Engine Trouble

It has been said that the gasoline engine is very much like a mule. It kicks back at most inopportune times and balks when action is demanded. Sometimes it acts very sick when nothing is the matter. There seemed to be an unusual crop of sick gasoline engines down in Clay county this fall, so the Agricultural Extension Agent called on the Agricultural College for an engine doctor. Five meetings were scheduled and each attended by from 26 to 53 interested farmers. All kinds and sizes of engines were brought in, small ones, big ones, old ones which had not run for three years, and new ones which had never run right. Even an old two-cylinder

Maxwell car was pulled to one meeting and started after some overhauling. The trouble on each engine was diagnosed, remedied and explained to the audience. A general lecture on gasoline motors was given during the afternoon. One farmer made the remark that through this activity of the Agricultural Extension Agent he was able to save $150.00, since he was about to scrap an engine worth that amount. The engine was repaired at one of the meetings and the owner says he will invest this saving in a Farm Bureau membership for 15 years at $10 per year.

WHO PAYS THESE PROFITS?

(From Farm Bureau News)
We commonly hear the expression that supply and demand govern prices and yet we know that these would have to be very unstable if they were the cause of the many sharp declines and advances in our markets. But, while these are factors, there is a greater one—the speculative market or market manipulation. The following statement, taken from Vol. 5, page 127 of the Federal Trade Commission Report on the Grain Trade, shows a comparison of commissions on futures and cash grain collected by one commission firm for a period of five years and five months. Year begins Aug. first:

Year	Cash	Grain	Grain
1912	$1,472	$1,472	$1,472
1913	1,472	1,472	1,472
1914	1,472	1,472	1,472
1915	1,472	1,472	1,472
1916	1,472	1,472	1,472
1917	1,472	1,472	1,472
Aug. 1 to Dec. 31, 1917	$1,472	$1,472	$1,472

It will be noted that commissions on cash grain of this one firm, investigated by the Federal Trade Commission, equaled only 4 percent of the commissions collected on speculative deals in grain. Their total commissions equalled an average of $714,270 a year. What do you suppose it amounts to annually for all of the firms? To those interested in selling at the Farm Bureau office, we will show extracts from official records where the amount made by this firm in five years were made by others in but a few months. This would be a deplorable condition if we were without hope, but we are not. Through the Farm Bureau and other farm organizations a new era is dawning, the U. S. Grain Growers, Inc. is coming to fill a long felt need at the rate of 2,000 members a week. Indifference is a greater foe to advancement in organized agriculture than organized opposition. Let every farmer take a stand for his interest and push.

DAKOTA PRECINCT MAKES PROGRAM OF WORK.

(From Farm Bureau News)
The committee on programs of work for Dakota precinct met at the Geo. Bates home. A special program featuring some phase of agriculture the home, boys and girls work, or community life will be given each month. The committee named for this work was C. C. Beermann, Mrs. G. W. Bates, Mrs. S. A. Mason, Verr Morgan and Mrs. J. T. Graham. Better health in homes was made a community project and will be worked through the schools. Mrs. Vern Morgan, Mrs. Archie Coughtry, Mrs. C. L. Legg and Mrs. Chas. Sierk were the committee appointed. Poultry work received its usual consideration. The goal set for this activity calls for three culling demonstrations, three feed-mixing demonstrations, the construction of one Nebraska type poultry house and the remodeling of one house. Effort will be made to have every poultry raiser in the precinct to use standard breed roosters. Two demonstrations in parasite control will be held. Mrs. L. S. Bliven and Mrs. Chas. Blessing were named leaders. It was felt that farmers should have more knowledge of types, varieties and other factors influencing yields of corn. Two field tests will be made this year. Seed corn week will also be observed this fall. Don Forbes was named chairman. Mr. John Stading was named leader of the gopher control project. It is planned to form a pest district for their eradication. A gopher drive will be made this spring and another in the fall. Effort will be made to co-operate with state and federal authorities in tuberculosis control. E. M. Blessing and H. C. Ebel were named a committee on this work. With Vern Morgan as leader, a demonstration farm will be conducted to prevent worms in pigs. To assist poultry raisers to get more for eggs, an egg marketing circle plan will be discussed and if sufficient interest is shown, put into operation. M. G. Leamer was named leader. Dressmaking problems will be solved at three schools with Mrs. Chas. Sierk, Mrs. Adolph Bartels and Mrs. John Sides as leaders, and the millinery problems in three schools with a committee of Mrs. Geo. Bates and Mrs. Baker. The food project will be lead by Mrs. Vern Morgan and Mrs. B. M. Bosis. Onecanning demonstration and food selection group will be features of this work.
