JACKSON

That's Different.
Bacon—You're looking fine, old man; what have you been doing?
Egbert—I've given up coffee—
"Good! I told you long ago you should give it up. There's a reason, you know."
"Well, you see, every time I ate coffee—"
"Oh say now; nobody eats coffee."
"I say, whenever I ate coffee—cake it gave me indigestion, so I gave up eating it."

Knew What He Was Doing.
Photoplay Writer—But, look here! This character is supposed to be a very homely man, and you have cast for that part the handsomest man in your company.
Director—Oh, he'll be homely enough when the cameraman and the developer get through with him. You see, he's engaged to the star, and both those boys are in love with her.—Film Fun.

A FINANCIAL STRINGENCY
Visiting Statesman: You seem to be suffering a shortage of currency. How do you account for it?
Comrade Ivan Offulitch: Industrial unrest. The counterfeiters of soviet money have gone on strike and demand a daily wage in gold.

Useful Knocking.
We would have less wordy clamor and more roofs to shield our domes if the fellow with the hammer used it in constructing homes.

She is Amused.
"Now you know that you, a jazz baby, never intend to marry a college professor."
"Maybe not."
"Then why let him make love to you?"
"Aw, it's such fun to hear a college professor converse in gurgles."

Not the Kind for Present Crisis.
"No," said old Mr. Subbubs, "I can't say that I approve of your match with that city young man."
"But, father, he has such a fine genealogical tree."
"What good is that? If it was pine or hickory we might burn it, seein' we can't get any coal."

Preocious.
Flatbush—Do you know when a baby begins to think?
Bensonhurst—Why, sure.
Flatbush—Well, when?
Bensonhurst—Mine began to think that I ought to walk the floor with him the first week he arrived in the house.

Might Help.
"Was Shakespeare a poacher?"
"I don't care whether that story is true or not," said the erudite person, "but if it is true it's a pity some of our contemporary dramatists can't take a preliminary course in deer stealing."

Prospects Good.
"Here's a gent writes our mail-order house for a wife."
"Can we fill that order?"
"I think so. One of our young lady clerks has started a coy correspondence with him."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Real Temptations.
"George Washington was a truthful man."
"As far as he got. But no interviewer ever asked him to make a public statement about his golf score or the number of fish he caught."

ACCOUNTED FOR
1st Student: I understand that there is a great deal of kicking on the professors in regard to the compensation they receive.
2nd Student: Aw! They're only mad 'cause they can't write home to their old man for more money.

Our Share.
We can't all smoke high-priced cigars or own a limousine.
But we can all collect the bands and smell the gasoline.

The Differentiation.
"What's the difference between a farmer and a landed proprietor?" asked Mrs. Cornetson.
"A farmer," replied her husband, "is a man with a hoe and a landed proprietor is a man with a golf club."

According to U. S. Farmers Bulletin 1175, corn yields can be increased more surely by the use of better seed than in any other way. Seed corn should be selected in the field from stalks which yield best in equal competition with others. Generally speaking, the seed corn that produces the best is the cheapest. Farmers are justified in devoting considerable time to selecting and caring for it or in paying good prices if better seed corn is purchased. Ask the College of Agriculture or the agricultural extension agent in your county for this bulletin.

Redeeming Trail.
"I know I'm old, but I'm crazy about you," stated Mr. Moneybags. "When I go I'll leave all my fortune to you if you'll have me."
"Have you any bad habits?" asked Miss Goldilocks, thoughtfully.
"Only that I walk in my sleep, if you could call that a bad habit."
"You dear old thing. Of course I'll marry you. And we'll have our honeymoon on the top floor of some tall hotel, won't we?"—American Legion Weekly.

Surgeon's Job.
Collectors of customs, being constantly on the watch for smugglers, have certain demands which they repeat almost unconsciously. Not long ago a tourist came ashore with a badly swollen cheek.
"What have you there?" asked the customs officer, pointing to the swelling.
"An abscess, sir," was the reply.
"Well," said the officer, impatiently, "open it, please."—Boston Transcript.

A Specialist.
"Will you do a little work around the place if I give you your breakfast?" asked the farmer's wife.
"Yes, ma'am," replied the flattered stranger, "if it's the kind of work for which I am best fitted."
"What kind is that?"
"I'm an expert repairer of pipe organs."—Birmingham Age-Herald.

Expectancies.
"Your constituents expect a great deal of you."
"Yes," replied Senator Sorghum. "Expectation properly managed is an asset. My success in politics is due to the fact that while I was often compelled to disappoint my friends I always managed to keep 'em hopeful."

Significant Brevities.
"I suppose you are prepared to deliver some great speeches."
"Not long ones," replied Senator Sorghum. "One word may decide the future of a man in my position. Everything depends on whether you know just when to say 'Aye' and when to say 'No.'"

THE?
He: Don't you think we could marry on my salary?
She: Yes, but could we stay married?

The Law of Compensation.
My son, beware the cares that lurk in a dishonest hurry.
A grafter doesn't do much work—But how he has to worry!

Economy.
"You favor strict economy, of course."
"Yes," replied Senator Sorghum. "But my attitude toward economy is a good deal the same as my attitude toward the violin. I want the other fellow to do the practicing and let me do the applauding."

Support.
"Why do you have those rails there? Is it to prevent people from stealing your goods?"
"No. They are for people to catch hold of when they hear of our prices."—Copenhagen Rayven.

Can't Get Away From It.
"This book tells you how to economize."
"Do I need a book to tell me that?"
"Huh?"
"Economy is forced on me. I can't get away from it."

Probably That's It.
"Your new maid is very pretty."
"My husband doesn't think so."
"You mean he's wise enough to say he doesn't think so."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Far From the Madding Crowd.
"Where are those who once drew my carriage?" demanded Yorick Hamm.
"What now?"
"We're out of gasoline."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Right!
Young Multirox—I'll never forget the time I proposed to you.
Miss Malchance—Righto, old dear! I don't intend to let you forget it.

Literally So.
Edith—You say his attentions to you have been marked.
Maud—Yes; he has never taken the price tag off his presents.
