1918, there being 21 cases reported. Other suicidal practices mentioned in the report are stabbing and the act of knocking one's head against a wall. No one has favored either of these methods during the past two years, however.

Machine Softens Leather.

Working leather by the various processes known as graining, boarding and staking, ordinarily a laborious manual operation, is now accomplished by mechanical means with a machine designed by a Massachusetts inventor. Two broad belts, running on rollers, are so mounted that faces traveling in opposite directions are arranged one above the other, a short distance apart. The hide to be softened is laid on a metal plate and inserted between the belt faces, the upper belt when being pressed down by a lever.—Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Draft Horses In Demand

The demand for draft horses is stimulating breeding this spring, according to the Nebraska College of Agriculture. Good drafters weighing 1,500 pounds or more are finding a ready market both in the country and in the cities. The eastern markets are bidding up for the better quality of draft animals. The medium-weight horses of not too good quality are finding a slow sale, especially in the east. There are indications, however, that medium-weight horses of quality will bring good money in the future for farm purposes. The tendency of farmers to return to more extensive use of horses will in all probability send up the price. The general horse shortage, together with the tendency to use more horses, has opened up a good market for the right quality animals.
